COBURN

Will Erect a New School Building to Contain Two Rooms.

Andrew Harter, our efficient postmaster had business at the county seat on Monday. Miss Blanche Bowersox left for Williamsport to remain an indefinite time being employed in the Locomotive Rubber Works at that city. W. C. Sheesley and family have bid good bye to this place for the time being and have moved to Moshannon, where he is employed in a saw mill belonging to T. A. Lucas. Mr. T. B. Everett formerly one of the hustling merchants of this place, but now proprietor of a leading hotel at Trout Run, Lycoming county, is among us for a few days looking after business interests, not having entirely closed out his stock of merchandise yet. He came on his silent steed a distance of 77 miles. Miss Tammie V. Weaver, of Fiedler, spent Sunday at this place the guest of Ernie Kerstetter. Miss Hartman, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with her friend, Mrs. Ed. Robinson at this place. The school board at their last meeting decided to build a new school house at this place to be ready for occupancy when the regular school term begins. It will be made some larger than the present one, and contain two rooms. It will be a frame building two stories high. We highly compliment the directors for their actions on the school house question but rather think it would have been more advisable to use more indestructible material in the building of said school house. The Lutheran Sabbath school of this place will have Children's Day exercises on Sunday evening, June 23. The sign of better times is noticeable in the great activity in the lumber and grain trade at this place. Already there has been about fifty car loads of both shipped from this station alone, with a lot more coming in daily. The "Pink Tea," held by the ladies of the Lutheran church on the lawn in the rear of the church on last Saturday evening was a grand success, both in point of attendance and financially. The Aaronsburg Cornet band furnished the music for the occasion. Quite a number of our people expect to attend the P. O. S. of A. festival at Woodward on next Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffa are away visiting friends in and about Lewisburg. Mr. Hoffa attended the bicycle races at Brook Park on last Friday. A fishing party consisting of George Goodman and John Weber, of Mahoning City, and J. J. Williams and Geo. W. Johnson, registered at the Coburn house on Tuesday. They each carried a grip and other accoutrements some of which no doubt contained snake medicine. They left for Sugar Valley the same day. While there they will be entertained by John Stover, father of G. R. Stover, station agent at this place. John Dateman, commercial man of Williamsport registered at the Coburn House Tuesday. WOODWARD.

Notes of Interest from that Town and Vicinity.

Wesley Hosterman left for Coburn, where he will open an ice cream saloon. Benjamin Orndorf, whose sickness we reported a few weeks ago died and was buried on Thursday last. He was aged 66 years, 8 months, and 27 days. Camp No. 357 P. O. S. of A. of this place will hold a festival on Saturday, June 22. Among some of the special attractions will be bicycle, tub, egg, and sack races, rope walking and balloon ascensions. Thomas Hosterman caught a rattle snake on Saturday almost four feet in length and carrying eight rattles. He has it on exhibition in a glass show case in his father's store. He is quite a lively fellow. The farmers in this section are busy beginning to make hay. Miss Savilla Spade, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday with Daniel Engle's family.

BREAD is an everyday affair with all, but how few of our readers know of an old law, still in force, that has a regulation in regard to the sale of "the staff of life." The bread-law of 1794, was enforced in Lancaster, the other day. Some time ago William Helm sued his neighbor, E. P. Altoona, for violating this bread-law. Under that old act of Assembly bakers are required to sell their bread by weight and have their scales with them at all times. Baker Altoona disposed of his bread by the loaf, and for doing so Helm brought seven suits. The Grand Jury did not see any necessity for Altoona being sent before a petit jury. They ignored all the bills and put the costs of prosecution on Helm, and they amount to nearly $200.
