CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. June 24

In August when the Republican primaries are held in old Centre the Quay cat and kittens won't be found on top.

In Clearfield county the Quay wing was defeated at the primaries. Judge Cyrus Gordon led the anti-Quay forces and senator McQuown the Quay contingent.

GEN. Beaver will be one of Gov. Hastings' appointees as one of the seven judges of the new Superior Court. This choice will be a deserved one and receive general endorsement.

LATER intelligence from Clearfield gives the following as the result of the Republican fight: Hastings one delegate, Quay one, and one non-committee.

ALL are anxious to see which is going to come out on top in the Republican fight in this state, the Hastings administration or the Quay crowd. The state convention in August will tell.

THE Hastings administration is in line against the Quay-Cameron machine and the silent statesman has laid off his collar and coat and spit into his hands for the coming fray. The fight will be carried into all the approaching Republican county primaries, and the Democrats will have a peep into the circus free of charge.

"GIVE them a double dose," this is the advice given us by a leading, life-long Republican of Ferguson township the other day, who is so utterly disgusted with the inequities of the late legislature, that he thinks it should be treated to a double dose of denunciation. This is the sentiment of nine-tenths of the people of this commonwealth, Democrats and Republicans.

QUAY has been announced as a candidate for chairman of the Republican state convention, to beat Gilkison the Hastings-Martin candidate. The fight is on and getting hot. It is none of our business, still we can't see why Quay shall be boss over all other leaders all the time, since there are far abler men in the Republican ranks than he.

Gov. Hastings has announced himself as a candidate for chairman of the Republican state convention which meets in August; he will run to defeat Quay who has also concluded to be a candidate for the same place. The bitter fight ever had in this state is now going on among the Republicans and if Quay goes under it means Cameron's downfall also. Quay and Cameron have been bosses quite long enough for men of third rate ability.

THE O'Conner-Hastings suit for libel was tried at Ebensburg last week, and lasted five hours. Gov. Hastings laid in a claim for $50,000 damages. He made a statement that he did not have the handling of the Johnstown flood-funds, hence he could not have appropriated any to his own use. Gen. Beaver and other prominent witnesses testified to the same effect. O'Conner stated he had no evidence to sustain his charges and that he had based them on current rumor. The Governor stated he was not after money damages but wanted a vindication and had agreed upon a compromise for $3000 and the jury, without leaving the box, rendered a verdict for that sum.

As a result of the investigation made by the Blair county auditors one of the County Commissioners is to be indicted for malfeasance by reason of being interested in a contract for public work. Let all officials take warning, from township and borough up, that it is unlawful to be interested in any manner by labor, material, &c., in any thing coming under their jurisdiction. Nor can any tax be collected when there is a surplus in the treasury nor in advance for any work proposed to be done at a future time. Some officials here and elsewhere should ipse tise in their hats, as an investigation of their actions can go back fifteen years and more, and be liable to prosecution.

Teacher's Examination.

Today, Thursday, County Superintendent Gramley is holding the annual teacher's examination for Potter township and Centre Hall borough, in the borough school building. A number of teachers are present, the district being large. Prof. Gramley is very strict in his examinations, and a teacher does not get through very easily.

MILHEIM.

Items of Interest Gathered for Our Readers.

Rev. W. T. Auman, of White Haven, Rector of the P. E. church of that place, is on a visit to his parents on Main street for a few days. Will Miller of Jersey Shore, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller for a few days; he is accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. Rohrbach and wife.

J. P. Gephart, esq., of Bellefonte, was seen on the streets last Tuesday, in company with Harry Cole, of Loganton.

The condition of Dr. S. G. Gutelius, H. H. Weiser, Henry Miller and Uriah Reifsnnyder, is not very encouraging to their many friends. They have been sick for a long time. Dr. Charles Gutelius, of Millinburg, visited his sick brother, Dr. S. G. Gutelius last Saturday and Sunday, returning home on Monday.

Had Young, the popular hardware man of Millinburg, was here on business one day last week. Had looks well notwithstanding he lately took unto himself a better half.

The senior and junior base ball clubs of this borough will hold a festival on the 4th of July, and among the sports that they are getting up will be tub, sack and bicycle races, greased pig, etc.

Mark Mooney, of Houtzdale, a former resident of this borough, is paying his son Mark a visit and will stay a few weeks.

Jesse Watkins, father of jeweler Watkins was in town last week visiting his son.

Rebe Wetzell was a visitor at his uncles, Dr. F. F. Wetzel on last Sunday.

Genial John Rogers and his daughter Mattie were over last Sunday at his son-in-law, John H. Woormer. Miss Maude Woormer, who has been visiting in Nittany valley returned home with them.

