CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. JUNE 13.

THE NEW RACKET

No. 9-11 Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte.

Though the store is easily the largest and many disinterested persons say the best in town, and is as chock full of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Novelties and everything U can think of as a little red wagon, and all of it selected with great care, after an experience of twenty-five years trading with Centre co. people, we would hardly expect U to believe us if we said that "our stock was larger than all the stores of Bellefonte combined." We know U are too intelligent to believe any such thing, and we would expect U to receive anything we might say hereafter with due allowance, and if we were to put out flaming advertisements stating that we were selling goods much lower than our neighbors and when U come to buy U would find none lower and many higher for inferior goods, we would be sure U would avoid us hereafter and it would serve us right. The Racket has earned a reputation for honest advertising, fair dealing, standard goods, low prices.

And We Are Proud Of It. G. R. SPIGELMYER, JR. SHEM SPIGELMYER, JR. Bellefonte, Pa.

ANOTHER LOT OF DIMITIES

Received this week to sell at 9 cents. Others ask more money. Ours are pronounced the best in town for the money.

SHIRT WAISTS

Bellefonte.

Special.

It is seldom that the trade that seeks Bellefonte markets has the advantage of such a mark down sale as Lyon & Co. are advertising in another column on this page. It will pay you to look it up.

Met a Violent Death.

Walter Chandler, a nineteen-year-old son of David H. Chandler of Julian, Bald Eagle valley, met with a sudden death Monday of last week. He was riding down from the mountain on a load of bark and, it is not known whether he suffered a sunstroke or accidentally fell, but at all events he fell from the top of the load alighting on a stone on his shoulder. He lived but about two minutes thereafter.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were granted during the past week: Samuel Colyer, of Linden Hall, and Cora Walters, of Tusseyville. Elmer Collins Brown, of Patton, Cambria county, and Francis Betterton Gregg, of Milesburg. George B. Jackson and Mary C. Stevens, of State College. David Ashcroft, of Philipsburg, and Emily G. Frickland, of East Pittsburg. Steward J. Ellenberger and Mary Pawley, of Ferguson twp. Justice Thomas and Nellie Brenno, of Point Lookout.

The Canada Thistle.

There is a fine of $15 for not destroying Canada thistles, and it is also the duty of the supervisors throughout this state to cut and destroy the same where they may be found growing along the public highway. Are the supervisors doing their duty is another question.

JOHN H. KELLER.

A Well-Known Citizen Dies on Sunday Morning.

On last Sabbath morning, 9, this community lost its oldest and one of its best known citizens, in the death of John H. Keller, at the home of his son-in-law, John Conley. Mr. Keller had been in failing health for the past few years, but surrounded by his own children, his son, Mr. James A. Keller and his daughter, Mrs. Kate Conley, with whom he had his home, all was done for him to make his declining years pleasant and comfortable as possible for one who had never been other than a kind and loving father. His wife died in 1878, seventeen years ago. A daughter, Maggie, married to Levi Murray, died some twenty years ago. Several of his children died in infancy. The aged widow Booser, of this place, is a surviving sister of the deceased.

Mr. Keller was liberal and public spirited and kindly disposed towards his fellow men, acting the neighbor in every sense of the word. He was an ardent member of the Reformed church, and one of the main-stays and most liberal contributors of the congregation in this place and one of its founders. We knew him long and well and never met him but what he had a smile and kindly remark. He was an earnest advocate of the Lewisburg & Tyrone railroad and contributed liberally of his means to insure its construction. In the work of raising subscriptions, guaranteeing right-of-way, etc., the writer hereof found in Mr. Keller a valuable assistant. All home enterprises found encouragement from him. He was a farmer until age required that he retire from that pursuit, having by industry and hard labor amassed enough to insure that ease and comfort due to old age.

Mr. Keller was born on the 10th of September, 1813, the day of Perry's victory. Within a few week's time a sister, Mrs. Peter Hoffer, of this place, a brother, Christian, of La Jose, died. His brother William, who was a county commissioner, died about twenty years ago. Two aged sisters survive him, namely, the widow Booser of this place and Mrs. Pennington, who lives in Illinois.

The funeral on Wednesday forenoon, was attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends—the family being one of the oldest and most respected in the valley. Interment in the Centre Hall cemetery, Rev. Eisenberg officiating. The grandsons of the deceased acted as pall-bearers.

Pickpockets Get in their Work.

