PERSONAL MENTION.

GRANGERS' PICNIC.

Coming and Going .-- Visitors in and out of Town.

-Dr. Hosterman and son Sumner spent two or three days among relatives down in Brush Valley.

-John Noll, of Bellefonte, was in town Tuesday looking at the specifications of the new Reformed church.

----Chris Murray, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at home. He expects to be admitted to the bar at the next August term of court.

-Our former townsman, Amos Oberdorf, of near Hublersburg, gave us a call on Monday, and tells us crops over there are good.

-Our always jolly friend, William Farner, of Potter, gave our sanctum a call, and gave his label a good hist forward with several jinglers.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, of this place, left for New Berlin last Friday to attend the funeral of Lewis Spangler, a brother, who died aged 53 years.

----Our esteemed friend, Wm. Goodhart, of Farmers' Mills, gave us a call and had his label put a year ahead. He don't care whether Dan or Matt gets licked in their big row.

-Mrs. William Shirk and daughter Miss Carrie, formerly residents of this place, but now living at Atlantic City arrived this week and are the guests of B. D. Brisbin.

-Rev. S. G. Shannon, filling the pulpit of a Lutheran church in Phila- in our vicinity for several days. delphia, arrived this morning on a visit to his sister, Mrs. William Lohr, who has been quite ill.

----Lewis Sunday gave us a call, and has moved to Turbotville, whither he ordered the "Reporter" to follow him and keep him posted on Centre county. Sensible notion.

-Rev. S. H. Ditzel and wife spent a three weeks' vacation at their old homes and among friends in this vicinity. He serves a Reformed charge in Westmoreland county to the utmost satisfaction of his flock.

-J. H. Ream, of Sunbury, gave us a pleasant call, and gave his label a push forward; he is a native of this section and moved to Sunbury some 8 years ago, and is in the employ of the Penn'a railroad.

-Mr. John Moyer, living 2 miles west of Millheim, an uncle of Mrs. Isaac Smith and Mrs. Wm. Wolf, visited those families last week. He is 83 years old, but still "right smart" in getting around.

-Prof. D. J. Wolf. who assisted The Centre Hall ball team was Prof. D. M. Wolf at Spring Mills in billed to play at Millheim yesterday, his normal term, was in town yester-

Interstate Picnic Exhibition, Williams' Grove, Pa., Angust 26 to 31, 1895. The Grangers' Interstate Picnic Exhibition which is held annually at Williams' Grove, Pennsylvania, thirteen miles southwest of Harrisburg, will open this year Monday, August 26th, and continue until Saturday, August 31st. This is conceded to be the largest assemblage of farmers, manufacturers, stock raisers and fruit growers held in the United States, and has become so well known throughout the country that it annually attracts immense crowds of the most substantial citizens. The ablest speakers known ter clothing and overcoats by Lyons, to the American people, not theorists, but men of large practical experience, lecture upon subjects of vital impor- have had during the past season. News of the Past Week Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Mr. H. A. Wait of Bellefonte, who is agent for a book called "Portraits and Principles," has been canvassing Rev. S. H. Deitzel and wife who have been visiting in our vicinity for several weeks, left for their home in Westmoreland county, Friday of last week.

Several of our young people attended the Communion services at Rock Hill Sunday evening. Rev A. Stapleton was present and delivered a touching sermon.

Prof. E. W. Crawford is teaching a singing class in the Walnut Grove school house.

Mr. John Horner purchased a lot at Colyer and will erect a new dwelling house.

Our farmers seem to have given up the farming business and turned their attention to picking huckleberries and killing snakes.

Mrs. Luse who is visiting friends in this vicinity is on the sick list. Mr. David Stoner wife and son spent several days last week with relatives near Millheim.
