W. T. MEYER, Bellefonte.

Special. It is seldom that the trade that seeks Bellefonte markets has the advantage of such a mark down sale as Lyon & Co. are advertising in another column on this page. It will pay you to look it up.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Frank Bradford left last week for a visit among friends at Williamsport.

Mrs. Maggie Allison, of Howard, is visiting among her many friends in this place.

Prof. Gramley, County Superintendent, with his wife, were the guests of Simon Harper last Thursday.

Our old friend, farmer John Shaffer, of Madisonburg, gave us a call, and reports all looking promising for good crops.

Simon Harper is attending court at Bellefonte this week, being interested in a case as executor of the estate of David Sparr, dec'd, of Boalsburg.

Mrs. Rev. Curren, of Bloomsburg, Pa., spent several days last week with her aged mother, Mrs. Willow, who has been seriously ill with heart trouble.

Mrs. Joshua Potter departed Tuesday morning for McElhattan, Clinton county, to attend the funeral of her cousin, Mr. James Montgomery, who died of pneumonia. Interment will be made Wednesday at Jersey Shore.

Mr. Israel Long, of Zion, was in Centre Hall last Friday, and in calling upon his old friends included among them the REPORTER. Mr. Long is numbered among the REPORTER's oldest subscribers, having subscribed for the paper first during the civil war, and has taken it constantly since.

See the New Goods.

I will have a full stock of Millinery Goods on hand by Saturday next, such as Hats, Bonnets, Children's Caps, and the latest novelties of Trimmings, and large display of City trimmed hats and bonnets to select from. All are invited to call and see the new goods. MRS. MYRA C. ISHLER, Tusseyville.

You can save $5 on every $10 purchase you make at our store. We have received a big stock of spring goods, and they are exceptionally cheap.—Lewins, Bellefonte.

Figured China Silks, 20c. a yard. Striped Wash Silks, 30c. a yard. Lyon & Co.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

W. E. Detwiler and Miss Sarah McClellan Married at Sunbury.

In the City hotel parlor at Sunbury, last Thursday afternoon, Mr. W. E. Detwiler and Miss Sarah McClellan were quietly married by Rev. Samuel G. Shannon, of Philadelphia.

Both bride and groom are from Tusseyville, and the wedding was a quiet one, the only witness being Dr. F. E. Drumbeller, the proprietor of the hotel, who acted as best man.

The bride is a daughter of the late Joseph R. McClellan, deceased, one of Potter township's successful and prominent farmers.

The groom is a son of Jacob Detwiler, of Potter township, and is a young man commanding the respect and esteem of all his acquaintances. He is about to embark in the grocery business at Reedsville, Mifflin county, where the newly wedded couple will make their future home.

On Friday evening the bride and groom were tendered a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. McClellan, at Tusseyville, where an enjoyable time was had.

Stabbing Affray at Millheim.

Monday afternoon, two of Millheim's citizens, Cobe King, and clothing dealer Abe Kessler, engaged in a quarrel which finally terminated in blows. King was getting the worst of the fracas, and pulled out his pocket knife and proceeded to carve up Kessler's right thigh, making a cut several inches long and very deep, narrowly escaping the main artery. The stabbing ended the row. Several stitches were required to sew up the wound. King was arrested by constable Mensch, and was allowed to go alone into the dining room of Musser's hotel for supper.

Taking advantage of this negligence of the constable, King made a break through the rear of the hotel and escaped to the mountain. He has not yet been apprehended.

Changes at State College.

Professor A. J. Waters has resigned as professor of agriculture to accept the directorship of the Missouri Experiment Station, located at Columbia, Mo. Professor E. E. Sparks has been granted a year's leave of absence, which he will spend at Johns Hopkins and the University of Chicago. M. J. Thompson, assistant in mathematics, has resigned to engage in the practice of law. Louis Mattern has resigned as assistant in English to accept a position as chemist in the Experiment Station of Pennsylvania.

Important Case Settled.

At last the Armor will case is settled and the estate will be divided among the children. Last week Judge Love refused the motion for a new trial of the case, and that likely puts an end to litigation. This case was before the supreme court last year. Mr. Monroe Armor and his sister, Mrs. Amanda Miller, become the administrators and will settle up the affairs.

Chased by a Catamount.

As G. L. Sanderson, ex-president of a Williamsport bank, and his wife were driving near Jersey Shore, a few nights ago, a catamount leaped from a tree to attack them. The wild beast struck the carriage top and frightened the horse, which started on a gallop. The catamount kept in close pursuit for a long distance, but finally sprang into the woods and disappeared.

To Close With an Entertainment.

The public schools in the borough will close in a couple of weeks, having then completed their eight months' term. The scholars will render an entertainment on the evening of the close, and for a week or more past have been rehearsing in the school building under the instruction of Prof. Wolf.

New Shop.

A new building has been erected on Church street, opposite the Reformed church, which will be occupied by George Rowe, the blacksmith. Geo. will do all kinds of work, along with horse shoeing.

Plenty of Tramps.

Yesterday the town was overrun with tramps of all types and species. They made a house to house canvass soliciting any and everything to be had except work.

THE RAINFALL.

as registered by the Reporter's gauge. April 12, night, 5-8 in. April 22, 1-16 in. April 27, 1-8 in. April 30, 1-4 in. Total rainfall for April 1.1-16 inches.

Rough on the Old Guard.

Divorces are on the increase in Lancaster county, 25 applicants having appeared at court in a week. Buwa, was der Shinner is letz dot drunne?

