ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce the name of William F. Smith, of Bellefonte, as a candidate for the nomination of District Attorney, subject to the rules and regulations of the Democratic county convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of William J. Singer, of Bellefonte, as a candidate for the nomination of District Attorney, subject to the rules and regulations of the Democratic county convention.

SOMEbody made money by the late upward jump in wheat, but the farmer didn't get much of it, altho he deserved it all.

We were pop sure that Don Casteller Womelsdorf would resign and cut for Cubey to help drive out the Spaniards, but he didn't.

FROM Delaware comes the cheering news that the peach crop is safe; Jack Frost seems to have overlooked that little spot in his recent nocturnal visits and now the country is safe.

ALL persons of all parties, all newspapers, preachers, doctors, lawyers, saints and sinners, agree that the present is the worst legislature that ever met at the state capital. Never was a big majority cast for a more worthless set.

THE New York Republican leader, Warner Miller, says the Democrats will carry the next presidential election. It looks that way from the bad manner in which the Republican legislatures of New York and Pennsylvania have conducted themselves.

EVERY member of the legislature who opposes any apportionment this session, is guilty of perjury, for all swore to support the Constitution which commands that the apportionment of the state into congressional, legislative and judicial districts shall be made after the taking of each census.

WAGES still going up. Here is one of a dozen instances since our last issue: The consolidated wire and nail company, operating mills at Lockport and Joliet, Ill., St. Louis and Allentown and Pittsburg, has notified its employees that their wages will be advanced ten per cent. June 1, including those whose pay has already been raised. Six thousand workers will be benefited. Again, good-bye M'Kinleyism.

A DOUBLE lynching in Danville, Ill., on Saturday morning, and two men shooting each other to death on the Presbyterian church steps immediately after services, on Sunday, in Troy, Kentucky, on account of the betrayal of the ones sister, are the latest sensations. The one affair being in the north and the other in the south interferes with the making a big howl over southern lawlessness.

THE Altoona "Tribune," a Republican authority, rebukes the legislature thus: "Our servants at Harrisburg ought to try to behave themselves the rest of the session. They have won for themselves unenviable reputation."

Again the "Tribune" remarks: "Is it possible that this legislature is determined to wreck the Republican majority? Cannot our members do something to prevent such a miserable farce?"

WITH wheat up to the eighties, the farmer will begin to get rid of the blues, and with wages raised ten per cent in all the principal industries, the workmen will have gladder hearts. All the disastrous tumble in wheat and wages took its start under Harrison and M'Kinleyism. Under Cleveland and the new tariff new life and better times are dawning upon the land. The calamity howl was a fraud and the Republican legislature which was elected thereby is a still greater fraud as all will admit.

THE Dispatch, speaking of the iron and steel industries of Pittsburg, says, "the recovery from the extraordinary depression of 1893 has been very rapid so far as Pittsburg is concerned." True. But pray, what tariff was the country under during that "extraordinary depression?" Of course the McKinley tariff was then in the high tide of its successful operation. And pray what tariff is the country under now, when we are witnessing the rapid recovery? Of course the Wilson tariff. Will the "Dispatch" please turn to its files and reprint its doleful calamity howls—prostrate industries and starving workmen as the assured result of the Wilson law? In the meantime don't prophesy unless you know.—Pittsburg Post.

THE Philadelphia Republican factions have stripped for a desperate fight. It is state boss Quay on one side and city boss Dave Martin on the other. The fight promises to be a bitter one. Martin will elect a majority of the city delegates to the Republican state convention to down Quay's candidate, Haywood, for state treasurer, and follow it up with a fight for national convention delegates. On the other hand the Quay-Penrose side have an investigating committee to show up the misdeeds of the Martin people under the city government. When thieves fall out, honest men get their dues.

The senate, on Tuesday, passed the religious garb bill, by a vote of 31 yeas to 11 nays.

The apportionment bills after defeat have been reconsidered. Only public indignation has brought this about. Whether this legislature will obey, and pass the apportionments remains to be seen.

The bill appropriating $212,000 to State College, has passed.

There is a big fight on just now between Quay and some of his party leaders. Quay is lining up against the Hastings administration, but the latter gained in the first skirmish.

A BAD BILL.

It is semi-officially announced that the intermediate court bill which has been languishing for some time is to be called up and passed to-day by the order of Senator Quay, says the Patriot.

This bill is a bold scheme to reward political favorites under the guise of aiding in the early disposition of litigation. It may encourage and increase litigation; it will do little if anything to speed it. It would create at an annual expense to the state of $35,000 a court that is unnecessary. The state would be better without it.

When deserving charitable institutions are to be crippled for want of money and the school fund is to be relentlessly squeezed is it right or wise to establish an unneeded and extravagant court? Do the legislators believe that their constituents will forgive them for voting one day to cut down the school fund and pinch charities in order to the next day reward political favorites with these savings and pinches? The country legislator who votes for this bill cannot escape punishment for his wrong.

Decoration Day Services.

The services to-day in memory of the dead heroes promises to be of more than usual interest, as our citizens have been making preparations to celebrate the event in a fitting manner. The G. A. R. will attend in a body and will be joined by the different Sunday schools of town and together march from the grove at the lower end of town to the cemetery where they will strew flowers on the graves of their departed comrades. An appropriate address for the occasion will be rendered by Prof. E. J. Wolf, and suitable music will be furnished. The services will be held at six o'clock in the evening.

Watch Your Twenties.

An entirely new counterfeit twenty dollar treasury note, act of July 14, 1890, department series 1890, check letter A, plate numbered O, portrait of Marshall, W. S. Rosecrans register of the treasury, E. H. Nebaker, treasurer small carmine scalloped seal has made its appearance. This counterfeit is of the pen and ink process, well executed and exceedingly dangerous. The words "United States of America, Twenty Dollars," which appear six times in the border of the face of the genuine are wholly omitted from the counterfeit.

Game of Ball Today.

This forenoon a game of ball will be played on the grounds in Grange Park between the Centre Hall team and a nine from the Spring Mills academy. The boys have put the diamond in excellent shape, having put a road scraper on it, and now it is in better condition than ever. Our boys have been practicing nightly, and a good game can be expected.

John Wanamaker to be Present.

A grand Christian rally will be held at Hecla Park, on the line of the new Central Penna R. R., under the auspices of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., on Thursday, June 20th. Many prominent speakers have consented to address the gathering, among them being the Hon. John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia. Centre, Clinton and Lycoming counties will participate.

Remember the Sociable.

Don't forget the sociable this evening given by the Ladies Aid society of the Reformed church, in the rooms over Harper & Kreamer's store. You will find something appetizing and refreshing there.
