-Rev. James W. Boal, pastor of the Port Carbon, Pa., Presbyterian church, is now enjoying his vacation, and is spending it in this county. He arrived today, and will remain several days.

-Walter W. Bayard, who has been spending the past several weeks at the home of Mr. M. Strohm, at Centre Hill, left on Monday for Baltimore, where he will engage in the drug trade. Mrs. Bayard will follow later on.

-Mr. R. O. Brought, proprietor of the Coburn hotel, and Newt. Bitner, agent at Paddy Mountain Tunnell, spent Sunday in Centre Hall. They came up by railroad bicycle built for two owned by Newt, and made a quick trip of it over the rails.

-Chris Murray spent a day or so at home this week. He has passed all his examinations as a law student very creditably, and will be admitted to the Centre county bar at the next week's court. He will likely hang out his shingle in Bellefonte.

-Landlord Bartges and wife and daughter, Miss Della, left last Thursday for Atlantic City, where they will beguile away a week's time listening to what the sad sea waves have to say. Robert Bartges, of Penn Hall, is acting in capacity of mine host during their absence.

-We love flowers and were greatly pleased to have a large bouquet presented to us from the handsome flower beds of Mrs. Rev. Eisenberg, where variety and loveliness beautify the parsonage yard. In appreciation of this remembrance the lady will consider our best hat tipped.

-It was erroneously stated in our last issue that Miss Sue Neff had sailed the week previous for Europe. Instead she will sail on Saturday, August 31st, expecting to remain several years. Miss Neff has traveled all over the United States and will see all the sights on the other side of the globe. Her many friends will wish her bon voyage.

-We had the pleasure of a half hour's chat with the venerable James Evans, of near Penn Hall, accompanied by his son, Rev. L. K. Evans, of Pottstown, Pa., where he has faithfully served the Reformed charge for 24 years, a distinction which not many divines can boast of. Father Evans is now 83 years old, with the spryness and health glow of 70. As son-in-law of Judge Kreider, mentioned in our last issue as one of Gregg township's original settlers, Mr. and Mr. Evans are connected with a family of local 50,000 lbs. of Wool prominence in the early day. The only surviving cousin, of many, of mother Evans, is Mrs. Wm. Harter, of Aaronsburg and mother of Mrs. Kurtz of this place.

school house. Everybody is cordially invited to attend to partake of the delicious cream and cake which will be handed out by the belles of the school. W. C. Gettig took a trip to Millheim and back on Saturday last.

Rev. Shaeffer and wife, of Michigan are at present sojourning at the home of Ezra Tressler.

Mr. Bennet, of Reedsville, visited his friends here a few days last week. Elmer, the little son of Harry Frantz was taken suddenly ill on Sunday, and for a time was in a precarious condition, but has fully recovered again.

On Thursday last Mrs, Robert Mc-Clellan accompanied by Mrs. Lee and daughter Mary, visited friends at Tusseyville.

Miss Mame Bradford, of Centre Hall, accompanied by two of her lady friends visited at the home of station agent Bradford on Wednesday last. Frank McClintick and sister Cora, formerly of this place, but now of Rebersburg, paid a visit to their parents here last week.

Miss Fredda Hess after spending a few months at the home of her uncle, Mr. Waring, at Tyrone, has returned home. Her grandfather, Mr. Daniel Hess, presented her with a new bicycle, and now Miss Fredda is taking daily lessons on the lawn fronting their home.

Edward Meyer's were entertaining some of their many friends on Sunday. William Markle, of Lemont, visited at the home of Mr. Corl on Tuesday. Some of our young people attended the .K .L C. E. on Sunday evening and report a very large attendance. Some of our Granger farmers took a heliday on Tuesday and had a very enjoyable time at the Grange hall at Oak Hall.

Mrs. Joseph McClellan, of Tusseyvilie visited at the home of David Frantz this week.

Anna Weiland has gone to Lebanon where she is taking a musical course. Quite a number of our people attended the I. O. O. F. festival at Boalsburg and report it a success. Jennie Weibly, of this place, took first prize, which was a beautiful rocker.

Arthur Kimport, prothonotary's clerk at Bellefonte, spent Sunday at his home.

YES, IT IS HOT

Too hot you think to talk of Fall clothing! Well, perhaps it is. But then it is too late to talk summer stuff, and we must talk.

....

We just arrived home after a two weeks stay in the eastern markets, having purchased what promises to be the largest and nicest stock of ready to wear clothing ever shown in this county.

We have secured the agency for the four greatest clothing novelties in the market this fall. You will hear much about these special good things later.

Keep an eye on us-you will be the winner if you do. By the latter part of this week a large part of our new goods will be on our tables for your inspection. We know we are fully a month in advance of the season, but that need make no difference to you. You must not buy-just come and look. Post yourself for future reference. See what we have and the way we sell it. You can't lose-you are sure to profit by a visit.

Watch us-we are strictly in it this Fall.
