Never again will there be another Special Offer made on this great Standard Dictionary and Encyclopædia of the World's Knowledge. We fully intended to advance the price on October 31st, but thousands of people in all walks of life have requested an extension of time until "Christmas. After careful consideration, we have decided to continue our Special Offer until the above date. This is done simply and only as a means of advertising this wonderful storehouse of information. We do not expect to make money by this offer, as the very low price on extremely liberal terms little more than pays for paper, printing and binding; but the tremendous amount of talk created will help to advertise this most modern and up-to-date home reference library. No advertisement can do the work justice; it is its own most eloquent advocate. Recently adopted by the schools of St. Louis, Mo., and many other cities, in preference to all other dictionaries and encyclopædias. It is equal to a college education.

FOR A CHRISTMAS CIFT NOTHING COULD BE BETTER.

Encyclopædic Dictionary

Dr. Rob't. Hunter, A.M., F.G.S., Profs. Huxley, Morris, Herrtage, Estoclet, Williams, etc.,

The above is an exact reproduction of THE ENCYCLOPEDIC DICTIONARY representatives bur massive volumes in a handsome case of polished wood. Weight about 40 lbs. Over $750,000 Required to Produce This Magnificent Self-Educator.

It is a Complete Dictionary of the English language. Every word is exhaustively treated as to its origin, history, development, etymology, pronunciation and various meanings.

It is a Thorough Encyclopædia of anatomy, botany, chemistry, zoology, geology, art, music, agriculture, physics, philosophy, mechanics, history, mythology, biblical knowledge, etc.

It is a Superb Library Book, substantially bound, printed from new plates, in large, clear type, on heavy white paper, and illustrated with thousands of new pictures made especially for this work.

It is better than all other dictionaries, because the latest edition of Worcester contains but 116,000 words and 2,126 pages; the latest Webster contains but 140,000 words and 2,011 pages; the Standard contains but a little over 220,000 words and 2,315 pages, and even The Century contains but 255,000 words, and sells for 700 to $100. Encyclopædias of various kinds sell for $50$ to $200. This great ENCYCLOP EDIC DICTIONARY, containing 5,357 pages, over 2,000 illustrations, bound in four handsome volumes, has over 250,000 words, 50,000 encyclopædias subjects, and is the accepted authority of the English language.

Nine Opinions-Thousands More Equally Good.

The Encyclopedic Dictionaries ordered for use in the public schools are giving excellent satisfaction. After an exhaustive examination of all the leading dictionaries, yours was selected in preference to any other. As an unabridged dictionary, your work leaves nothing to be desired; and the profusion of encyclopedic matter, terse, yet comprehensive, covering thousands of important topics, saves many a long search through the more cumbersome encyclopedias.—Elmer E. Lacey, Chairman Course of Study Com., St. Louis Board of Education.

I have Webster, Worcester, and the Century, and for Encyclopedias I have the Britannica and Appleton w. The Encyclopedic Dictionary of knowledge and serves the purposes of an encyclopedia as well as a dictionary. Send five more sets.—Rev. George Patterson, D. D., New Glasgow, Nova Scotia.

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. Y. Schenck, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl, two years of age was of Dr. W. W. Woods, late of Stanton, threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's ter" the stray heifer at From's near Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.
