

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Mr. George Rearick of Spring Mills, was a pleasant caller at this office on Wednesday.

—Miss Anna Mingle is spending a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yearick, at Aaronsburg.

—Mrs. J. D. Murray has been confined to the house the past week suffering from a severe bruise on her foot.

—Miss Winnie Wolf, one of Rebersburg's pleasant young ladies, is visiting at her uncle Harry Kremer's in this place.

—W. F. Rearick, of Gregg, gave us a call. He left for Washington this week, thence goes to Atlanta to take in the Exposition.

—George Weaver, of Rebersburg, visited at Simon Harper's this week. He can relate many interesting incidents from away back.

—Miss Emma Aikens, of Bellefonte and Miss Bennet, of Washington, D. C., were entertained at the home of Mr. Isaac Smith over Sunday.

—Miss Laura Runkel, one of our vivacious young ladies, left on a prolonged visit to friends in Northumberland and Middleburg. We miss her.

—Wm. Grossman, of Tusseyville, was a pleasant caller, and added his name to our list. James Horner was with him and they report nothing new over there.

—Mr. Joseph Gilliland, of New Bloomfield, Pa., is spending several days in this part of the valley, and is in the mountain with a hunting party trying his luck in bringing down the deer.

—Mr. Hiram Grove, who has been a successful school teacher in this county for a number of years, resigned his position at Centre Hill this week and accepted a better and more lucrative one in the Reform School at Morgantown in Washington county. Mr. Grove will disappoint all who know him if he should fail of eminent success. He is the son of John Grove of Gregg township, well-known to most of our readers.

—Mr. E. M. Huyett the well known lumberman is about to bid farewell to this town as a place of residence and to this locality as a scene of active business operations. Mr. Huyett came to this place about ten years ago during which time he has proven himself a worthy, intelligent citizen and a more than ordinarily successful business man. Many thousands of feet of lumber have been turned from his several lumber jobs and consequently many thousand dollars have been disseminated among the laboring classes. We bespeak for Mr. Huyett even greater success in his new field and we know we indicate the sentiments of the entire community in sincerely regretting his departure. He will begin operations on an extensive tract in Franklin county where he will move his family as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

COBURN.

Christmas Entertainments to be held by the Sunday Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stitzer, of Rebersburg, were visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. E. Cooney, at this place on Sunday last.

Mrs. William Walker, of Rebersburg spent a few days last week visiting friends at this place.

J. E. Cooney is housed up at present with an attack of the quincy.

Frank Hackenberg has gone to Sugar Valley with Harter & Co. and will do their cooking in their lumber camp. Frank is an experienced cook and knows how to prepare a meal so it is palatable.

Jacob H. Fryer on Monday while attempting to couple cars for one of the brakemen got one of his hands between the bumpers and squeezed pretty badly.

Next week our schools will be closed and the teachers will be given a week's vacation to attend county institute at Bellefonte.

Mr. Luther Guisewite received a new boiler for his creamery on Saturday and has torn out the old ones and will replace them with the new one.

Jacob Kerstetter killed the largest hogs in this section on last Friday; the combined weight of the three being 1427 pounds.

Mr. Ed. Zimmerman, of Millheim, has rented the store room opposite the depot and has started a confectionary store in it.

Mr. A. B. Meyer has been engaged by Luther Guisewite to do the clerical work in his creamery.

John Stonebraker spent Sunday with his family; he says Milroy is booming.

J. W. Kerstetter is the happiest man within the radius of seven counties, all because the stranger who came to his house is a bouncing boy; he now fills the office of county chairman with more dignity than before.

The Lutheran and Reformed Sunday schools of this place are making elaborate preparations for their Christmas entertainments, which will be held on the evenings of the 21st and 22nd respectively. The former Sunday school will have a Cantata entitled "Santa Claus Vision"; the latter will have a song service the title of which we have not yet been able to learn.

YOUR LAST CHANCE!

Positively Limited to December 24th.

