—Miss Anna Bartholomew left this week for Millersville State Normal, and will take a full course from that institution.

—Our esteemed friend, S. P. Hennigh, of Potter's Bank, gave us a call, and will shortly offer some valuable real estate for sale.

—Mr. Shannon McCormick, of State College, the veteran Democrat of the Jacksonian stripe, gave us a call yesterday. He is visiting friends in the vicinity.

—Will Lee with his Iowa friend, Mr. Fleisher who is on a few weeks' visit to friends in this vicinity, gave us a call. Mr. F. informs us all crops are excellent in Iowa.

—Cyrus Brungart, Millheim's tall and handsome citizen, gave us a pleasant call, and reports all prosperous on classic Elk creek. We never met Cyrus out of humor.

—Daniel Hosterman, of Coburn, gave us a call, and reports the general health good down that way and crops abundant. Dan gathers the bulk of cream for the Coburn creamery.

—Harvey Van Pelt left last Thursday for Ithaca, N. Y., where he will enter the preparatory department of Cornell University, and will take a full collegiate course at that institution.

—James Gregg, son of Col. Gregg, for several years instructor of the Lemont grammar school, has been elected principal of the schools at Unionville. James is a good instructor and well learned.

—Prof. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, County Superintendent, held a special examination at Centre Hall last Friday. The Prof. has raised the standard of our public schools, and is doing much toward furthering the cause of education.

—Dr. J. F. Alexander, of Los Angeles, California, who removed from Centre Hall several years ago, is on a visit east, having arrived last week. He is in the drug business on the Pacific coast; he will prolong his visit for several weeks.

He lives in the north eastern part of the state, where they are not troubled by droughts, insects or cyclones, and where crops have always been good; he tells us that this year crops are especially abundant in north eastern Kansas, and that farming has paid him well there, and he does not have any desire to live in Pennsylvania again, although it is a good state. His wife is with him on this visit.

Friendly Note from El shop McGovern. The friends of Bishop McGovern in this county, who learned to esteem him as a man of broad ideas as well as his love for all mankind, were doubtless pleased to learn of his safe return from his journey to Rome. We are pleased to offer for their perusal, a letter from the distinguished Bishop to the editor of this paper, as follows:

Sylvan Heights, Harrisburg, Aug., 17, 1895. Editor of the "Centre Reporter": Kind Sir:—I was flattered by your notice you gave me in the issue of your paper of the 15th inst. In the abundance of your heart you spoke of my deserts; but of our early friendship which I am happy to say has not been forgotten, your words are sweet like music of other days. It is a joy to recall in the evening of life's pilgrimage the pleasant memories of over thirty years ago, when on youth's feet limbs:—

"We two has run about the bras, And put on the gowns fine; But we've wandered money weary foot, Sin' and lang syne."

Yours gratefully, THOMAS MCGOVERN, Bishop of Harrisburg.
