SPRING MILLS.

Interesting Items from Our Neighboring Town.

Business in our town has been quite lively for some time: our merchants report trade with them as being im- tablished house. mensely active, of course they say it requires a little engineering and sharp figuring to keep apples, potatoes, meats and poultry moving, butter and eggs sell themselves, but the other products require a little skill to move, but move they must. Tis true the margin is hardly as large as a barn door, but still it exceeds nothing all to pieces. Talk ope to a potato dealer about his profits, his face will suddenly become very long. But our storekeepers keep themselves pretty well posted, they read the newspapers and consequently not only strike while the iron is hot, but more

Mr. John B. Heckman has just com-pleted a very fine residence, situated at the south-west corner of the roads leading to the railroad station and the creek road. The dwelling is large and handsomely fitted up with all the modern improvements, and the entire building painted a pure white presenting a very beautiful appearance. It is certainly a very pronounced improve-ment to the neighborhood and its attractive and imposing appearance will no doubt induce others to "brush up" their surrounding properties to avoid being cast too much in the "shade."

Mr. C. P. Long has a petition for a new public road from what we call the Granger hall up to the railroad station. This road in fact will be a con-tinuation of the road from Georges Valley and the creek from Penn Hall. At present every person residing south of the railroad or having business in that section of the town are obliged to travel a long circuitous route to and from the station, but with this road open instead of going half way to Farmers Mills as we do now to reach it; we will have a perfectly level and straight thoroughfare direct to the station; the petition is universallay signed there being no opposition.

Sophia Homan of Williamsport, is at present visiting her old acquaintances and friends in this vicinity.

A number of our crack shots have been out hunting this fall, but have met with little success so far.

Kate Armbruster, of Bellefonte, paid her parents a few days visit last week. New goods every day, quick sales and small profits is the way our genial merchant does business; come and see and you will be convinced of the fact.

The repairs done at the Union church on Friday last made quite an improvement on the ground and no one need stay away from church now on account of not having a good hitching post to tie his horse, for there is ample accommodation for all; but strange it is indeed that some men never have time to help repair or do anything in regard to repairing about the church, and then always want to be at the head of everything.

John H. Hagan, who has for some time been suffering from a very sore hand is at present slowly improving. John Stover and wife of the east end of the valley, spent a few days with his brother at this place.

Miss Leah Reifsnyder of Millheim, is at present visiting her aged mother and sister, Mrs. Geo. Armbrust.

Geo. Homan and Mr. Foreman, of Aaronsburg have been dehorning catthe in this vicinity for the past week. J. B. Fisher's roller mill is to be re-modeled in the near future; the old machinery will be removed and all the latest improved put in. Mr. Wolf, of Chambersburg is the contractor for the same.
