

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

D. F. Luse went to Altoona this week on a business trip. Mr. Zerby and his son James, of Decker valley, gave us a call. Samuel Harter, one Gregg twp's most esteemed citizens, gave our sanction a call. Miss Martha Farner and Miss Slabig, of Centre Hill, favored our office with a call. We are pleased to say that Geo. Koch has become well enough to be around again. Mrs. Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Boob. Mr. E. Emoery Hoy, of Philadelphia, spent several days this week in Centre Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith are spending several days with their son James at Madisonburg. Mr. Sidney Krumrine, of Rebersburg, visited at the home of Simon Harper yesterday. Mr. Jared B. Kreamer, of Boalsburg, was a prominent Centre Hall visitor on Wednesday. W. O. Reareck arrived home last Friday from an extensive trip over the state in the interests of his firm. Will Thompson, one of the best citizens of Potter's Mills, was in town on business, and gave us a handshake. Col. James P. Coburn, of Aaronsburg, was in Centre Hall on Saturday looking up his interests in this vicinity. William Wolf left for Pittsburg Monday morning to attend the U. S. District Court, which convenes this week. He serves as a juror. Mrs. B. D. Brisbin left last week for Schenectady, N. Y., on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Harry Boone. She will remain some time. Mrs. W. W. Bayard, of Baltimore, arrived on Monday evening on a several weeks' visit to her father, Mr. Michael Strohman, at Centre Hill. Mr. James A. Keller, east of town, has been somewhat indisposed for the last two or three weeks. He is now improving and will soon be able to be around. Mr. Singer, the Democratic nominee for district attorney, gave us a call while on a canvass thro this valley; he tells us he finds things looking healthy politically, and no quibble or Quigley in it.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week: J. B. Heberling, of Pine Grove Mills and Miss Arvilla Bloom, State College. Frank F. Irwin and Cora M. Row, of Phillipsburg. Harvey A. Heaton, of Boggs township, and Nannie Moran, of Bellefonte. John M. Bezer and Anna C. Murray, of Bellefonte. Snyder Tate and Rebecca J. Garbrick of Coleville. Charles Edward Wetzel and Catharine A. Miller, of Spring twp. Robert Watkins, of Howard twp., and Melvina Fink, of Taylor twp.

Dropped Dead on the Street.

John C. Brown, a well-known Republican politician, residing in Gregg township, fell dead on the street in Lewisburg on Saturday. He had been in town attending the Republican county committee meeting. He was in the cavalry service during the war, and served as postmaster at Allenwood for several years.

Objects to Football.

The Lutheran Synod on Saturday discussed football. The synod, which keeps a sharp eye upon Gettysburg college, expressed regret that intercollegiate football was indulged in contrary to the suggestion made by last year's synod. This synod suggests that such contests be abandoned.

AARONSBURG.

News of the Past Week Given by Our Correspondent.

Harry Yearick, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in town with his parents. He left for Centre Hall Monday afternoon, and started for Philadelphia Tuesday morning. Henry Bower's wife died at Frog-town, just south of Millheim, on Tuesday morning after being sick a few days. She had been sick and before she had fully recovered went into the corn field and husked corn and had a relapse with fatal results. She was a daughter of Henry Swartz. John H. Dutwiler expects to engage in the poultry business quite extensively. On the lots which he lately purchased from Mr. Wetzel he is erecting a large henry that will accommodate several hundred fowls. Miss Mazie Forster went to Millingburg on Tuesday afternoon to attend the reception of Dr. Stains, who married Miss Hoffa, of Lewisburg. The study lamp of D. H. Rote took fire and only through the timely arrival of Mr. John Bower, the butcher, his building was saved from burning down.

LINDEN HALL.

Items of Interest Gathered by Our Correspondent.

The services at Rock Hill on Sunday evening last were well attended but very noisy occasioned by people coming in and going out during services, all of which was very annoying. Mrs. John Williams of Oak Hall, was the guest of her sister Mrs. Wm. Keller on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. John Swab and daughter Mina, of Erie, Pa., are the guests of Mr. Swab's parents; they arrived on Saturday and will remain an indefinite time. Mr. and Mrs. William Rishel of Oak Hall, spent Sunday at the home of Henry Zeigler. Mr. and Mrs. Getz, of Lemont, were pleasant callers in our vicinity on Saturday last. Master Hurschel Bratton has left our community and gone to his future home in Clearfield county. Mrs. Elizabeth Merryman, who spent the summer with her sister Mrs. David Frantz, of this place, will leave this week for her home near Houtzdale. Miss Annie Bradford, of Aaronsburg is domiciled at the home of her uncle, Philip Bradford, where she expects to stay for the winter and be a pupil in our schools. Mr. John Cummings living on Miss Sue Neff's farm has to drive his cattle to Willow springs a distance of two miles from his home to water them, and Mr. Corls, one-fourth mile south-east of Linden Hall has to haul his water for daily use, and these are not all the farmers who are out of water.

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for

AYER'S

Sarsaparilla, would be sores, provided I was alive and able to carry anything. Eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me, so that I have had no return of the disease for more than twenty years. The first bottle seemed to reach the spot and a persistent use of it has perfected the cure."—O. C. DAVIS, Wautoma, Wis.

You Wonder

Why your friend is better dressed. You pay more for your clothes than he, but they never fit you so well—they never wear so long and never have the style, the chic, the certain something that shows clothes are just what they should be. Do you know that your friend is a customer of ours? Ask him, you will be sure to find such is the case. We not only sell you different clothes, better clothes, but also charge you less than others.

WE ARE SHOWING

A line of Men's Suits, twenty styles, at $7.50, that will cost from $10 to $12 elsewhere. Our Ten line is the cracker-jack of the season. Not a style in the lot that you can duplicate in other stores for less than $15, and many of them will cost you as much as $17 and $18. We know this to be the truth and can convince you of the fact if you only make the comparison. See others, then see us, and you will be sure to save money.