Pickpockets were at Bellefonte's centennial, of course. Mrs. John Snyder, of near this place, was over, on Thursday, and in her purse had $18 with which to make some needful purchases, and also a return railroad ticket. A pickpocket relieved her of the purse and its contents.

We are also informed that a traveling salesman, on stepping off the train was relieved of a gold watch and some other valuables. He could have identified the thief but the rascal could not be found on account of the greatness of the crowd.

We are also informed that Mrs. John Bible, of Potter twp., had her pocket book and railroad ticket stolen.

Mrs. George Durst, of near this place, and Mrs. D. Rossman, of near Pleasant Gap, are also reported as having had their purses with money and railroad tickets stolen.

An old man, whose name we did not learn, was told was robbed of $80 and a gold watch.

We hear there were a number of other cases, but we did not get the names.

Effect of a Salute.

A lady in the Union cemetery at Bellefonte, on Decoration Day, had her baby in her arms and when the salute was fired it startled her so that she threw the baby violently from her. Fortunately, the infant alighted in the grass and was not much hurt, but the result would have been different had it struck a tombstone near by.

Very Proper.

The Potter school board very sensibly publishes its annual report in the "Reporter" which reaches nearly every family and enables all to read the doings of the board at home, where a dozen papers stuck up in stores and shops are not read by two-thirds of the tax-payers.

Failure in Huntingdon.

I. N. Foust, the president of the Huntingdon Sand company and a merchant and mill owner of Mill Creek, made an assignment a few days ago for the benefit of his creditors. Liabilities are $20,000, assets $30,000.

THE RAIN-FALL.

As registered by the Reporter's rain-gauge: Total rain-fall in April, 1.1-1.6 inches. Total rainfall in May, 1.5-8 inches. Tuesday night, June 4, 1-8 inch. Wednesday afternoon and night 1 in.

Wanted, at Lyon & Co's store, Bellefonte, 50,000 lbs. of Wool.

DIED AT TUSSEYVILLE.

Death of Mr. John Mitterling, after a Long Illness.

Another good old citizen of Potter township has gone to his long home. Mr. John Mitterling died at his home on last Sunday afternoon, after an illness of several months, aged about 78 years. The deceased came here from Snyder county when a young man and obtained work at grubbing on lands and later became an expert well digger and by his industry he was enabled by his savings to purchase real estate and in course of time became the owner of two small farms. When he first came to this county his capital consisted of ten cents. His wife remained in Snyder county until he had earned enough to have her come and join him here. To his credit we can say—and we long knew him intimately as a friend—he belonged to that good, old stock of honest and upright men whose word was as good as their bond. He would not willfully wrong a fellow man out of a penny. He was a devoted and consistent member of the Lutheran church and liberal in his support of it.

He was the father of five children; Rev. Daniel J. is a Presbyterian minister in Michigan, who arrived at the home in time to be recognized by his departing father; William, another son, lives on the old homestead. Three daughters are living and married. His wife died about twelve years ago.

The deceased died at the home of one of his daughters in Georges valley. The funeral on Wednesday morning was large, he had many friends. Interment in the Tusseyville cemetery, his pastor, Rev. Rieckr officiating.

F. G. Francis Dies.

F. G. Francis, one of the most prominent merchants of Lewistown, died at his home on the morning of the 7 inst. Mr. Francis was well-known to nearly all the Penn's valley readers of the "Reporter." His age was about 79 years. He was born in Baltimore, Md., and removed to Lewistown in his boyhood. He engaged in the hardware business and had one of the largest stores in Lewistown. Several years ago the editor of the "Reporter" had the pleasure of being conducted through his large hardware establishment by Mr. Francis, and he took pride in telling us he started business with 25 cents and that he was now worth $75,000.

He is survived by one son, James, of the Francis Hardware company, of Tyrone, and one daughter, Katharine, residing at home.

Lost and Found.

The family of our venerable and much respected townsman, Peter Hoffer, and this neighborhood, were considerably alarmed over his non-appearance at home on Saturday and Sunday having been expected home from a little trip on Friday evening. He had started to the upper part of the valley with horse and buggy to sell binders; it appears his horse took sick and he was obliged to stop over, and prevented from getting home. Sunday evening the family were informed of the cause of his absence and felt much relieved that nothing more serious had overtaken him.

Mr. Hoffer's stay-over was at Kichline's near Baileyville.

