

PERSONAL MENTION.

Esq. M. L. Davis, of Indiana, Pa., made a visit to our town last week. —Miss Mary McQuiston, of Bellefonte, is visiting at the home of Capt. George M. Boal, west of town. —Commissioner James B. Strohman of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his father at Centre Hill. —Miss Hennigh, of Wilkesburg, Pa., arrived last week and is a guest at the home of Dr. McGeehon. —Mrs. Linnie Zeigler and Mrs. Rose Lyon, of Bellefonte, spent part of this week visiting at the home of D. J. Meyer. —Mr. Elmer Houtz, of Linden Hall, was a pleasant caller a few days ago. He is a successful farmer and a very congenial gentleman. —Rev. Isaac Neff, of the Milroy Luth. charge, is visiting relatives here his native place, and gave us a warm handshake; he looks in good health. —Rev. Reardon and family left on Tuesday morning for a three weeks' visit to their old home in Snyder county. —Milton, son of Uriah Osman, of this place, has left Nebraska and located in Salt Lake City. —Our esteemed friend, Jacob Reed of Aaronsburg, gave us a call and put his label out to '96. He reports hay and wheat crops good in that section. —Henry Booser has been somewhat indisposed the last few days, from severe stomach trouble. He is gradually getting better. —Wes. Whiteman is now the proudest man in town. His family was increased by one—a boy, a few days ago. —Robert Hunter, the efficient and capable commissioner's clerk of Bellefonte, is able to be about again after a several weeks' siege of severe illness. —Rev. W. K. Foster, of Mechanicsburg, made a short visit with friends in town this week while on his way home from a trip to Phillipsburg. —Simon Ripka, son of Jacob Ripka, is home from Loysville, where he attends school, and will spend the summer vacation with his father. —William W. He is now being examined by the committees and will be admitted to the bar at the next August court. —Our old Democratic friend, Daniel Bohn, of Boalsburg, gave us a call and looks well for a man of his years; he has been a reader of the "Reporter" for a quarter of a century. —Miss Tace Kreamer departed Tuesday morning for Lock Haven, where she expects to spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Samuel Heckman. —Mrs. Hannah VanDyke, of Lock Haven, spent last week visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. John McCoy, at Potters Mills. She was accompanied by her son-in-law, Mr. Etsweiler, of Philadelphia. —Rev. E. J. Bright, of Kansas, with his son George, also a minister, are making a few weeks visit at the old homestead in Aaronsburg, and favoring the people of that vicinity with sermons from the different pulpits. —George Homan and James Smith, of Williamsport, bicycled it from Williamsport to Centre Hall one day last week, making the run in a day. Mr. Shafer informs us that all crops are good down that way; he is an intelligent and observing young farmer. —M. N. Garver, late of this vicinity, has gone to Grant City, Mo., to remain if western slacks and hockies agree with him, and, to keep off home-sickness, his brother Anthony has seen to it that he gets the "Reporter" regularly from this office.

AARONSBURG.

Interesting Items from the Oldest Town in the Valley. Philip Musser, one of Haines township's oldest citizens, who was seriously ill for some time, died on Tuesday evening. John H. Musser has again gone back to the hospital in New York to have his arm treated. Mrs. Harvey Crouse had an ovarian tumor very successfully removed by the surgeons of the German hospital at Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence after having paid their annual visit to D. H. Rote, on last Saturday morning again went back to Philadelphia. He had to report for duty at the U. S. mint, promptly on the 15 inst., where he has been employed for the past fourteen years. Mrs. Ella Irey, came on Saturday morning with her little daughter, Mary Jane, to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Dr. Musser. The people are bringing in loads of huckleberries. One wagon brot in over two hundred quarts. Wilmer Stover has himself brot in that quantity. Mr. Adam Bartges has the house and barn up and under roof on the north end of his farm. He stored part of his new hay crop in the barn.

Brief Dottings.

Corn, cabbage and other fall plants and crops are growing finely since the recent rains. Barney Garis is doing the mason work for the foundation of the new Reformed church. Rev. Eisenberg is giving the work for the erection of the new Ref. church close and efficient attention. Chestnut trees are in full bloom and show signs for a large crop of nuts. Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were granted during the past week: C. L. Hanes and Ora M. Casselberry, of Howard. Wm. H. Green and Lizzie Harding, both colored, of Bellefonte. David Shawley and Elizabeth Lucas, of Spring township. T. J. Tressler, of Benner twp., and Miss Lydia E. Tressler, of Mackeyville.

Much in Little.

The grain is mostly hauled in; the crop is fair in the county. There is not much sickness in the valley—may it thus remain. Reader, we would be pleased to have you send us a new name for the "Reporter," for a year or less. A warmer spell is setting in and nights are not as cool as of late. Subscribers along the mountain districts can pay for the "Reporter" in berries. Bring 'em along. Some folks are now picking from 50 to 75 quarts of huckleberries per day. The Reformeds have struck a rock bed for the foundation of their new church. The members are doing the excavating and quarrying. A. A. Dale, esq., of Bellefonte, and Victor Dale, of Phillipsburg, are running as Quay delegates. The Wild West Show is worth seeing and renders satisfaction everywhere. Don't be mean; in four instances out of five you are found out, altho nothing is said. Everything in garden and field is growing delightfully.

THE LATEST.

The Hastings people say they are sure to win and will not compromise with Quay. Ex-President Harrison announces he does not desire to be the next Republican nominee for President. Illinois Democrats will favor Morrison for President. Quite Ill. Philip Musser, one of Haines township's oldest residents is seriously ill. Henry Booser, of this place, after a week's lay-up, is able to be out again. THREE weeks ago we advised Gov. Hastings "to look a leedle out," that an effort would be made to defeat him in Centre. We were right. —A tremendous drive in all lines of gent's furnishing goods and clothing is being made in Lewin's, Bellefonte. Their reputation is long established and the prices way below the lowest.

You will want a new suit. You want it cheap and good, as well as of the latest cut. Lewins, Bellefonte, can accommodate you in every particular, and is bound to please. Clearance Sale. One Price. TUSSEYVILLE.

What the people in Our Vicinity are Doing.—Visitors, Etc.

Farmers around about this place are busy filling their barns with the fine crops they have cut. Many of our young people attended the Children's Day services at Linden Hall last Sunday evening and reported it a great success. Mr. Adam Martz, of Altoona, spent several days among relatives and friends last week. Mrs. Mary Ellen Louse, of Bellefonte, has been visiting friends in this vicinity for several days. Messrs. John Moyer and William Mulbarger expect to go west for a better situation, but do not know yet where they will locate. Miss Ella Mersinger began her primary school term Monday morning at Colyer. A Hen With Teeth. A poultry dealer near Pottstown has a hen without a beak or bill, but instead a large mouth with lips clearly defined and teeth which can be easily felt. She has a nose, forehead and extraordinary large eyes, which show intelligence, like those of a dog. The face resembles that of a monkey. The tongue is unlike that of any fowl, and she licks her chops like a cat. She bites off a piece of bread crust, holding it with one claw while she eats. When she sleeps she breathes like a quadruped, with a sound very much like a gentle snore. —Lyon & Co., Bellefonte, are making a big drive in shoes. They carry a full line in this department, and at prices that are way below their competitors. It is useless to pay a big price for shoes when you can get the same article several dollars cheaper at Lyons. Don't pay any dealer an extravagant price, until you inspect their stock. —The merchant tailoring establishment at Lewins, Bellefonte, is turning out more and finer work than any in this part of the state. The prices are just right, and once a customer always a customer there.
