Coming and Going .- Visitors in and out of Town.

-Mr. J. E. Hoy, of Philadelphia, spent part of last week in town.

-Aaronsburg's prominent citizen, J. G. Meyer, became ill quite suddenly, Sunday, 8.

-Theo. Steele, contractor, and family, last week moved from Bellefonte to Lewistown.

-Dr. Riter went to Port Matilda last Thursday, on a few days visit.

-Mrs. Sallie Kline left Monday for Tyrone, to attend the funeral of her uncle, Rev. John Barr.

-Miss Grace Smith last week left for Williamsport to spend the holiday season. A pleasant time to her.

---Miss Virna Geiss has been confined to the house for over a week suffering from a severe cold. ---- Dr. John F. Harter, Millheim's gentlemanly dentist and politician was a prominent visitor in Centre Hall Tuesday. ---Miss Elsie Barr returned to her home in Tyrone Saturday after spending two weeks with friends in Centre Hall and vicinity. -James Stewart has returned to Centre Hall, and again occupies his old position in the blacksmith, department at the foundry. Our excellent farmer friend, Jerry Snavely, favored us with a call, and gave his label a forward push just as all honest patrons do. ---Slater McGeehon, who has been spending the past year at the home of home on a visit to his parents. -A. N. Finkle, of Gregg, was a caller and made his label read '96; he reports water keeps getting scarcer in wells, springs and streams. -J. P. Jordan, of Tusseyville, gave us a call, and reports things O. K., over there, only that water is scarce; he wouldn't let '95 pass away without fixing his label to '96. -Jacob Kerstetter, one of Penn township's Jacksonian Democrats and grangers, spent an hour in pleasant chat in our sanctum, and reports scarcity of water one of the troubles down that way. -John Mersinger, of Tusseyville, gave us a call, Saturday, and reported mercury 9 deg. below 0 over there that morning. Scarcity of water is one of their troubles, streams low and freezing solid.

-Our sanctum was cheered by a call from two of Tusseyville's handsome young ladies, Misses Blanche Houseman and Mary Moyer, who remained for a half hour's pleasant chat. Call again, ladies.

-H. M. Cain, of Georges valley, and one of its most useful citizens, gave our sanctum a call; he reports water scarce in that section, and that arrangements have been perfected to hold a musical convention in the Lutheran church, beginning Dec. 30.

-On Tuesday Thomas Sankey arrived here from Freeport, Ill., on a visit to his uncle, Mr. James Runkle, east of town. Tom has been located in the west several years, and has grown considerably stouter since he left. He expects to return soon to Freeport.

Letter from Illinois.

Our old friend, Elias Klingler, who left Haines township many years ago, for Illinois where he has prospered, writes us from Manhatten, Dec. 14:

"Myself and family are well. We are enjoying fine winter weather; we had snow early this fall and cold weather set in early continuing steadily with no prospect of any more soft

"The past season has been exceptionally dry; streams that were never known to be dry, are so now.

"The hay crop was nearly a failure and farmers had to cut up corn to get rough feed for their stock. Hay has sold as high as $15 to $16 per ton; some has been shipped from the west but the quality is poor.

"The oats is not half a crop, going only about 20 bushels to the acre, and the price for same is from 15 to 16 cts. per bushel. The corn crop was very good, better than for years, but the price is low, only 22 cents per bushel; the yield is all the way from 55 to 100 bushels shelled corn to the acre.

"Potatoes were a fair crop and are selling for 30 to 40 cents per bushel.

"Land is getting higher in price, and brings all the way from $80 to $100 per acre, according to location, and considerable changes hands at these prices. All our farm lands are being improved by tilling and building new houses and barns.

"Wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, I am as ever, Yours truly, ELIAS KLINGLER." (According to Mr. Klingler's letter western people must come back to Pennsylvania for cheap lands and better prices for products. Farm lands here run from $30 to $60 per acre. The high price of land in the west will ultimately tend to raise the price of land here.—ED.)

THE STERLING REMEDY CO..

MONTREAL, CAN.

Positively Limited to December 24th.

Never again will there be another Special Offer made on this great Standard Dictionary and Encyclopædia of the World's Knowledge. We fully intended to advance the price on October 3ist, but thousands of people in all walks of life have requested an extension of time until Christmas. After careful consideration, we have decided to continue our Special Offer until the above date. This is done simply and only as a means of advertising this wonderful storehouse of information. We do not expect to make money by this offer, as the very low price on extremely liberal terms little more than pays for paper, printing and binding; but the tremendous amount of talk created will help to advertise his most modern and up-to-date home reference library. No advertisement can do the work justice; it is its own most eloquent advocate. Recently adopted by the schools of St. Louis, Mo., and many other cities, in preference to all other dictionaries and encyclopædias. It is equal to a college education. his grand-parents, at Allegheny, is

FOR A CHRISTMAS CIFT NOTHING COULD BE BETTER. Your pastor, teacher, friend, parents, or your children will appreciate this great work beyo sion. It will last a life time and always give satisfaction. No business or professional man, to dent, mechanic, housewife or any other person who wishes to keep abreast of the times, or will ested in the laudable enterprise of self-education, can afford to allow this rare opportunity to paragraph investigation. Understand, this great work embodies all the features of a complete Dict.

It is a Complete Dictionary of the English language. Every word is exhaustively treated as to so rigin, history, development, etymology, pronunciation and various meanings.

It is a Thorough Encyclopædia of anatomy, botany, chemistry, zoology, geology, art, music, griculture, physics, philosophy, mechanics, history, mythology, biblical knowledge, etc.

It is a Superb Library Book, substantially bound, printed from new plates, in large, clear type, n heavy white paper, and illustrated with thousands of new pictures made especially for this work.

It is better than all other dictionaries, because the latest edition of Worcester contains but 116,000 ords and 2,125 pages; the latest Webster contains but 140,000 words and 2,215 pages; the latest Webster contains but 140,000 words and 2,011 pages; the Standard contains to a little over 230,000 words and 2,315 pages, and even The Century contains but 225,000 words, and seils for to $100. Encyclopædias of various kinds seil for $50 to $200. This great ENCYCLOP ÆDIC DIC.

IONARY, containing 5,257 pages, over 3,000 illustrations, bound in four handsome volumes, has over 50,000 words, 50,000 encyclopædic subjects, and is the accepted authority of the English language.

Nine Opinions-Thousands More Equally Good.

The Encyclopædic Dictionaries ordered for use in the public schools are giving excellent satisfaction. After an exhaustive examination of all the leading dictionaries, yours was selected in preference to any other. As an unabridged dictionary, your work leaves nothing to be desired; and the profusion of encyclopædic matter, terse, yet comprehensive covering thousands of important topics, saves many a long search through the more cumbersome encyclopædics.—Elmer E. Lacey, Chairman Course of Study Com., St. Louis Board of Education.
