CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. NOV. 4.

THE result of the election is not as we could wish it. The Democrats brought back this county from its last fall's big Republican majority, with a small margin again anchoring in the Democratic fold again. But whilst the Republican vote was well out, the Democrats had a large stay-at-home vote, notably in some of the Penn's valley strongholds, which settles the matter, that on a full vote, old Centre is firmly Democratic.

In the large states the Republicans carried by handsome majorities, owing to Democratic bickerings, as in Maryland and New York. The offices were mostly local, and the Democracy, by a united front, can enter the presidential race next year with hopes of success.

THE Lutheran Synod did a good act in denouncing football and urging the Gettysburg College to discontinue it. Football and prize fighting are twins of brutality and wickedness follow in their train. All colleges should have strict rules against football.

SOME journals complain of Governor Hastings throwing too many appointments into Centre county. Never fret so long as the appointees are fit; our county has enough of good material to run the entire State government. Just keep throwing your plums this way, governor.

ECONOMIC ZOOLOGY.

A farmer had his curiosity excited, caused by recent appointments by the Governor, to fill the places in the new department, yelp Economic Zoology, as to what that meant. We told him it was one of the iniquitous measures of the last legislature, creating new and useless offices, with big salaries, to steal the taxes paid by the farmer, and was one of those bad things that the farmer and granger had been taught to set his face against—robbing through the public crib. He was astonished and said he thought they had a watching committee there to give the alarm. Yes, we said, but your watchers have been pulling the wool over your eyes all along, were simply helpers in all last winter's damnable legislation, "watching" to share in the plunder of the people's taxes, amid the pettiest lobbying for lucre, and rapping at the door of the appointing power for an office, and if there were none to create new places like that of Economic Zoology and a score of others. We said the game had been tried on Pattison for eight years, by these "watchers for the farmer" rapping and kicking at his door, for an office, but he was true to his Democratic pledges and would not listen to these "watchers,"—for he knew them, and the farmers honor Pattison for it to-day.

Then, we said to our farmer friend, these "watchers," from posing as Democrats, sneaked around the Republican camp, and rapped at the door for a sop in the now legalized plunder of the commonwealth—this office, that place, make new places, for don't we represent the farmer? Create an Economic Zoology Department; create an Agricultural Department, and we are willing to keep quiet over the passage of the pipe-line bill, altho it robbed the farmer every year of millions of dollars in doubling the price of coal oil.

Now what has the farmer got? nothing, but he is now most shamefully burglarized. Economic Zoology is to teach the farmer that the robin has a red breast, builds his nest on trees or under the spouting; that a crow is black, has wings, caws, pulls up corn and eats dead horses. And for this there will be paid out thousands of dollars in expenses and salaries, and salaries to be increased, of course, when the next legislature meets.

"To ginney with your Economic Zoology, and put all these scamps to the penitentiary," is the way this farmer closed the subject.

In the Boro.

The election Tuesday passed off very quietly although there was much interest taken in the result. The vote was nearly all out, and 110 votes were polled. Quigley lead his ticket with 40 votes, while Miller received only 21. Meyers majority over Hayward was 50. Smith ran the highest with 84 to Miller 21, giving a majority of 63. There was a little cutting and trading, and a few Democrats were persuaded to cut Singer and vote for Quigley.

The only permanent cure for chronic catarrh is to thoroughly expel the poison from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatment has failed to relieve the sufferer.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Ad. Ripka gave our sanctum one of his usually pleasant calls.

—Our esteemed friend, Samuel Harter, of Gregg, made us a pleasant call.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Musser, of Spring Mills, visited in town last week.

—G. H. Ripka, of Colyer, was a caller, and fixed his label in shape, worthy of imitation.

—Dave Boozer returned home on Tuesday morning, after a week's sojourn in Philadelphia.

—Samuel Campbell, one of Millheim's prominent citizens, is not in the best of health of late.

—Danny Zeigler returned Tuesday morning after spending a week with his family in Millheim.

—Mrs. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall, spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Jane Love, on Church street.

—John Harter, Rebersburg's good-looking post-master, gave us a call, and reports there is no scarcity of water in that burg.

—We regret to say that our very esteemed townsman, Michael Derstine, has become so feeble as to be bed-fast for over two weeks.

—Miss Ada Waite, of Renova, is visiting friends in the valley, and several days last week were spent with her aunt, Mrs. D. L. Bartges.

—Esq. Rishel, of Gregg, made us a pleasant call. He advertises, in another column, a pleasant home near Potter's Mills, at private sale.

—Our merchant, Simon Harper, had a siege of poisoning which started on his wrist, spreading over his face and other parts of his body.

—Mrs. W. W. Bayard departed Monday afternoon for her home in Baltimore; she has been spending the past two weeks with her father, Mr. M. Strohm, at Centre Hill.

—J. M. Reish, of near Centre Hill, was a pleasant caller and put his label forward a couple of pegs. He has his corn husked and his well never failed him during this dry spell.

—Post-master Close, of Oak Hall, honored our sanctum with a call and a pleasant half hour's chat. He was very badly wounded in the late war and votes the Democratic ticket right along. Republicans predicted he will lose under Cleveland his $4 pension—he did too, Cleveland now gives him $12.

—G. L. Smetzler, of near Potter's bank, was a pleasant caller. He tells us his premises are supplied with water from two springs which dried up during the present drought; he went to work and dug out the mouth of the springs and was fortunate to get as copious a flow of water as the springs supplied at any time before. Other farmers, whose springs have failed, might do well by trying the same experiment.

—Although all lines of clothing and dry goods have advanced in prices, the customers of Lyon & Co., Bellefonte never are aware of the fact. In the face of the advance a big reduction has been made in dry goods, clothing and shoes. See their price list on page five.

The Only One To Stand the Test.

Rev. William Copp, whose father was a physician for over fifty years, in New Jersey, and who himself spent many years preparing for the practice of medicine, but subsequently entered the ministry of the M. E. Church, writes: "I am glad to testify that I have had analyzed all the sarsaparilla preparations known in the trade, but AYER'S is the only one of them that I could recommend as a blood-purifier. I have given away hundreds of bottles of it, as I consider it the safest as well as the best to be had."—Wm. Copp, Pastor M. E. Church, Jackson, Minn.