Never again will there be another Special Offer made on this great Standard Dictionary and Encyclopedia of the World's Knowledge. We fully intended to advance the price on October 1st, but thousands of people in all walks of life have requested an extension of the time. After careful consideration, we have decided to continue our Special Offer until the above date. This is done simply and only as a means of advertising this wonderful storehouse of information. We do not intend to make money by this offer, as the very low price on extremely limited quantities of paper, printing and binding; but the tremendous amount of talk created will help to advertise this most modern and up-to-date home reference library. No advertisement can do the work for it; it is its own most eloquent advocate. Recently adopted by the schools of St. Louis, Mo., and many other cities in preference to all other dictionaries and encyclopedias. It is equal to a college education.

FOR A CHRISTMAS GIFT NOTHING COULD BE BETTER! Your pastor, teacher, friend, parents, or your children will appreciate this beyond expression. It will last a life time and always give satisfaction. No business or professional man, teacher, student, mechanic, housewife or any other person who wishes to keep abreast of the times, or who is interested in the laudable enterprise of self-education, can afford to allow this rare opportunity to pass without careful investigation. Understand, this great work embodies all the features of a complete Dictionary and a thorough Encyclopedia. The new and entirely up-to-the-times is now offered all readers of this paper at the rate of 7c. per day, in monthly payments of $2.00 each, until the sum of $16.00 is paid. This is but little more than one-third the regular price. This greatest of all Dictionaries and Encyclopedias was edited by such world-renowned scholars as Dr. Rob't. Hunter, A.M., F.G.S., F.R.S., Huxley, Morris, Herriage, Estoclet, Williams, etc., assisted by scores of other specialists in various branches of knowledge.

The above is an exact reproduction of THE ENCYCLOPAEDIC DICTIONARY. Four massive volumes in a handsome case of polished wood. Weight about 40 lbs.

Over $750,000 Required to Produce This Magnificent Self-Educator. It is a Complete Dictionary of the English Language. Every word is exhaustively treated as to its origin, history, development, etymology, pronunciation and various meanings. It is a Thorough Encyclopedia of anatomy, botany, chemistry, zoology, geology, art, music, agriculture, physics, philosophy, mechanics, history, mythology, biblical knowledge, etc. It is a Superb Library Book, substantially bound, printed from new plates in large, clear type, on heavy white paper, and illustrated with thousands of new pictures made especially for this work. It is better than all other dictionaries, because the latest edition of Worcester contains but 114,000 words and 2,125 pages; the latest Webster contains but 16,000 words and 2,611 pages; the standard Century but a little over 290,000 words and 2,318 pages, and even the Century contains but 225,000 words, and sells for $90 to $100. Encyclopedias of various kinds are for sale for $1.00. This great ENCYCLOPAEDIC DICTIONARY, containing 5,357 pages, over 2,000 illustrations, bound in four handsome volumes, has over 200,000 words, 50,000 encyclopaedic subjects, and is the accepted authority of the English language.

Nine Opinions—Thousands More Equally Good.

The Encyclopaedic Dictionary ordered for use in the public schools are giving excellent satisfaction. After an exhaustive examination of all the leading dictionaries, yours was selected in preference to any other. A distinguished dictionary, your work leaves nothing to be desired; and the profusion of encyclopaedic matter, terse, yet comprehensive, covering thousands of important topics, saves many a long search through the more cumbersome encyclopedias.—Elihu K. Lacey, Chairman, Board of Study Com., St. Louis Board of Education. I have Webster, Worcester, and the Century; and for Encyclopaedia I have the Britannica and Appleton's. The Encyclopaedic Dictionary is a magnificent substitute for all of them.—J. H. Atwood, Esq., Attorney-at-Law, Leesport, Pa. This dictionary serves the purpose of a complete reference library.—Christian Herald, New York. Books guaranteed as represented or money refunded if returned within ten days.

If you prefer to pay by instalments, send $2 in the same manner, until the sum of $16 is paid.
