IF this heated spell fries the fat out of the cut-worms and potato bugs, the farmer will ask no questions.

Some fellows are making fun of representative Womelsdorf. Let the Philipsburg statesman alone. Soon as the legislature adjourns he's going down to Cuba to help fight the Spaniards.

QUAY has consented that the legislature shall do something in the apportionment. How noble from Quay ! The members, it would seem, think they have taken their oath to support Quay and not the Constitution.

THERE will be an apportionment. The legislature is going to adjourn in a few days, and then every member will make a straight coat-tail for the state treasury for his apportionment think that Gen. Beaver has a hand in of $1500 salary, $100 postage for documents never mailed, and mileage for fare never paid. But the people-they get no apportionment.

constitution to pass apportionment laws we shall have? bills, they passed a bill to increase the salary of the adjutant general. And still the talk of the necessity of cutting down the school appropriation in order to give the charitable institutions a small share goes on.

PENNSYLVANIA'S legislature is ready to do anything the people don't want done. Anything that the people want

Former Republican Legislatures of Pennsylvania refused to apportion representatives among the people of the state in order to maintain gerrymandering frauds against their Democratic opponents, says the Record. Now, when they have no longer the Democrats to fear, they refuse to obey the mandate of the State Constitution in regard to apportionment in order to gerrymander and defraud each other.

In the changes of population many Republican districts have more representation in Congress and in the State Legislature than justly belongs to them, while many other Republican districts have less representation than they are entitled to under the constitution. But instead of obeying the constitution, the Republicans representing districts having insufficient population are striving tooth and nail to keep their unfair advantage over their Republican brethren in other and more populous districts. This is the way in which they formerly worried the Democrats of Pennsylvania. Now they turn and rend each other, like Schwalbach pigs, in the struggle to maintain gerrymandering apportionments which the Commonwealth has long since outgrown. But for the exhibition of cynical contempt of the rights of representation and of the in- CLOTHING.

junctions of the constitution, the defrauded Democrats of Pennsylvania could look upon this conflict of Republican factions with philosophic unconcern.

WE hear there is a boom to be started in favor of Gen. Beaver's nomination for vice president. This would look like a move to head off Gen. Hasting's presidential boom. We do not