110 Miles in a Day on a Bike.

On Tuesday our young friend Goodhart, the implement dealer at Millheim, started from that place at 4 in the morning, on his bicycle to Bellefonte; thence to Hublersburg, then back to Bellefonte and on to Tyrone; returning homeward from Tyrone he reached Centre Hall at about 6 in the evening and took a half hour's rest. He said he felt only a little tired, but not having any thing to eat for over half a day on his forenoon run, he said he felt blamed sick until he got some dinner. He left here about 7, expecting to reach Millheim about 9 p. m. The distance covered by Mr. Goodhart on this run, including stops, was 110 miles. What cyclist has done better in this county?

Mrs. Christopher Moyer.

Mary, the aged widow of Christopher Moyer, of Penn township, died on last Tuesday morning. Her maiden name was Glass and she was a native of Snyder county. She was an aunt of Mrs. Isaac Smith and of Mrs. Wm. Wolf of this place, by marriage. Funeral at the Reformed cemetery two miles west of Millheim. Her husband died about 20 years ago.

Scarlet Fever.

There are some half dozen cases of scarlet fever in the section around Pleasant Gap. The cases are of a mild type, and not of alarming symptoms.

Band Festival.

We have printed posters for a festival of the Potter's Mills band, in Allison's Grove, Saturday evening, June 15. Music, ice-cream, cakes, &c.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Democratic Co. Convention Meets - The Present Officials Re-nominated.

The Democratic County Convention met in the court-house on Tuesday, with a full attendance of delegates and was called to order by co. chairman N. B. Spangler, esq. Ellis L. Orvis, esq., was elected chairman of the convention by acclamation.

Secretaries: W. M. Cronister, J. C. Smith, M. L. Gardner and S. M. Graham.

Committee on Resolutions: W. C. Heinle, H. A. Moore, Cyrus Brungard Frank Foreman and J. H. Lucas.

Delegates elected to State Convention: T. F. Adams, Aaron Zerbe, T. J. Riley, John D. Long and Howard Moore.

Prothonotary Smith was re-nominated by a unanimous vote for Prothonotary.

W. J. Singer, esq., was also unanimously re-nominated for District Attorney.

These are compliments of which Messrs. Smith and Singer may well feel proud and they will be deservedly sustained at the ballot box.

The convention also complimented C. M. Bower, esq., by recommending him for one of the judges of the newly created Superior court.

The convention was harmonious in all its work, which is a good omen for our party in November and wound up very fittingly by re-electing Newt. B. Spangler as Co. Chairman, an honor well-bestowed as he has shown himself a clean-cut gentleman and a sterling Democrat.

The resolutions have the right ring. They warmly endorse the patriotic administration of Grover Cleveland; point with pride to the growing prosperity of the country under the Wilson tariff bill; endorse the late administration of Gov. Pattison and denounce the profligacy and extravagance now existing at the state capital; and very properly call attention to the faithful and economical conduct of our present Democratic county officials.

Fire in the Steam Laundry.

About four o'clock Friday afternoon fire started in the steam laundry in the rear of the McClain block, and the sounding of the alarm caused consternation among the large crowd of visitors in Bellefonte, and as many as could get near flocked to the scene of the blaze. The flames spread rapidly, and being in the ironing room on the second floor, gained considerable headway before the fire companies arrived. But when they did and got a couple of streams on the burning building, the flames were soon extinguished. Not, however, till the upper floor was pretty well gutted and the machinery on the lower floor almost ruined with water. The fire started by a shirt waist falling on a lighted gas jet.

S. Malcolm Laurie is the proprietor of the laundry and the mishap will badly inconvenience him as he had a large established custom. The loss is $200 with no insurance. He will proceed at once to fix up for an early resumption of business.

Bucknell University Commencement.

The music will be furnished by a band, an orchestra and a quartette. Four artists of national note will also have parts on the music programme, a popular feature inaugurated last commencement. There will also be reunions of the classes of '55, '65, '75 and '85. Special railroad rates have been granted, information concerning which can be had from W. C. Gretzinger, Registrar.

Children's Day.

Last Sabbath was observed as Children's Day in many churches and Sabbath schools in all parts of the land.

In the Reformed church of this place the day was observed in the forenoon by appropriate exercises and a profuse decoration of lovely flowers. It is certainly a beautiful innovation, fitting to be generally observed. Beauty and holiness are blended in the observance of Children's Day.