16 Children Baptized.

The Lock Haven Democrat says sixteen children were baptised in the Reformed church of that town on Sunday morning of last week.

You will want a new suit. You want it cheap and good, as well as of the latest cut. Lewins, Bellefonte, can accommodate you in every particular, and is bound to please.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS.

Forecasts of Storms, Temperature and Rainfall Ventured by Foster.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from the 26th to May 2, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about May 3, west of Rockies country by the close of the 4th, the great central valleys from the 5th to the 7th and the eastern states about the 8th. This disturbance will average about the normal in force and will be much like the storm that crossed the continent from April 5 to 10. Heavy rains will occur only in small localities and drought will generally prevail during the passing of the storm.

The second storm wave of May will reach the Pacific coast about the 9th, cross the west of Rockies country by the close of the 10th, the great central valleys from the 11th to the 13th and the eastern states about the 14th. Rainfall from this storm will be light, but better distributed than from the preceding disturbance.

Rainfall of May will be much heavier in the southern states, east of 95th meridian, than in the northern states. The warm wave will cross the west of Rockies country about May 3 and 9, the great central valleys 5th and 11th, and the eastern states 7th and 13th. The cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about May 6 and 12, the great central valleys 8th and 11th, and the eastern states 10th and 16th.

It is desirable that forecasts should be made locally as far as possible, and I am gradually bringing my general forecasts of temperature and rainfall to smaller districts. For a time I will use in these bulletins nine districts to cover the United States, but hope soon to increase the number.

Brilliant auroras in May will probably be observed near the 4th, 19th, and 31st, and the severest storms about the same dates. Heaviest rains will occur from 15th to 25th, principally in the south-eastern states. Frost in northern states about 6th to 9th and 17th to 19th.

Who is Bothering the Governor?

Evidently some denizen of this county is frequently at the state capital and among others, pesters Governor Hastings. Recently the governor's private secretary, Mr. Beitler, entered the governor's private room making the announcement that "Mr. —, of Centre county, was waiting to see the Governor." At this Gov. Hastings, with an air of annoyance, replied, "Oh pshaw, what does that fellow want again?"

Some fellow must be having a crank idea that he, and not the Governor, is running this state.

Another Peach Orchard.

In last week's "Reporter" we noted the fact of a peach orchard of 3000 trees planted about four years ago north of Aaronsburg. We have another, on a smaller scale, that is now being planted. Mr. D. J. Meyer, living opposite our office, a few days ago received a shipment of 400 peach trees which are being planted as a starter for a large peach orchard on his farm south of Linden Hall. We trust it will turn out a success.

Death of a Minister.

Rev. W. L. Heisler, a well-known retired Lutheran minister, and who at one time served as pastor at Salona, Jersey Shore and Millinburg, died in Philadelphia Thursday of pneumonia, aged about 70 years. Six sons survive the deceased. His remains were taken to Millinburg and interred beside those of his wife who died sixteen years ago.

John Powers.

John Powers, one of Bellefonte's esteemed citizens, died last Tuesday morning. He was elected chief Burgess a few years ago and served very creditably. He was of a kind and genial disposition, and never sought to wrong any one. He was the head of the well-known Powers' shoe-store in that town. He leaves a wife, two sons and a daughter to mourn his loss.

Goes to Turbotville.

Rev. G. W. Fortney, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., did not accept the call to be pastor of the Sinking Valley charge, but has decided to go to Turbotville, Northumberland county. Rev. Fortney, years ago was principal of the Centre Hall schools and was graduated at Gettysburg.

Rain Stops Mountain Fires.

Last week the mountains in many sections of this valley were on fire, the smoke of which dimmed the sky. The rain on Saturday forenoon, however, put out these fires.

Aaron Leitzel.

Aaron Leitzel, an old and respected citizen of Rebersburg, died on Monday after a prolonged illness. His age was about 75 years. Funeral to-day.

Owing to the fact that Lyon & Co., of Bellefonte, must make room for a large stock of spring goods, they now offer their entire winter stock at such prices never before heard of in this county. See their advertisement in another column on page five.

Every well-dressed young man gets his clothing and gents' furnishing at Lewins, Bellefonte.

County Clippings Condensed.

Anna M'Knight, a maiden sister of Robert M'Knight, died on 22 ult., aged 85 years.

Policeman Montgomery has notified Bellefonte boys to quit playing base ball in that boro.

Wednesday morning of last week Samuel Lucas died at Coleville, from a paralytic stroke. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Capt. S. H. Williams, of Bellefonte, has taken charge of the University Inn at State College.

Judge Love will have an office on 2d floor of Crider's exchange.

Trout fishing in no part of our county is up to a brag.

Samuel E. Campbell, of Lemont, has been granted an original pension.

James B. Strohm has been promoted to commissary sergeant of N. G. regiment.

Col. Amos Mullen, of Bellefonte, is an applicant for deputy factory inspector.

Esq. Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, we are pleased to learn, keeps improving in health.

Dr. Chas. W. Rhone, left Bellefonte last week, for San Diego, Cal., where he will locate.

Walker township asks for bids for a new school house to be erected at Hecla. Bids received to May 10.

A Nice Time.

Landlord Bartges treated the young people of this vicinity to an elegant supper and a dance at his hotel last Friday evening. Many were present and a royally good time was had.

Our spring stock of clothing is now in and a more complete assortment cannot be found in any store. Clothing never was so cheap and you get surprisingly big returns for your money.—Lewins, Bellefonte.
