CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. AUG. 1

THERE are scores of Republicans in the county who won't help whoop 'er up for Abe Miller.

If Pennsylvania were not the Keystone state, she might be dubbed the Huckleberry state.

If Quay comes out cat-bird this time, we unto the combine! it will be the come-down, to stay down.

The Tom Coopers in the Republican party who are crying "peace," are simply the ones who can't see which is going to be the under dog.

It is funny to hear that the nomination of Abe Miller was the result of a trade; true or not, we don't know; but when fellows have been nothing but tools in petty trading they should not complain when beaten at their own game.

We are pleased to note that the Harrisburg "Patriot" has been greatly improved, and is prospering. The "Patriot" deserves its success; it is edited with ability and furnishes the latest news from all parts. It has rendered the Democracy valuable service.

In many counties of the state Republican heeler are in a sweat as to which side of the fence to jump, on Quay's side or on the Hastings side.

ALL are equal before the law. Judge Ikeler of Bloomsburg, has pronounced unconstitutional the boro ordinance of that town, taxing transient merchants.

CLEVELAND does not want a third term. A Washington dispatch says President Cleveland will not, under any circumstances, be a candidate for a third term.

SINCE the Republicans of this state find there is nothing to fight about in regard to the Wilson tariff they have set to fighting among themselves like cats and dogs.

The Quayites charge the Hastings combine is corrupt. The Hastings combine charges the Quay gang is rotten.

The Quay folks charge the Hastings combine is using money to influence delegates. The Hastings people declare the Quayites are buying up Hastings' delegates.

HOT! boiling hot, is the Quay and Hastings fight. Not a county in the state is free from it. The matter at the bottom of it all is whether Quay, or a new gang just as bad, shall boss the Republican party, and whether Don Cameron shall again be elected to the U. S. Senate.

DEMOCRATIC GOOD TIMES.

The return of prosperity under the new tariff law and the renewed confidence in our national credit are the most amazing events in our political or industrial history.

Coming without strikes or petitions, these marked increases in wages constitute, as an exchange wisely remarks, "one of the most remarkable chapters in our industrial history."

GOVERNOR HASTINGS AND FACTION.

The Governor of one of our states is not necessarily a learned man, nor a great statesman nor a great moralist. The position is not one demanding any great depth or breadth of intellect.

There is no suspicion in all this of the magnanimous man described in the ethics of Aristotle, "who thinks himself worthy of great things, being in truth worthy." It indicates, on the contrary, a man whose ideals are commonplace, and whose actions are conformable.

BOOMERANG FOR THE "PRESS."

CAN Gov. Hastings be a delegate to represent Centre county in the Republican state convention? He can not, according to the logic of the Philadelphia "Press" so recent as last winter, when it had article after article to prove that Gov. Pattison could not run for Mayor of Philadelphia because he lost his citizenship there and was in fact a citizen of Harrisburg, while serving as governor.

After promulgating a system of rules the new-Superior Court has adjourned until November. The assignments of the sessions of the Court in five different districts of the state beginning in November in Philadelphia cover seven months. But it is in the highest degree probable that the business of this superfluous Court of Appeals will not require three months of the year.

THE Supreme Court of this state last week decided a case of interest to taxpayers of all boro's and cities, also similar decisions have been rendered a half dozen times heretofore, and town councils should make a note of it.

WE have not heard of a single Democrat dissatisfied with our county nominees.

TIRED OF LIFE.

A Boalsburger Attempts Suicide and Will Be Successful.

Last Friday, at noon, Harvey Warden, of Boalsburg, attempted to shuffle off this mortal coil by taking a large dose of corrosive sublimate, and since taking the deadly poison has been suffering terribly and lingering between life and death.

Warden is a man aged about thirty-five years and has a wife and four children. He lives in Boalsburg, and has been employed by Samuel Bell, the tinsmith. His friends lately noticed him being in a despondent and melancholy mood, apparently brooding over some trouble, but never suspected that he would attempt the rash act.

When it was discovered that he was ill last Friday after taking the poison, medical aid was summoned at once and since he has been under the care of Dr. Dale, of Lemont, and Dr. Redlin, of Boalsburg. Last night, Wednesday, he was very poorly, and it is thought that he cannot live more than a day or so, and his death is expected at any time.

Various causes are assigned to Warden for attempting suicide.

Protection for the Farmers.

The following law was enacted by the last Legislature, and not only protects farmers but city fruit growers: Be it enacted, etc. That any person or persons who shall willfully enter or break down, through or over any field, orchard, garden or yard fence, hotbed or greenhouse, or who shall wrongfully club, stone, cut, break, bark or otherwise mutilate or damage any field crop, nut, fruit or ornamental tree, shrub, bush, plant or vine, trellis, arbor, hotbed, hot or greenhouse, or who shall trample, or in any-wise injure any grain, grape vine, vegetable or other growing crops, or who shall willfully take or carry away any grain, corn, rye, wheat, or any other field crop, fruit or vegetable, plants, nuts, berries or any ornamental trees, vines or shrubs, whether the same be attached to the soil or not shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offense.

Approved June 18, 1895. DANIEL H. HASTINGS. Because His Father Was a Murderer. The suicide at Antrim, Tioga county, several days ago, of John Renstrom reveals a strange story. He killed himself because he discovered that his father was a murderer.

He is Evidently Mistaken. We don't like to destroy an agreeable illusion or cast doubt upon that which, under certain circumstances, is a commendable belief, but if the Bishop street gentleman who, on Saturday afternoon last at the fountain in front of the court house, was assuring a neighbor that he "owed everything to his wife," will look at the tab on the Watchman that is mailed him regularly, he will discover that in addition to his indebtedness to his better half he owes this office about four and a half years' subscription.

Aid for Cuban Rebels. Information was received in New York on Tuesday, of the successful landing in Cuba last Thursday of two large bodies of insurgents, who brought with them two cannon, 700,000 rounds of ammunition, 500 pounds of dynamite and hundreds of repeating rifles and revolvers.

Judge McClure Orders Another Trial. Judge McClure on Tuesday, at Lewistown, filed an option granting a new trial in the case of J. M. Goodhart vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad for personal injuries. In his opinion the Judge scores the jury thus: "The return of the jury bears on its face evidence of haste and want of deliberation characteristic of Saturday afternoon verdicts." The case will be tried in November.

Maybe Judge McClure shows as much "haste" as the jury. —Lyon & Co., Bellefonte, are making a big drive in shoes.
