—John Blanchard, Esq., of Bellefonte, sailed this week for a several months' tour through Europe.

—Mrs. Sallie Horner, of Colyer, has been a guest at the home of Miss Lizzie Runkle for several weeks.

—Mrs. J. H. Huff, of Lamar, departed for her home a few days ago after a week's visit to her daughter, Mrs. Frank Crawford.

—David R. Foreman left a few days ago for Bruin, Butler county, to look after his interests in oil lands on which wells are being driven.

—Miss Helen Bartholomew is now home with her parents, having graduated from the State Normal School at Millersville last Wednesday.

—E. G. Van Pelt and wife and son Harvey returned Tuesday from Slaterville Springs, N. Y., from a visit of several weeks among relatives.

—Miller Goodhart uses a crutch to locomote now. He was driving a cow down the mountain and stepped on a loose stone, spraining his ankle.

—John F. Potter, esq., has been a caller at this office; he is selling farm rights for a cheap preparation that is a sure destroyer of Canada thistles.

—Mr. R. A. Lee, of Centre Hill, was a caller at this office one day last week. He is just recovering from a three months' illness, and is quite reduced in flesh.

—Thomas Mitchell and Harry Keller, esq., of Bellefonte, accompanied by a Mr. Bower, of Philadelphia, "did" our valley yesterday, looking up the interests of Governor Hastings in the factional strife with Senator Quay. With from 1500 to 2000 Democratic majority on this side of the mountain, it would hardly seem necessary that the Republican fences would need repairing, but "Our Dan" seems to think they do. The Gov. is popular among the masses, but he will find many a few who are strictly opposed to him and his views.

COBURN.

Items of Interest Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Mr. Reuben Magee wife and son, of Sugar Valley, spent Sunday at this place, the guests of R. F. Vonada.

Mrs. Winter and young son, of Gettysburg, are spending a few days at this place visiting friends.

Mrs. G. R. Stover, Mrs. W. H. Meyer, and Mrs. A. J. Bowersox took in the centennial at Williamsport last week; they seemed very much pleased with the exercises.

John Hoffa and William H. Harter went to Williamsport on their bikes on last Wednesday and returned on Friday.

C. W. Hosterman, of Woodward has rented the store room opposite the depot and has started a confectionery store and ice cream parlor. His son Wesley is the counter hopper and attends to the wants of his customers in an obliging manner.

Huckleberries are in market at five cents per quart; they seem to be plentiful.

The Fourth passed off quietly at this place; no fatalities to report. Young America was busy all day putting off the hissing fire cracker and throwing harmless bombs, in honor of the day. The national colors were conspicuous for their absence, no one seeming to have enough patriotism in them to float any, although less than a year ago a flag was presented to the school at this place, but for some reason it did not float to the breeze on the above mentioned day. Who is to blame for this neglect we are unable to say, but some one failed to perform his duty.

Luther Guisewite's creamery is doing a rushing business, having received an order for over two thousand pounds of butter one day last week.

T. F. Meyer has bought the store goods of T. B. Everett and will continue the business at the old stand. He is receiving new goods daily, and in a short time expects to have a full line.

Farmers in this section are busy at hay making and harvesting; many are compelled to cut their grain and make their hay at the same time, the wet weather having delayed them in getting their hay made before the ripening of the grain. The hay crop is an average one while the grain is considered above the average, consequently farmers have reason to be thankful.

Mrs. W. O. Bearick and daughter Elsie spent Thursday and Friday of last week visiting friends at this place.

Mrs. Ocker, of Centre Hall, sojourned at the home of her sister, Mrs. Guisewite a few days of this week.

The picnic held in the orchard of Mr. Ripka, near Spring Mills, by Camp No. 680, P. O. S. of A., of this place on last Saturday was not very largely attended on account of the busy season among farmers. The Aaronsburg Cornet band discoursed some very fine music during the day.

The Summer girl and the Mannish woman have both made their appearance in our midst.

Mr. J. H. Fryer after staying two weeks at Milroy is home again. The men on the job where he worked having nearly all gone out on a strike.

During the last few weeks a number of valuable cattle have been killed on the railroad near here by the trains.

Dr. H. S. Braucht, a recent graduate of Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia is at home. He has not yet fully decided where he will hang out his shingle and begin the practice of medicine.

360 pair Men's All Wool Pants, worth 3.00 and 4.00. Our price, 1.50. Lyon & Co.

Origin of a Saying.

The door nail in earlier times, says an antiquarian, was the plate on the door upon which the old fashioned knocker struck to arouse the inmates of the house. As the plate or nail was struck many more times than any other nail, it is assumed to be more dead than other nails. Hence the phrase "Dead as a door nail."

Wanted, at Lyon & Co's store, Bellefonte, 50,000 lbs. of Wool.

Married.

At the Evangelical parsonage at Centre Hall, June 27th, 1895, by Rev. C. H. Goodling, Mr. David E. Harshbarger and Miss Lena M. Page, both of Linden Hall.

—Lyon & Co., Bellefonte, are making a big drive in shoes. They carry a full line in this department, and at prices that are way below their competitors. It is useless to pay a big price for shoes when you can get the same article several dollars cheaper at Lyons. Don't pay any dealer an extravagant price, until you inspect their stock.

A Tumble in Price.

Our grain dealers a few days ago marked down the price of wheat from 75 cents to 70 cents, a drop of 5 cents. The western market has taken a decided drop in the last several days. Chicago prices dropped eight cents in two days, on rumors of heavy crops throughout the west. Some farmers in this valley are still holding several hundred bushels of wheat each, and will now regret not having taken advantage of the good price.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.

"He Put In His Thumb, Etc."

W. I. Fleming, of Bellefonte, recently received an appointment in the State Insurance Department at Harrisburg. This plum is worth $1400 a year. Will be a hard Republican worker, and as being faithful has received his reward.

Paid a Visit.

A hack load of the members of the Centre Hall Christian Endeavor to the number of sixteen drove to Boalsburg last Sunday evening on invitation of the Society of that place, and attended the services there.

Will Receive Increased Pay.

In accordance with a recent act of the Legislature the salary of judges and inspectors of elections has been fixed at $3.50 and $3.00 a day respectively.

When soiled they can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet cloth. No other waterproof goods are made with this interlining, consequently no other goods can possibly give satisfaction. Do not forget that every piece of the genuine is stamped as follows:
