BETTER times are still on the forward march. G. D. Borden, owner of the Iron Works Mill, at Fall River announced a few days ago that he will begin the erection of an 80,000 spindle printing cloth mill. The mill will be the largest single one under one roof in America, and will cost nearly a million dollars.

The great revival of iron and steel industry is forcibly shown by the increase in wages at many plants. In one day last week increases have been made in Western Pennsylvania alone ranging from 10 to 25 per cent. that will benefit nearly 10,000 men.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

One of the most instructive articles on the present free silver craze appears in the editorial columns of the New Those in arrears subject to previous terms, $2.00 York Herald.
