The Revival.

The revival meetings held here the past two weeks by Evangelist Ryland, have been productive of good results, constantly drawing large crowds and making many converts who openly sought instruction and prayer for the pardon of their sins and salvation of their souls.

Never was a series of revival meetings attended by larger crowds, better success, and more earnest interest by the community in general, from far and near, in this valley, than than attended Rev. Ryland's services assisted by the local pastors. His discourses were plain and to the point, and struck all classes of sinners with convincing power-and the result was the accomplishing of much good, which is to be hoped will be lasting, as it is needed here much as elsewhere.

HUNG TO A LINE

BOY:

12-Year Old Son of Josiah Rossman Near Penn Cave, Found Hanging to a Plow Line in the Barn Floor.

A peculiar and distressing accident occurred last Saturday afternoon at the National Hotel, Millheim. home of Josiah C. Rossman, living about one-half mile north-east of Penn miles west of this place, will move to Cave, along the Brush valley road, in near Hublersburg, in the spring, on which his son Grover Cleveland, met the farm of David Harshbarger. with a mysterious death, by being hung from a beam with a plow line.

The accident occurred in Mr. Rossman's barn floor, and what makes it more distressing is that the cause of the accident and death of the boy is only a matter of conjecture, and no turn of mind.

About noon Mr. and Mrs. Rossman went to Spring Mills, leaving at home Miss Carrie, a young lady aged about Abner ran at once to the house and told his sister. She ran out to the barn and pulled down the line which had been wrapped around a beam. Yearick and son John, both of near Centre Hall, were passing at the time, and she called to them for assistance. John Yearick took one of Mr. Rossman's horses out of the stable and went to Spring Mills after Mr. Rossman. The boy was taken into the house and laid upon a lounge. Life was extinct and no effort was made to recussitate him. A jury was impanneled to hold an to inquire into the cause of the death: Isaac Smith, William H. Smith, G. D. Armbruster, William Armbruster, William Rishell, William Hagan, James Scholl, Charles Weaver, Frank Douty, H. W. Rote and John Rishell. They rendered a verdict of accidental

The boy did not commit suicide and no one even suspects it. He had been playing with his little brother and child-like may have fastened the plow Everlastingly at it, line to the beam and placed the loop around his neck to frighten the boy. It is also probable that after he was through with the work he attempted to put up a swing and while placing the line around the beam he fell off the side of the ladder to the floor, probably striking his head against the wagon, rendering him insensible, and his head dropped forward with the loop around his neck, and was suffocated before he regained consciousness. There were no marks upon the body except a red line across the throat where the strap pressed. The accident created quite an excitement in that section, and on Sunday the home was visited by hundreds to offer words of sympathy to the grief, stricken parents. What it Costs.

It costs $26 a day to run a passenger train for ten hours, and $30 a day for a freight train. The difference is partly due to the fourth brakeman necessary on the freight and to the extra coal used. At this rate it costs 83 1-2 cents to allow the holder of a ten cent ticket to alight at a flag station.

The Owner Paid the Damages.

At Sunbury Wednesday, a jury Men's Heavy Merino Underwear, 25c. awarded William Rothermel, of Very low prices made on Fiannels this week. Georgetown $881.26 damages for injuries received by being bitten by William Moyer's white bull dog, two years were badly lacerated.

Farming that Pays.

A. Bechdol, who occupies a farm near Howard of fifty acres, this year sold from it 49,925 pounds of choice timothy hay. He also had six and one-half acres that yielded 858 bushels of corn and three-fourths of an acre that yielded 253 bushels of Irish and Bellefonte, fourteen bushels of sweet potatoes.