John G. Dubbs, the implement man of Bellefonte, was here on business last week.

The commissioners of the county held an appeal here last week and there were quite a number of taxpayers in attendance, and but very few accomplished anything in the way of having their assessments reduced.

Philip Keller, Joseph A. Spies, J. A. Agar and N. H. Sloan, of Lock Haven, took dinner at the Musser house last Sunday; they returned home the same day.

The ice-cream parlors of Nev. Auman on last Saturday evening were crowded with ladies and gentlemen and he did a ravishing trade; the candy and restaurant part was also crowded. It is one of the most pleasant places in the town, and everything was served in the best manner possible, hence the rushing business.

J. W. Raven, the gentleman who got hurt some two years ago on the turnpike, has received an agency for a wholesale cigar factory in Ohio, and will call on our merchants in a few days with a full line of samples. Let the merchants patronize this unfortunate, in his efforts to "keep the wolf from the door."

John Reifsnnyder, youngest son of Wm. Reifsnnyder, fell over on the street in a fit the other day. He was carried into the hardware store and a doctor sent for; he is all right again.

Johnnie Hardenburg, the talented young man, a student at Franklin and Marshall college, is spending his vacation with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman, on Main street. John is quite a fisherman and will no doubt be seen daily along the banks of Elk creek after the finny tribe.

George S. Springer, Harry Hoy, F. Pierce Musser and W. A. Tobias were camped at Beaver Dam last Thursday and caught fifty eels. J. C. Smith, C. H. Morris and W. A. Tobias the same day managed to capture forty-nine large frogs; had one as large as a small baby.

George S. Springer and family went to Sunbury last Monday on a visit to his mother and will remain a week.

H. H. Leitzell and family will move to Middleburg, Snyder county, this week, where he will engage in the jewelry business.

D. M. Morris and wife, of Loganton, paid relatives a short visit this week. Dan is as fat and as jolly as of yore.

A. C. Thompson, John F. Harrison, Boyd A. Musser, and D. W. Geiss, representing school supplies and books, have been circulating among the school directors in this section for some days. A good quartette of fellows.

AARONSBURG.

Youngest Child of Abner Acker Died Suddenly Saturday.

The youngest child of Abner Acker, born during the blizzard last February, the mother dying at the time, died suddenly last Saturday morning. The funeral services were held in the Reformed church on Sunday morning, and in the afternoon Abner took the corpse to Union county and buried it beside its mother.

The peach orchards of Boob, Weaver & Co., that were so badly frozen last winter have again sprouted and are doing finely. The orchards are along the mountain northeast of town on what was the old Dr. Horner property, which T. J. Weaver purchased from Horner.

Mrs. R. E. Rodgers has again come back from Bellefonte to spend the summer in her home in town.

Superintendent Gramley held a teachers' examination in town on Monday. He had quite a large class. The Professor finds fault with the town in not affording a public house. What more can you expect of a town the streets of which are overrun with cattle and hogs.

Mrs. Harvey Crouse, who with her husband moved to Somerset county last winter, is suffering with a tumor, and as soon as she is stronger will be taken to Philadelphia to have an operation performed for its removal.

John H. Musser has gone to New York state to some hospital to have his arm treated. For some time he has had trouble with it.

The Latest News.

The U. S. weather bureau having learned that the REPORTER kept a record of the rainfall, it has sent a request of a monthly report of the same.

Gen. Beaver has accepted the appointment of one of the Superior Court Judges.

Mr. Brown of Lancaster, has declined the appointment tendered as one of the judges for the new court. The term is ten years, salary $7,500 per year.

Another Pension Decision.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior John Reynolds Thursday rendered a decision in a pension case which will require wives of soldiers who have disappeared or deserted them to prove without doubt his death before a pension be granted them.

The case in question was that of Melinda Crider, the alleged widow of Daniel Crider, a soldier, who from the evidence given deserted her in Pennsylvania in May 1868. The soldier was in the best of health and left her deliberately. From the testimony of certain witnesses it appeared that the departure was caused by another woman in the case.

A Natural Distillery.

The inhabitants of Greensburg, are very much excited over the discovery of a natural distillery. An old farmer, while digging stones on a hill side, discovered a tiny stream of dark red liquid oozing out between the rocks. On examination it proved to be the very best rye whiskey and now all the old soaks and bums in that neighborhood are digging at that hill.

Quiet Fourth.

Next Thursday, the Fourth of July, will be a very quiet one on this side of the mountain. No demonstrations will be held anywhere in the county, but those who can will be at Williamsport, and several other places, where great preparations have been made to celebrate.

Canada Thistle Exterminator.
