

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

Henry Miller, of Millheim, was circulating among his friends in Centre Hall. Mrs. Dr. Funk and son, of Harrisburg, are the guests at the home of Wm. Wolf. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kreamer spent Wednesday among friends at Rebersburg. Miss Alice Hazelet, of Williamsport, is the guest of her friend, Miss Grace Smith. Miss Roxanna Brisbin spent several days this week among friends at State College. R. A. Bumiller, of Millheim, and Charles Stover, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday in Centre Hall. Col. James P. Coburn, the Aaronsburg Republican politician, was in Centre Hall Tuesday morning. Mrs. W. H. Hall and two sons, of Williamsport, visited at the home of Harry Dinges several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Finkle, of Farmer's Mills, paid us an hour's visit yesterday; they are among the most esteemed people of that locality. James A. Fiedler, formerly editor of the Bellefonte Gazette, and family, of Williamsport, are visiting his father, Mr. H. R. Eiedler, at Madisonburg. Rev. George P. Sarvis, formerly filling the pulpits of the Penns Valley Methodist church, but now of Port Matilda, was in town a day or so last week. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Saltzgeber, of York, Pa., were the guests of Mr. Jas. A. Keller. Mrs. Saltzgeber is a sister of Mrs. Keller. They departed on Tuesday. Rev. William Wagner and wife, of Muncy, Pa., have been visiting in this vicinity the past week. The Rev. has been successful in his pastorate at Muncy, and is doing a good work. John Noll, of Bellefonte, who has the contract for erecting the masonry of the new Reformed church, was in town yesterday. He is a first-class mechanic and the congregation are assured of a good job. Al. P. Wieland, of Syracuse, N. Y., spent several days this week with his parents at Linden Hall. Al. is in charge of the branch office of the H. J. Heinz Co., picklers, at Syracuse, and was taking his first vacation. J. C. Armbruster, of Tusseyville, gave us a call. He has a very desirable property, including a tract of timberland, near Farmer's Mills, which he offers at private sale. See his advertisement in another column. Mr. James Stewart left for Harrisburg on Monday morning, where he has received a position as foreman in the Harrisburg Foundry and Machine Co.'s works. For some time he was employed in the foundry here and made many friends in the town. Miss Sue Neff, daughter of the late Joseph Neff, of Centre Hill, sailed last week from New York for Europe. She has gone in company with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Neff, of Freeport, Ill. It is the present intention of the ladies to reside in Europe for several years. Mrs. William Harter, of Aaronsburg, visited her daughter, Mrs. Fred Kurtz, a few days this week. She took the train east Tuesday morning and had the pleasure of meeting three of her great-grand children, Anna Belle, Will Fred, and Jack, children of William L. Kurtz, of Lewisburg. Superstitious Farmers. Last Friday Dr. Budge, State Veterinarian, accompanied by Dr. H. G. Patterson, went to Birmingham, Huntingdon county, to examine cattle affected with Texas fever. An exchange says: Dr. Patterson came very near receiving rough treatment at the hands of some of his farmer friends when he told them there were no such diseases as "hollow horn" and "wolf in the tail." Some of them said that they had many a time cut out the "wolf" from the tails of their cows. Lewistown Centennial. Lewistown has decided to celebrate its 100th anniversary, and will do it in two days. September 5 and 6 are to be the days. Among the attractions will be two grand balloon ascensions with parachute descent. Bully on Potatoes. From a quarter of an acre of ground, landlord Musser, of Millheim, raised 78 bushels of potatoes, a few days ago. Even at 20 cents per bushel this is five times as profitable as wheat. Who can beat landlord Billy's score? A New Kind. A new style of postal money order is shortly to be issued. The new order will be smaller and more convenient than those now in use, but it will not be supplied to postoffices until the orders already printed are exhausted. 360 pair Men's All Wool Pants, worth 3.00 and 4.00. Our price, 1.50. Lyon & Co.

COBURN.

