

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of town.

—Win Love, of Tusseyville, was a caller at this office Wednesday.

—Our old friend and acquaintance, Wm. K. Foster, of Mifflinburg, gave our sanctum a call.

—W. O. Rearick and Frank Crawford spent Sunday with Franks father-in-law, at Lamar.

—Dr. Gentzel, veterinary surgeon, and Mr. D. M. Gentzel, both of Spring Mills, were in town Tuesday.

—Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot returned home last week, after having spent a month with friends in Philadelphia.

—Mrs. J. D. Murray is still confined to the house, nursing a sore foot, caused by a bruise she sustained about two months ago.

—W. T. Cooney, one of Linden Hall's good Democrats, was a pleasant caller; he reports little sickness up that way.

—Undertaker Rossman, of Tusseyville showed his pleasant face in our sanctum but had nothing new to report from that section.

—Tillman Klinfelter, of Tusseyville, called to pay his respects as well as pay dues on Reporter, going away happy and leaving us ditto.

—Al. Stump, one of Earlstown's industrious farmers gave the Reporter a pleasant call and had his label put among the happy '96s.

—Mr. A. J. Hazel, one of Madisonburg's prominent and efficient school teachers, was a guest at the home of Mr. Isaac Smith Saturday and Sunday.

—Mr. John Kimport, of Harris, accompanied by Chas. From, favored the Reporter with a call. Mr. Kimport is a good Democrat, and a candidate for treasurer.

—Miss Laura Runkle has returned from a month's stay at her sister's in Northumberland, Mrs. Dr. Allison, and we were pleased to have Laura smile in on us.

—Mr. George Reiber, of Colyer, was in town yesterday, and ordered bills for sale of his farm stock on March 13. He will quit farming and dispose of his stock.

—Misses Gertrude Flory and Annie Stump are attending the musical convention at Aaronsburg this week, after which they will spend a week visiting among friends at Woodward.

—Jolly Frank Bowersox, of Rock Springs, honored the Reporter with a call. Frank is one of the active Democrats of that section and announces himself as a candidate for treasurer.

—Our old farmer friend, James Runkle, of Tusseyville, who never gets into ill humor, gave our sanctum a business call, and joined the glorious '96ers in his label, and reports health good over that way.

—J. H. Moyer, from near Redmill, was a caller, and, like all rising young men, had his name grace the Reporter's list backed up with the jinglers to '97. Go and do like John.

—John B. Heckman, one of Gregg township's prominent citizens and active Democrats, favored the Reporter with a call, and made himself safe in his label to '97 as a new subscriber, to grace our list.

—J. C. Brown, one of the leading farmers from near Tusseyville, was a pleasant caller and put his label out close up to '97; he was one of the few fortunates who had plenty of water during the late dry spell.

—John Corman, of Nittany, gave the Reporter a call, and put his label out into '96. John is an old patron of this paper, and a native of Haines tp. He is doing some farming now and as a good shoemaker sticks to his last too.

—Mr. Henry Roush, one of Penn Hall's good and substantial citizens, was in town yesterday. Accompanied by jolly Perry Breon he visited the Reporter's office, and made us forget all the cares and worries of life for a short time.

—J. G. Ramey, a prominent farmer of near Pleasant Gap, was a caller at these headquarters, and reports the general health good over that way.

—Nathaniel Boob, 11 years back a farmer near this place, but now of Haines tp., gave us a call in company with his step-son, John Hosterman. Mr. Boob next spring will move to Union county where he purchased the Hoofnagle farm, 130 acres, west of Mifflinburg, and will devote himself to raising peaches and other fruit, and give less attention to grain, thinking fruit will pay better. We trust his experiment will turn out profitable.
