CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. Dec 12.

SENATOR CAMERON has dismissed the question as to his return to the United States senate at the expiration of his term two years hence by an unequivocal declaration that he will not be a candidate. In a letter to Senator McCarrell, the Senator says he has not been, is not now and will not be a candidate for re-election. This announcement on the part of Senator Cameron is no surprise to those in his confidence. At a conference at his home after his re-election in 1885 Mr. Cameron said to a party of friends who had contributed largely to his success in that exciting contest that his only ambition was to serve in the United States senate as long as his distinguished father, Gen. Simon Cameron.—Harrisburg Patriot.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, notes the Philadelphia Record, has put into a very few words the utter absurdity of the attempt to maintain a reserve fund of gold under existing conditions.

The government has paid in gold more than nine-tenths of its United States notes and still owes them all. It has paid in gold about one-half of its notes given for silver purchases without extinguishing by such payment one dollar of these notes.

The duty of congress, the Record adds, is plain; and it is greatly to be hoped that a sufficient number of the Republican members will listen to reason to permit legislation along the line indicated by the president.

SOME ambitious fellows who want the earth have the delusion that a newspaper should be edited and printed entirely to laud them and set forth their claims to office free, gratis, for nothing spending a whole campaign, yea a whole year, writing columns telling the public what great men they are, and not even say "thank you." An editor's time and labor is money, just the same as the lawyer's, the doctor's, the merchant's, the artisan's and the common laborer, and those would-be great ones who like to shine before the public, while someone else pays for the paper, ink, writing and type-setting, are the smallest in a patch of dwarf potatoes with souls infinitely smaller.

THE statesmen yearning for Cameron's seat in the U. S. senate can now breathe easier—the great and mighty senator from Pennsylvania, in a letter written the other day, announces that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for re-election. Don out of the way there will now be a lively foot-ball game to step into Cameron's shoes among the Wanamakers, Hastinges, Smiths, Dalzells, Magees, and a score of other Republican lights who are ambitious to glimmer in the senate. The next senator will be a Quay man—even if it must be Dick Quay.

THE Republicans finding themselves in power in congress, say they will not attempt to enact any legislation to improve the condition of the country. That means that things have moved along so prosperously under the Cleveland administration that they are at their wits' end how to do better. Of course then, the calamity howl was a fraud.

Tom Reed in taking the speaker's chair said he had no policy to announce, and he was for moving slowly to see what the future would develop, before disturbing what is well enough.

Well, the Democrats do not need any better endorsement and the sum of it all is, the Republicans carried last fall's election on a purely false alarm.

CURRENCY AND FINANCE.

There are probably very few men in Congress who are not satisfied in their own minds that if they should be given a free hand in regulating the finances of the country they could bring order out of confusion, says the Patriot. If it could be possible to select the few who fully appreciate the difficulties to be surmounted they should be the persons to be intrusted with the task of formulating proper legislation. But the fools rush in, and they will not be dissuaded. Already three or four wild propositions have been laid before the two Houses which will never get further than a reference to the Finance committees.

There should be a saving remnant of responsible and conservative men in Congress who, taking note of the seriousness of our financial condition, should be able to agree upon some practical and practicable means of relief. The President has pointed the way, and we are persuaded, the right way; but the situation admits of a variety of remedies which would give present relief, even though they should not reach to permanent cure. Delay is dangerous; but not so dangerous as would be any further widening of the gulf between promise and pay day. The treasury has played long enough the game of resumption that does not resume. The country is sick of it.

Maj. Fisher Quite Ill.

We regret to learn that Maj. J. P. Fisher, Penn Hall's leading citizen and business man, is seriously ill of soft gangrene of the foot, which set in some ten days ago, and is spreading to his leg. Hope he may survive it.

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. Y. Schenck, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl, two years of age was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for
