DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For Prothonotary,
WM. F. SMITH.

For District Attorney,
WM. J. SINGER.

THE fight between Quay and Hastings is breaking out fresh again, over the election of delegates to the National Republican convention.

We feel like predicting that William C. Whitney, of New York, will be the next Democratic nominee for President. He is a good man, and would be hard to beat.

It is denied that Gov. Hastings will be a candidate for delegate to the National Republican convention from this congressional district. The Quay people have the majority in the district hence the delegate will be of that stripe.

OUR county should roll up its old-fashioned Democratic majority in November. Our county affairs have been admirably managed by the Democratic officials, and under a wise Democratic administration at Washington the country is enjoying prosperity.

VOTER, remember that the last legislature endeavored to pass a law pensioning the judges of this state, although they get fat salaries. This is a favorite Republican measure and they will make it a law unless you quit voting that ticket.

DON'T forget, voters, when you go to the polls in November, that the Republican legislature, last winter, scandalously voted away the public funds, on jobs, to the amount of two millions beyond the entire revenues of the commonwealth.

THE cry of non-partisanship in the Common Pleas Judges' contest throughout the state is being raised by some Republican organs. They still cling to the idea of electing all of their six candidates for Superior Court Judge. There is certainly a one-sided non-partisan scheme.

ON THE evening just before the Quay caucus was held, at the recent Republican state convention, and while the Combine was still boasting it would elect Gilkison state chairman, Quay made the remark, "to-morrow I will bring Gilkison down to nominate me myself for state chairman, by acclamation, by —." And when "to-morrow" came, it was so.

It is admitted pretty generally, now, that the Wilson tariff is a blessing for the country. Its good workings have been felt among all classes and in all avenues of business. It proves the wisdom of Democratic tariff reform, and the truth of Democratic argument that its policy would work for the general good. Stand by the Democracy with your votes next November.

LET the voting tax-payer, this fall, remember the infamous and iniquitous doings of the last legislature. Nothing in the history of the state ever came up to it.

It created a horde of new and unnecessary offices to make places for party heelers.

It robbed the people out of millions for the benefit of the Standard Oil monopoly.

It raised the salaries of office holders whose pay was already too high.

It created a new and expensive and useless court of seven judges.

It passed thieving appropriation jobs to rob the treasury under the color of law.

It is guilty of scores of other iniquities that should damn it in the eyes of every honest man.

WELL cared for is Centre county under the present state administration. We have, Hastings, governor. Beaver, superior judge. Hamilton, deputy sec'y agriculture. Atherton, Pres't board of University examination for the state. Purdue, Huntingdon reformatory. Harris, secretary in executive department. Miss Fauble, stenographer executive department. Reynolds, aid governor's staff. Keener, aid governor's staff, and deputy ad. general's dep't. All creditable appointments, and competent. The disappointed ones should have an installment of the governor's old boots, shoes, shirts, coats, pants and vests, and all sores will be healed.

SOME of the ultra-Protectionist organs have reached the conclusion that the tariff cuts no figure in the campaign. They were never more mistaken in their lives. The Wilson tariff measure is very much in evidence this year. The noise and bustle of increased industry are heard on every hand, and the benefit of increased wages is being felt too well to give the voters any chance to lose sight of the wise administration of the Democracy. The people were hasty last year. Their eyes are open, and they are now able to sift the wheat from the chaff and will not be fooled longer by empty assertions and impossible prophecies. With the facts before them, they cannot fail to see the justice of supporting the Democratic ticket in its entirety.

WANTED—A WAR RECORD.

The Republicans want to elect Abe Miller as prothonotary, on his war record—keeping in the dark his doubtful competency. Now if Mr. Miller's friends admit he does not have the requisite qualifications for the important office of prothonotary, then why don't they put out "his war record" if he has any? If Mr. Miller has no war record, and is not competent, then there is nothing at all in his favor, and that is about the exact situation. There is no war record for Mr. Miller, that will speak in his favor, and such as it is, his friends, nor his organ, the Gazette, will not produce it, and it will be left for the REPORTER and other Democratic papers to print his war record and supply that which his own side will try to hide. Mr. Miller's "war record" was not of a character to even bring him within the pension laws, and the pension he does get has about it an air of suspicion, for it had to be engineered by special act, which dodged all scrutiny into his "war record," and says oblivion to it.

We will, in our next issue, refer more at length to this mysterious "war record" and convince every candid voter that it is a record that is dimmed by that of every honorably discharged soldier.

AFTER HARRISON, WHAT?

With Harrison out of the field how are the other starters in the Republican Presidential free-to-all race placed?

At first blush it would seem that McKinley would benefit by the withdrawal. But with every succeeding month of renewed prosperity, the Ohio man of one idea becomes more illogical as a candidate. The logical result of a campaign with an illogical candidate is defeat. The shrewd and hard-headed Republican leaders are not likely to court defeat next year on any sentimental ground.

Mr. Reed is badly placed on the further eastern fringe of the Union. He "wobbled" at a critical moment on the silver question. His sharp tongue has made him many enemies. His extreme partisanship and reckless use of power have not commended him to the sober-minded and conservative voters, who, after all, determine Presidential elections in a majority of cases. Mr. Reed is a brainy man and a powerful party leader, but he is not the first of his party to put the Presidency out of reach by the very excess of his strong qualities.

Narrowing the field to Governor Morton in the east and Senator Allison in the west, the choice will be greatly influenced by the result of the elections this year and by the course of Congress at the coming session. The carrying of New York and New Jersey by the Democrats, and possibly Ohio, and the forcing of a new issue by Congress, would act upon the political situation like the introduction of a powerful new element into a chemical combination. It would precipitate and clarify the mixture. Such a result emphasizing again the importance of carrying New York, and teaching the lately confident Republicans the need of extreme caution and determined effort, would undoubtedly increase the chances of Governor Morton's nomination, provided the state of his health would then warrant the experiment.

But many things politically may happen in eight months.

Widows Pensions.

The pension allowed the widow of a soldier ceases under the law when she marries again. If she has any children by her first marriage she may continue to draw a pension as guardian of her children after marriage, but in such an event she must surrender her widow's certificate and be appointed guardian of the children. The pension drawn as guardian ceases when the child reaches the age of sixteen years. If the widow continues to draw the pension as a widow after marriage she may be proceeded against civilly for the recovery of the money overdrawn, if she has property, and may also be prosecuted criminally.

No Outside Helping.

The Postoffice Department has notified Postmasters that the execution of pension vouchers must be confined to the pensioners who are "within the delivery" of the Postmaster's own office.