Miss Cora Snively Kills a Large Blacksnake While Out for Berries. James E. Harter and wife were visiting friends near Fiedler on Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. J. F. Garthoff and Mrs. Frank Hackenberg were circulating among friends at Millmont and Hartleton over Sunday. Andrew Harter, our obliging postmaster, had business at Fiedler on Tuesday. One of the workmen engaged in hewing walnut logs had the misfortune to cut a deep gash in one of his feet on Tuesday. John Gray, section foreman, made a business trip to Bellefonte on Tuesday. F. P. Vonada, N. F. Braucht, A. B. Meyer, William Brandt, and J. F. Garthoff, of this place, and L. L. Weaver, F. H. Stover, and W. D. Smith, of Fiedler, composed a party of cyclists who attended campmeeting near Middleburg on Sunday. They report having had a splendid trip. Mr. Henry Haught expects to go to West Virginia in the near future and may locate there permanently. H. L. Styers has gone to Ohio where he will remain for an indefinite time. The picnic at Centre Hall on last Saturday was not very largely attended by the "boys" from this place. Those who were there do not give a very glowing account of the affair. Farmers are busily engaged in harvesting their crop of oats which is above the average yield this year throughout this section. Miss Cora Snively is the heroine of the day in this section. While returning home alone from picking huckleberries one day last week, she encountered a large blacksnake lying in her path. She did not try to climb a tree, or jump upon a stump and scream, as most women would have done, but she seized a club and dispatched his snakeship in short order. Achilles like, she tied the dead reptile to her apron strings and thus carried it along home. It was five feet and six inches in length. AARONSBURG. James Ettinger Kicked by a Horse While Leading it to Water. Rev. Bright and son have gone to Pine campmeeting. Dr. Holloway and wife, of Lock Haven, visited relatives in town last week. Elmer Weaver, who is clerking in a store in Akron, Ohio, is home on a visit, and may remain and go into business in this place. The Wance boy was not lost on Nittany mountain, but on the mountain between Brush valley and Penns valley. Rev. Wolf and wife have returned from their visit and brought with them a cousin who expects to remain and visit them for a time. Ira Gramley has quit butchering for Brumgard at Millheim and is traveling with Gramley's steam thrasher in Brush valley. Charley Hosterman had Robert Boop make him a new mail coach; it's a one horse "buss" and a "dandy." James Ettinger was kicked on the leg by his horse while leading the animal to water. He is quite lame, and says it is very painful. TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. Whereas, It has been the will of God in his wisdom to remove from our midst our esteemed sister, Miss Mollie Rearick, we, in behalf of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Sinking Creek Presbyterian church, who have profited by her example, are desirous of testifying our respect to her memory and expressing our earnest and affectionate sympathy with those who have been deprived of one who was near and dear to them. Therefore be it Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the bereaved family in this their hour of trial and affliction, and devoutly commend them to Him, who looks with a pitying eye on his sorrowing children. Resolved, That while we deeply feel our loss, and fully sympathize with those who were bound to her by dearer and stronger ties than ours, we share with them the hope of a reunion in that better world where there are no partings and ineffable bliss forbids all tears. Resolved, That though we sorrow at the loss of such a faithful member, we find consolation in the thought that all is well with her. Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded, a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and that they be published in the local papers. Mrs. W. M. GOODHART. Mrs. W. M. ALLISON. Miss Emma McCoy. Pull off with starch and glass serene, The linen collar starts the morn; Full oft at noon time it is seen All wadded, wrinkled and forlorn. That's what you must expect of such a collar; it's the lines of it. The stand-up collar won't stand up, and the turn-down collar will wilt down. The easy, cheap, and pleasant way out of this is to wear "CELLULOID" COLLARS AND CURTAINS. These goods are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with "CELLULOID," thus making them strong and durable, and easy to wear, not affected by heat or moisture. There are no other waterproof goods made this way, consequently none that can wear so well. When soiled simply wipe them off with a wet cloth. Every piece of the genuine is stamped like this: TRADE MARK. CELLULOID MARK. Insist upon goods so marked if you expect full satisfaction, and if your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us enclosing amount and we will mail sample.
