ANNOUNCEMENT.

SHERIFF.

We are authorized to announce that Jacob L. Rankle, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for the office of Sheriff subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

RECORDER.

We are authorized to announce that A. R. Alexander, of Penn township, will be a candidate for the office of Recorder, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

We are authorized to announce that Frank Foreman, of Centre Hall borough, will be a candidate for the office of Recorder, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

TREASURER.

We are authorized to announce that Franklin Bowersox, of Ferguson, West precinct, will be a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

COMMISSIONER.

We are authorized to announce that Daniel Heckman, of Bennertownship, will be a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of this state will instruct their delegates in favor of Robert E. Pattison for President.

The Mercer county court has decided that constables are entitled to only $2 for attending a general election. They claimed $4.

It is mooted that Cameron may be elected to be his own successor after all, by a little game that Quay is shuffling.

Let all districts be concerned about electing good men to the local offices at the election in a few days. It is there where your taxes are made.

In Union county the Republicans are having a red-hot time over the nomination of a candidate for Assembly—Focht out for a third term and Israel Ruhl for a first term; primaries on 15th.

ELECT good men to your local offices, next week. Townships and boroughs can not be too careful in this regard. All their taxes come from school, poor and road boards. Bad management in these make taxes high, while good management will make them low.

The Snyder and Union county papers announce that candidates wanting the use of their newspapers to advance their claims must pay for such services according to rates. Why not? It is a rule all over the state, and it is only a penurious candidate that will refuse.

If Hon. W. A. Stone is to be the next Republican candidate for governor, and his chances are as good as anybody's, it is no wonder Hon. Walter Lyon is pressing Senator Quay to support Hastings as Cameron's successor. A year in the chair of state at Harrisburg would be a most ornamental cap-sheaf to the career of the Northside statesman, thinks the Pittsburg Post.

As the REPORTER asserted several weeks ago, the auditors' report on the county finances is a most gratifying one for the tax-payers of this county, with a large balance in their favor. It shows praiseworthy management by the County Commissioners, and that they acted in the best interest of the people. The board may well feel proud of its financial management, its doings have been those of faithful servants.

The Republicans in the senate have made a dicker with the Populists to share the senate offices. The former always expressed disgust with the latter, but have at last taken to hugging 'em, which the Democrats never stooped to. The Republicans seem to be pushed to dicker with anything to help them in the next presidential election, which the Democrats intend to enter with clean hands for sound money and in favor of having 50 cents worth of silver to count 50 cents.

The great issue in this year's presidential campaign will not be the tariff since the good workings of the Democratic tariff and the prosperity it has brought to our industries have settled that; but the question will be, Shall 50 cents in silver be equal to 100 cents in gold. The Republicans are wavering—having professed to favor sound money they are weakening on it to catch the silvered Populists by a straddle.

The Republicans will have ten or eleven candidates to be voted for President in the St. Louis convention. These candidates will, of course, include first, Morton, of New York, Reed of Maine, Allison, of Iowa, and McKinley, of Ohio. These are readily admitted to be the Big Four as far as candidates are concerned. But the Washington pilgrims have ascertained ed positively that the Republicans of Kentucky propose to put in nomination Gov. Bradley, and furthermore that the Republicans of the following states will put in nomination their respective favorite sons as follows: Senator Davis of Minnesota, Senator Culm, of Illinois, ex-Senator John C. Spooner, of Wisconsin, ex-Senator Manderson of Nebraska, and Gen. Russell A. Alger of Michigan. To these we add Quay, from our own state.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

The Fight for Constable the All-Absorbing Theme.

As the election draws near the interest in the fight for constable is growing more and more exciting, and many are the conjectures put forth as to the outcome. Reuben Kline, for many years the incumbent of the office, received the nomination at the Democratic caucus, after a hard fight. Once the caucus over Mr. Kline was sure of election to the office, but a citizen's ticket was put in the field, and William Ream was put in the harness against Mr. Kline. The Republicans are now more confident than ever of electing their man, John Albright, and their prospects are not hazy, since the Democrats will be split. The three-cornered fight goes merrily onward. Constable Kline says: "if they lick me, they lick a good man."

W. B. Krape has rented the old stand long occupied by John D. Long, near the bridge and will use it for a confectionery and ice cream parlors. William is also a candidate for political honors, and is sure he was not mistaken in the voice that called him forth as a candidate for sheriff on the Republican ticket.

The death of Mrs. Elias Fetterolf occurred on Tuesday evening at her home in this place. She had been ill for a long time, suffering from a dropsical ailment, and her death was not unexpected or unlooked for. She was quite aged, and was a most estimable lady. She was the mother of six children, one of whom had preceded her in death.

Station agent Musser is a gentlemanly and accommodating official and a more popular man cannot be found in our community.

The creamery is pushing business right along, and is running already on permanent orders.

DIED AT MILROY.

Isaac Oldren, Well-Known Here Expires on Saturday.

Mr. Isaac Oldren, well-known in this community and a few years ago a citizen, died last Saturday afternoon at his home at Milroy, at the age of about seventy-five years. He leaves five children, three sons and two daughters, James, at Hastings, Pa., one of them. He was interred in the cemetery at Milroy.

A Serious Accident.

Charles Harpster, night machinist, met with a serious accident last night which will lay him up for some time. He was carrying a jack on his shoulder in a pit under an engine when he slipped and fell, the jack falling across his breast with sufficient force to render him unconscious. A stretcher was procured and he was taken to the hospital, where Drs. Buckley and Spottswood attended to his injuries. He was reported as resting easy this morning. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.—Missoula, Montana Republican, Feb. 7.

Died at Aaronsburg.

Miss Irene, daughter of Monroe Kreamer, of Aaronsburg, died on Tuesday morning after a long illness of consumption. She was aged about seventeen years. Interment was made Thursday morning in the Lutheran cemetery at Aaronsburg.

GRAVEL CURED.

Philadelphia, Penn., Item.
A healthier, heartier, happier man than John J. Neill, of 2437 North 8th st., Phila., could not be found in a day's search. The fact that he is still alive is a constant wonder to his friends.
In the fall of 1889 he began to suffer indescribable miseries from stone in the bladder. Consulting an eminent physician in Philadelphia, he was told that a surgical operation was necessary. So much did he dread the result for he put off the evil day as long as possible. While in this frame of mind he heard of

Although disheartened on July 1, 1893 he bought a bottle of it, and within a month had experienced beneficial results, and before he had finished the 3d bottle, the gravel was completely dissolved and his sufferings at an end.
Dr. Neill feels that he owes a lasting debt of gratitude to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and for disorders of the bladder and urinary organs, says "it will affect a cure if one be possible."
Favorite Remedy is prescribed with unflinching success for rheumatism, dyspepsia and nerve troubles in which it has cured many that were considered beyond the aid of medicine. All druggists, $1.
