

WOODWARD.

What Our Correspondent Gives us from that Section.

The Ladies Aid Society have decided on Saturday, June 8th, as the day on which they will hold the picnic and festival.

The P. O. S. of A. meeting on Friday evening was largely attended with about 65 sons in line.

James Bartges and Prof. Charles Wolfe, of Logan Mills, were noticed in our burg on Saturday evening.

John Hoffa and Newton Braucht, of Coburn, were visitors in town on Friday.

I. M. Weaver had the iron fence in front of his residence nicely painted and it now presents a neat appearance.

James Wirth made a business trip to Beavertown, Snyder county, on Saturday.

Quite a number of our people attended the W. H. and F. M. society convention at Millheim last week.

Jack frost ruined the fruit in this section.

C. W. Hosterman improved his hotel property by building a substantial porch the full length of the front.

Benjamin Orndorf, a man well up in years is on the sick list with slight hopes of recovery.

Allen Kremer had business in Nitany and Sugar valley on Monday.

T. D. Bowersox and George Walter were home on a visit over Sunday.

Thomas Hosterman, who had been to Reading and other places arrived home on Saturday.

Quarterly Conference was held in the Evangelical church on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday morning the Lord's supper was administered.

Frank Bressler in attempting to put a belt on a pulley while the machinery was in motion came near having a bad accident, as he missed his calculation and the belt caught on the shaft which tore the machine from its fastenings and broke it to pieces, while Bressler came out with a few scratches. He says he was scared so badly that he will not work on a saw mill any more, at least he left this mill.

Patriotic Ladies.

Surely our lady friends are not lacking in patriotism, and this spirit in the fair sex has shown itself in every period of our country's history up to this day. We are led to these remarks by the devotion they show in the work of love, the decoration of the graves of the soldiers, fitting these hallowed mounds for the decoration services a few days before decoration. We observed on Wednesday a number of ladies busy in the cemetery at Farmers Mills, preparing the graves for the ceremonies to take place today. At Spring Mills the ladies were also engaged in this patriotic work. At Centre Hall our ladies took great pains to smooth-up and prepare the graves for this evening's decoration ceremonies. Thus in scores of other places, the ladies engaged in this work of love and patriotism. As long as the mothers of the land remain true to their country, liberty will not die out.

Died at Pleasant Gap.

Mr. W. H. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, died on Tuesday forenoon after a long and lingering illness of over two months. Mr. Noll was aged about 58 years and was a highly respected citizen of Pleasant Gap, amiable in disposition and a kind and helping neighbor. He was the father of Mr. W. H. Noll, the merchant at Pleasant Gap; Mr. James Noll, at Scranton, and Dr. Samuel Noll, in the Medico Surgical College, at Philadelphia. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning, Friday, from his late residence and interment will be made at Zion.

Three Suicides.

With notice in another column of the suicide of Wm. Wise, hear Woodward, we are reminded that within a few years, three cases of suicide occurred in that neighborhood within the last few years, a record that is barely paralleled in any other rural section. These three cases are David Orndorf, Thomas Hosterman and that of Wm. Wise. These persons were all natives of near Woodward, and all reputable citizens and well-to-do.

They Touched Him.

C. F. Allen, of Boalsburg, had an interesting experience at Tyrone, a few days ago. He was taken advantage of by several young men in that town, and relieved of his gold watch, $20 in money, and several other articles, and the stolen articles were found in their possession.

"The Country Gentleman." The Jersey bull mentioned in last issue as a rare animal of his type will be offered at public sale in Rebersburg, June 8, by Messrs. Mingle and Meyer together with their splendid herd of Jersey cattle. This bull has proven a mint for the last two seasons to his former owner, S. W. Smith, since $1.50 was always charged for his service. Some one down there will strike a good bargain at almost any figure.

It is not because we love profit less, But because we love business more,

That we are selling suits for $10.00 that are equal to the ones sold elsewhere for $15.00. It is a new departure in the clothing business in Bellefonte to give such values.

BUT WE FIND IT PAYS.....

Our sales on these goods have been enormous. Your confidence and good judgment have made it possible for us to actually save you a $5 bill on a $10 purchase.

WE ARE SATISFIED...

Our profits on the whole is just as large as if we sold only one-third as many. The gap made by your liberal patronage, last week, has been filled, and we are now ready once again to please all comers, even better than before. The season being so far advanced enabled us to make several large purchases of suits that were intended to retail at from $18 to $20, we have placed them on our counters at the quick sale price of ten dollars. You had better join your neighbor, get in the procession and see these goods. They won't last long, and you will be the only loser if you buy before seeing us. Special: Men's Blue and Black Serge Suits, strictly all wool, elegantly made, usual price, $10, our price, $7.
