

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Rev. Illingworth favored our sanctum with a call.

—Mrs. William Wolf is visiting among friends at Gettysburg.

—Squire Reesman is attending the special term of court this week as a juror.

—Chris H. Murray, esq., of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at home with his parents.

—Mr. H. W. Kreamer has gone to Philadelphia to buy the winter goods for his firm.

—Frank Crawford went to Philadelphia on Monday morning to buy goods for his firm.

—Our pleasant friend, S. P. Henning, of Potters bank, favored our sanctum with a call.

—Mr. Daniel Smetzer, of Dakota, Ill., who is visiting friends in the east, was in town last Friday.

—Jacob Derstine and wife, of Freeport, Ill., arrived here beginning of the week, to visit his parents.

—Our esteemed friend, Jacob Emerick, esq., gave us a call. He is interested in a lumber job in Sugar valley.

—Mrs. Joseph Atlee returned to her home in Tyrone last Thursday, after a visit of several weeks among friends at this place.

—Mr. Ephraim H. Shook, of Penn Hall, one of that district's representative men, was in town a few days ago, and dropped in at the REPORTER office for a few minutes.

—David Foreman and Commissioner James Strohm will go to Pittsburg sometime this month, being summoned as jurors in the U. S. District Court.

—Daniel Wieland, one of our esteemed patrons from Harris twp., gave us a call and had his label set close up to '97; he reports there is no scarcity of water, and big corn and potato crop.

—Candidate for District Attorney Quigley, on the Republican ticket, was in town yesterday looking up his chances for the office. He is hustling after the job and is making a personal canvass of the county.

—Man. J. Shook, the cider man, dropped in to see us. He had not anticipated a big run with his press this year, and at one time had thought of not starting the mill, owing to the apparent small crop of apples. He was agreeably disappointed and has had a big year of it.

LINDEN HALL.

Items of Interest Gathered for Our Readers.

Rev. S. H. Welsh and family of Clearfield county are the guests of Mr. David Frantz. Rev. Welsh is a minister of the U. B. church on the Clearfield circuit.

A. E. Zeigler and his two sisters Lizzie and Nettie, spent Sunday with friends near Madisonburg.

J. B. Wagner of Tusseyville was seen in our midst on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Tharp spent Sunday with friends at Lemont.

Miss Gertie Weiland, who has been teaching school out near Philipsburg the past two months is home on the sick list.

Elmer Hurshel, little son of Harry and Mary Frantz died on Monday morning at nine o'clock. Little Elmer has been a great sufferer for the last few months; he was interred in the Union cemetery at Tusseyville, Wednesday forenoon. Mourn not for the little darling dear parents, for what is your loss is his eternal gain.

Killed in the Green Woods.

It is reported that a man named Anderson, from Bellefonte, was killed while hunting deer in the Green woods last Thursday. He was standing on a log watching a deer crossing and holding his gun by the muzzle, with the butt resting on the ground. He drew the weapon up hastily and the hammer caught on the log and flew back, exploding the cartridge. The ball, a 44-calibre, struck him under the chin and passed out at the top of his head, causing instant death.—Philipsburg Ledger.

One Term Less.

Only three terms of court a year will be held in Clinton county hereafter. This order was handed down in last week's court in Lock Haven, and will be the saving of a great expense to the taxpayers of that county. The three terms will begin on the first Monday of January, the second Monday of May, and the fourth Monday in September.

Pulled Out in Time.

In Bellefonte a few days ago Wm. Hogarth, while assisting in repairing a boiler at the gas house, was precipitated into the fire box by the arch on which he was standing giving way. Other workmen near by hastily grabbed Hogarth and pulled him out, and thus saved the man from a horrible burning.

Millinery Notice.

Mrs. Lucy Henney has received her stock of Fall and Winter Millinery goods. The ladies are respectfully invited to call and inspect these new styles.

MILLHEIM.

Persons Who are Visiting in and Out of Town.

James G. Linn, of Carlisle, called on our merchants last week.

Winter is fast approaching and council should see that all dilapidated boardwalks are repaired and in good condition. Borough dads do your duty, as you have been sworn to do.

Alex McCoy registered at the Musser house one day last week.

