CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. Oct. 17.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

For Prothonotary, WM. F. SMITH.

For District Attorney, WM. J. SINGER.

THE Democratic nominee for district attorney is a sin-ger, and the day after the election Mr. Quigley will find himself badly scorched.

THE "Centre Democrat" has made some creditable improvements of late, editorially and mechanically, and is doing some telling work for the Democracy.

THE campaign in this county is going to be brisk from now until the election. The Democratic chairman, Newt Spangler, is leaving no stone unturned to secure victory for his party.

LET every Democrat in this county work to bring out the vote and roll up the old majority. The county went astray last year on the calamity howl which bore a harvest of bitterness in the most profligate and iniquitous legislation.

THE Standard Oil Company made 11 million dollars out of last winter's iniquitous legislation, and is making thousands more each day by it. This is all filched from the pockets of the people who use coal oil.

Raising salaries, that were already fat and too high for loafers around the public crib was the work of the state administration last winter in addition to creating a horde of new offices. The people are taxed to foot the bill. If you like it vote for them again in November.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY Singer will complete his first term in office with credit. The Democratic party has endorsed his re-nomination for the second term, and it should be the duty of every intelligent voter to see that the ballot goes in straight for Singer. He has conducted his office in a manner above reproach.

THAT great stronghold of Republicanism, Pittsburg, has been investigated and serious disclosures have been made implicating prominent officials misusing public funds. This city is ruled by the hog combine, and the hogs have been in the trough with all four feet.

THAT howl of the Republican organs to support Abe Miller for Prothonotary, simply because he is an old soldier drawing $24 a month pension, and is in need of money, don't go very far with the intelligent voter. Miller is not fit for the office, and the voters of the county once voted down the poor horse question, as they will also this fall vote against turning the county court house into one.

ARE the voters of the county willing to turn the court house into a poor house? When a man receives $24 a month pension, along with a $4 a day job as a storekeeper and then asks charity of the Democrats of the county, is this not sufficient evidence that he is not a capable man to take care of the important office of Prothonotary? Abe Miller does not have the ability to conduct this important office properly, and should not receive a complimentary vote from any Democrat.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Although nearly a month intervenes until November 5, election day, the more rabid of the Republican party organs have already declared to their own satisfaction the ignominious defeat of the entire Democratic state ticket by an overwhelming majority, graciously, however, granting to us the one member of the Superior Court bench which is provided for by the alleged law that created this new tribunal. To the shrewd observer of state affairs these extremely partisan prognostications are humorous in no slight degree. The close political student recognizes the fact that never in the history of Pennsylvania did the Democracy have a better opportunity to win, and it is conceded by the fair-minded of this class that an energetic canvass for the balance of the campaign will bring out the full Democratic vote, and this, aided by the independent thinkers of the state, who are neither ruled by the Junior United States Senator or the Administration and Philadelphia Combine contingent of the Republican party, will place the stamp of approval on the ticket selected at the Williamsport convention.

This conclusion has not been arrived at simply after a rapid glance over the field, but the course of the Republic...

lean party in this campaign and its party organs plainly shows that a Democratic victory is greatly feared by them. It has no doubt been noticed that during the few weeks of this campaign already passed the Republican party organs, always so eager to enter into a campaign of mud-slinging and defamation of character, have confined themselves almost entirely to discussing and lauding reform propositions that were promulgated by their state chairman, who has heretofore been the thorn in the side of all Republican party reformers. The make-up of the Democratic state ticket has been left severely alone, simply for the reason that to have said anything but that which was good would have endangered any chance of Republican victory. The record of the last session of the State Legislature is still green in the memories of the voters of the Commonwealth, and from a Republican standpoint it would have been suicidal to have entered into a campaign that would have taken for its text the record of the Republican party of the state during the past year. Attempts have been made to ring the changes on the time-worn doctrines and pledges of their party, but these fall very flat when there is so much material that could be analyzed with profit to the state and interest to the taxpayers. It would never have done to refer to any recent exploits of the party, for the reason that it would be followed by a general expose of mismanagement and gross expenditure of public funds. For that reason the candidacy of Hon. Benjamin F. Meyers is looked upon with a seriousness that is truly flattering to the minority party. It has been noticed through the length and breadth of the state that while such reputable and conservative newspapers as the Public Ledger, of Philadelphia, and others of equal merit have been severely scoring the administration of the financial affairs of the Commonwealth and condemning the manner in which the funds of the people have been squandered by a profligate Legislature and officials who work simply for the purpose of gaining selfish party ends, the administration of the Treasurer's office has been in the direct charge and management almost exclusively of the Republican candidate for Treasurer, as it is a well-known fact that Treasurer Jackson has spent very little of his time in the department during his term. Is it any wonder that under these conditions a man with such an enviable record as Mr. Meyers should be feared by both factions of the Republican party machine?

As for the Judgeship contest, it is pretty nearly understood that the people of the state will vote in such a way as to show their condemnation of the disgraceful factional fights in the Republican party and the unseemly proceedings that led to the creation of this court. The six honorable and distinguished jurists placed in nomination by the Democratic party came before the people in an honest, straightforward and fearless manner, backed only by their reputations as lawyers and Judges and the knowledge that they were safe in the hands of the people. The character of the office does not admit of any personal campaign, but it is not necessary in this case. It is sufficient for the people to know the motive that made the court, and they also know that the only way they can rebuke selfish party leaders is to elect the members of the minority ticket having clean records and nominated in a thoroughly harmonious and representative convention.

October's Heavenly Brilliants. The planet Venus is now a morning star. She is just about 30 degrees west of the sun, traveling toward the greatest western elongation of her orbit, which point she will reach No. 10, when she will present the semi-lunar phase. Just now her beautiful crescent phase makes a splendid object for small telescopes. Mercury is evening star, and is about 20 degrees east of the and traveling toward inferior conjunction, which point it will reach Oct. 25th. It can be seen with the naked eye about dusk in the western sky.

Bicycles will not be Cheaper. One reason why bicycles will not be much cheaper next season than they were this season is because there is a scarcity of tubing. There are only three works in this country that can make bicycle tubing, and these firms have already sold the entire output for the season. The shortage of tubing will therefore prevent any cut in the price of wheels next year.

Boy Ripped in Two by a Saw. Sixteen-year-old Hackett Lehle, son of coal operator Caron Lehle, fell against a circular saw at Lilly and was cut through diagonally from the left shoulder to the right leg. He died instantly.

For Individual Use Only. The season for quail will open on November 1, and will last until December 15. Quail may be shot for individual use only.

The cold weather coming on will require heavier and thicker clothing, as protection against the wintry blasts. Lewins, Bellefonte, has a full new line, and the prices are lower than any in the county. He has never been undersold.
