-Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lawyer, of near this place, left Wednesday, 6, for Philadelphia, to visit their daughter, THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEG Mrs. Clem Hemphill ; we bespeak for them an enjoyable time.

-Cal. Gfrerer, of near Axeman, and one of the handsome young men of that vicinity, was a pleasant caller at this office, accompanied by Miss Owens, one of the pretty and esteemed young ladies of the same vicinity.

-Miss Bessie Harter, a charming young lady of Oceola, Ohio, who has been making an extended visit to relatives in this county and state, is at present visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred. Kurtz, in this place.

-George B. Haines and Thomas E. Royer and their wives, from Miles twp., have returned from a ten weeks' trip to Illinois, Iowa and Kansas, and report having had a very pleasant time.

-C. J. Finkle, of Gregg twp., favored our sanctum with a call. He is special agent for the De Laval "Baby" Cream Separators, the best out in that line and no one having a cow should be without it, farmers especially.

-Thos. J. Shafer, of Madisonburg, favored us with a call, on his way to Dakota, Ill., which will be his future home, and where he will engage in the stock business with his uncle, Benjamin Smeltzer. Success to you, Thomas, but sorry to see you leave.

-Michael Confer, of the Seven mountains, and his youngest son who tells us he is "bigger than any of the rest," gave us a call. He tells us he saw Henry Fry pass his place going up the mountain, on the afternoon of 22 Oct., and thinks he got on the pike from a by-road; that along with Fry was John Wilkirson's dog. The dog remained with Fry's body until the evening of next day when he returned home. The load of buckshot that tore the heart of the old man, passed out thro his back ; beside him laid a butcher knife as if to be used in case the shot failed in doing its work.
