ANNOUNCEMENT.

SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce that Jacob L. Runkle, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

The Atlanta exposition is ended and a squaring of accounts shows a deficit.

The fellows who are just now offering their services to fight England will be found traveling for their health should war be declared, which is not likely.

THANKS to a large number of our exchanges for complimentary notices of the REPORTER upon its entering its 69 year.

MATTERS look bright for the Cuban patriots. The insurgents are pressing close upon Havana, and within a short time the city will doubtless fall into the hands of the victorious insurgents.

THE State Treasurer, as announced from Harrisburg, will be compelled to borrow nearly $3,000,000 from the '96 account to square up accounts for the past year.

The utterly useless and high salaried new offices veyeped Economic Zoology, and a score of others, are draining the treasury and piling up "the farmers' taxes."

SENATOR Teller, the leading Colorado champion of bad money, was ignominiously defeated in his unmanly attack upon the integrity and capacity of Secretary Carlisle on Friday last.

A COWARDLY CONGRESS.

The last Congress refused to authorize the issue of bonds payable in gold, and that the refusal cost the people of the country, in a single loan the President was compelled to make, over $16,000,000 in interests that could have been saved by saying honestly how the bonds would be paid.

It is evident that the President cannot depend upon Congress to preserve the credit of the nation.

With a President armed with ample power to maintain public and private credit, and sufficiently courageous to exercise it.—Philadelphia Times.

THE WEATHER.

Table with columns: Temperature, Highest, Lowest, Rain and Snow Fall. Data for Jan. 1-8.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week:

- James A. Sankey, of Potzers Mills, and M. Gertrude C. Osman, of State College. Francis Poorman, of Curtin township, and Martha Rodgers, of Walker twp. Herman S. MacMinn, of Du Bois, and Cora H. Fisher, of Unionville. N. N. Hartwick and Elizabeth Thomas of State College.

Scarcity of Houses.

For the next year Centre Hall will have a large increase in population over any other year. There will not be one vacant dwelling house, and not enough to supply the demand.

Fits South.

Mr. Wash. Thorp, who was farming near Lemont the last year, has decided to change his location and will try his luck with the soil of old Virginia.

For Making Handles.

Part of the large new building erected by Mr. Colyer at the station will be used by a party from Howard for the manufacture of handles.

Potting in New Machinery.

W. W. Boob, the manufacturer of wheels, put in a new machine this week, and is adding to his plant right along.

Private Sale of Fine Dwelling House.

The fine new dwelling house of Mr. C. W. Luse, south of the station, will be sold at private sale.

Great Storm.

From night of 30 ult. to 4 inst., a fierce storm raged in this county with icy-cold temperature, and playing hob with farm fences.

At Sheriff Sale Prices.

All goods formerly in the Philadelphia Branch store, clothing to suit men and boys of all ages and sizes, at sacrifice prices, a big supply and must be sold.

THE OLDEST AND THE BEST

Cough-cure, the most prompt and effective remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Cherry Pectoral cannot be equalled. E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dis. Sec. of the American Baptist Publishing Society, Petersburg, Va., endorses it, as a cure for violent colds, bronchitis, etc.

AARONSBURG.

Miss Anna Stambach and Mr. Leitzell United in Marriage.

The marriage of Miss Anna Stambach to Mr. Leitzell, of Snyder county on Christmas day, was duly celebrated by the boys in the evening with a rousing calathumpian serenade.

J. E. Lenker and Co., have concluded to close out and quit the mercantile business in this place on the tenth of March.

James L. Ettinger has taken an agency for the sale of baking powder and gives one of three very nice premiums with each half pound sold.

John H. Dutwiler bought from a breeder in Vermont a very fine trio of Rose Comb, Black Minorca fowls. They have the reputation of being the champion layers and a dandy all round fowl.

Frank Jordan the pauper, who is quartered with George M. Homan, and who runs around every night, fell on New Year's eve and dislocated his shoulder.

Persons from our town attending the convention at Boalsburg this week are Miss Sallie M. Weaver and Miss Minnie Crommiller, Messrs. Allison Stover and Thos. P. Weaver.

The Citizen's band assisted Israel Weaver in filling his ice house and during the coming summer they have the privilege of using all the ice they may need in holding ice cream festivals.

LINDEN HALL.

Interesting Items Gathered by Our Correspondent.

Miss Martha Tressler of Martha Furnace, paid a visit to her many friends, brothers and sisters of this town and vicinity.

Sometime ago the complaint was rain, now it is snow. Everybody is wishing for sleighing, especially the young people.

Mr. Gregory the big sheep dealer from Stone valley was through here last week looking up his interest in sheep.

This is leap year; now girls is your chance as this is the last leap year for eight years.

Miss Blanche Tressler who has been dangerously ill for the last week or two is some better at the present writing.

Our farmers have been very busy the last few days taking out ice from the Linden Hall dam and storing it away for the long hot summer months.

Miss Cora Durst spent her holidays among friends and relatives in Altoona, and we have no doubt she made many new friends while staying in the Mountain City.

For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief.

For a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Wm. Peeler, Spring Mills; J. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, and R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.

Clothing at Sacrifice Prices.

A full supply of men's and boys' clothing at sacrifice prices, on account of sheriff's sale, at the old Philadelphia Branch. Never a chance like it for bargains in or out of Bellefonte, like at the old Lewins stand.