H. S. McCloskey and G. W. McCloskey, of Lock Haven, are slating the roof on the new house of I. W. Stover on Penn street; they understand their business.

D. A. Booser and J. C. Dale, of Centre Hall were visiting in our borough last week, and no doubt noticed the elegant condition of our boardwalks, which are so much admired.

Miss Minnie Adams, who has been living with her sister in Danville for a year has returned home and is domiciled with her mother on North street.

John M. Long and I. M. Smith, of Tyrone were looking after their interests in the Nittany turnpike last week.

The horse and cattle sale of W. C. Foreman, at the Musser house on the 21st, will no doubt be well attended, as the stock is first-class.

W. B. Crape, of Spring Mills, the jewelry man was seen on our streets last week.

Sammel B. Haupt, a former resident of this place, but now of Lewisburg, registered at the Musser house one day last week.

James Potter, of Bellefonte, the hardware man called on our merchants.

Abe Kessler, A. A. Frank and I. H. Deibler have received their fall and winter goods and are doing a rushing biz.

N. B. Spangler, Democratic County chairman was in town last Friday and called on his many friends here; he was looking after the interests of the local and state candidates, and found the Democrats alive to the situation.

H. C. Quigley, the Republican candidate for District Attorney was here hunting up his political friends last week, and had a word or two to say to his political foes. Mr. "Quiggle" can wriggle, but he can't Singer. Democrats here will vote Democratic.

James Beaver, the wide awake grocery man of Millinburg was in town last Friday attending to business in his line.

John H. Woomey, Charley Albright and W. A. Tobias started for the wilds of Potter county on last Monday to look after business interests. The boys had better look out or they might get lost in a "gale."

Our town for the last week has been blessed or cursed with an unusual run of commercial men for this season of the year.

Millheim merchants have ladies' cloaks, capes and coats enough to supply the wants of every lady in Centre county.

"Doe" Winkleman of Nittany was over on Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Deputy Sheriff Weaver was in town on Saturday and levied on the planing mill of Ad. Harter; the sale will take place on the 22nd.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, which has outlived and superseded hundreds of similar preparations, is undoubtedly the most fashionable as well as economical hair-dressing in the market. By its use, the poorest head of hair soon becomes luxuriant and beautiful.

"Saved My Life" A VETERAN'S STORY.

"Several years ago, while in Fort Snelling, Minn., I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough, that allowed me no rest day or night. The doctors after exhausting their remedies, pronounced my case hopeless, saying they could do no more for me. At this time a bottle of AYER'S Cherry Pectoral was sent to me by a friend who urged me to take it, which I did, and soon after I was greatly relieved, and in a short time was completely cured. I have never had much of a cough since that time, and I firmly believe Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—W. H. WARD, 8 Quimby Av., Lowell, Mass.

You Wonder

Why your friend is better dressed. You pay more for your clothes than he, but they never fit you so well—they never wear so long and never have the style, the chic, the certain something that shows clothes are just what they should be. Do you know that your friend is a customer of ours? Ask him, you will be sure to find such is the case. We not only sell you different clothes, better clothes, but also charge you less than others.

WE ARE SHOWING

A line of Men's Suits, twenty styles, at $7.50, that will cost from $10 to $12 elsewhere. Our Ten line is the cracker-jack of the season. Not a style in the lot that you can duplicate in other stores for less than $15, and many of them will cost you as much as $17 and $18. We know this to be the truth and can convince you of the fact if you only make the comparison. See others, then see us, and you will be sure to save money.

Ready For The Fall Trade.

Our stock for the Fall and Winter is now ready on our counters for your inspection. Our well selected line of Men's, Boys' and Children's suits and overcoats is unsurpassed for style and variety of fabric, and our always popular low prices prevail.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Before purchasing your Fall and Winter

COATS, CAPES AND JACKETS,

It will be well for you to call and examine our line. We have been very careful in selecting our line of Ladies' Coats and Capes, and have succeeded in securing the very latest styles in the market.

OUR BOOT, SHOE AND RUBBER COUNTER

Is unequalled by that of any in the county. Having bought our stock before the advance on leather, we are now in position to save you from 20 to 40 per cent on them. We are also well stocked with

HORSE AND BED BLANKETS

Which we have in all qualities and all prices. See our Hats and Gent's Furnishings.
