THE DO-NOTHING POLICY.

The congress met on December 2, and has now been in session 85 days, as no holiday recess was taken. Great things were prophesied of the congress. What has it done? or, judging from that, what is it likely to do? Absolutely nothing. It will take precedence as the great do-nothing congress of American history. The total result is a worthless "coin" bond bill passed by the house and killed in the senate by the adoption of a free silver substitute, with a McKinley tariff bill passed by the house, amended by a free silver addition in the senate, and now hanging in a deadlock between the two houses. So far congress has interfered in foreign affairs only to meddle and muddle, its one satisfactory act being an indorsement of President Cleveland's Venezuelan message and provision for a boundary commission as advised by that message.

The Republican managers cannot plead lack of power for their do-nothing policy. They have more than two-thirds of the house, and had sufficient force in the senate to grab, by combination with the Populists, the patronage of that branch. It was adopted as the Reed policy for the session, and to promote his presidential aspiration. It has not helped him in the slightest degree, but on the contrary has disrobed him of his lion's skin, with which he was wont to play to the galleries, and substituted the drapery of the fox. The old Reed—the czar of the billion congress—is a lost quantity the sting of the presidential bee has proved fatal.—Pittsburg Post.

THE funny attitude of this great Republican congress must be painfully annoying to many of the g. o. p. With loud trumpet blasts they proclaimed they would pass a better tariff than the Wilson bill. But they are not doing it because they can't offer a better one, and because they can't agree upon any thing among themselves. Great is Tom Reed's congress!

MR. OLNEY, secretary of state, is the choice of the Massachusetts Democracy for President. Mr. Olney was but little known before he became a member of President Cleveland's cabinet, but he has turned out to be one of the nation's great minds, of whom the Democracy may feel proud, and who would be a strong candidate for President.

FOR INFORMATION.

Mr. Kurtz:—Learning you would be a candidate for Treasurer, please make it known, if so, for the benefit of all. Feb. 19, '96. DEMOCRAT.

About a year ago the intention was formed to be a candidate for Treasurer. Some six months ago it was mentioned to a few friends. About two months ago the fact was mentioned to about a dozen prominent Democrats, and last week "Democrat" will find it published, thus being among the first out.

FRED KURTZ.

Will Move to the Fort.

Porter Odenkirk will move upon the farm at the Old Fort, this spring. The Sankey farm west of town, where he has been located the last couple years will be occupied by Mr. G. W. Glase, of Cataract, Clearfield county, who purchased the property last summer.

MILLHEIM.

Earnest Schreckengast Will Have His Leg Amputated.

Last Thursday and Friday were very cold and windy days; there were plenty of red noses to be seen on the street, and the sick walks in a slippery condition.

Abe Baum, the livery man of Bellefonte was here on last Thursday. He says its—cold.

The sudden death, at Paddy mountain tunnel last week of W. H. Culbertson, a former citizen of this place, superintendent of the John F. Duncan lumber job in Mifflin county, was quite a surprise to his many friends here; he was a man who was well liked by every one who knew him.

The citizens ticket at the last election in this borough did not pan out well. Do you know the cause? Let the echo answer.

Word has been received from the hospital in Philadelphia that Earnest, the son of Adam Schreckengast, of North street, who was taken to the hospital some weeks ago for treatment for hip disease, that it was found necessary to amputate one of his legs, and the boy is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

H. C. Brew, the Standard scale agent of Bellefonte, was here last Saturday on business.

H. C. Hyatt, a well known resident of Lewisburg, shook hands with his friends here last Thursday.

A. J. Gottshall, of Philadelphia, who has lumber interests in Poe valley was in town for a few hours on Saturday last; Philadelphia atmosphere must agree with him by his appearance.

Flags floated on Main street last Saturday, in honor of Washington's birthday.

Skating on the Musser dam is good, the ice from six to eight inches thick; the ice houses in town have all been filled.

Wm. T. Mauck, of Penn street, who has been sick for many months, died on last Saturday evening, aged about 68. He leaves to survive him a widow a son and a daughter to mourn their loss. Funeral services on Tuesday, conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. J. Lohr, of the U. Ev. church; many people in attendance.

John Hardenburg, of this place, a student at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., made a narrow escape of his life last week, in going to a fire in the city of Lancaster. He was in the act of stepping on a live electric wire, when a policeman saw his dangerous position and ran up and jerked him away, thus saving his life.

John A. Rupp of Oak Hall, ex-Register of Centre county, was in town last Monday to inform W. H. Reifsnyder of the death of his daughter Annie, intermarried with Edward Rupp, who went to Philadelphia for treatment, which occurred in that city on last Saturday. The corpse came on the Tuesday morning train and interment took place at Boalsburg. She was about thirty years of age.

Andrew Immel of Watsonstown, a former citizen of this borough, was in town Monday and Tuesday calling on his old acquaintances. He will take charge of a hotel at Pillow, Dauphin county, on or about April 1st.

T. B. McWilliams of McVeytown, after an absence of two years registered at the hotel Musser. His friends were glad to see him; Tommy is a hustler, and is drumming for a wood and willow firm of Philadelphia.

GRAVEL CURED.

Philadelphia, Penn. Item. A healthier, heartier, happier man than John J. Neill, of 2437 North 8th st. Phila., could not be found in a day's search. The fact that he is still alive is a constant wonder to his friends.

In the fall of 1889 he began to suffer indescribable miseries from stone in the bladder. Consulting an eminent physician in Philadelphia, he was told that a surgical operation was necessary. So much did he dread the result for if unsuccessful it meant death, that he put off the evil day as long as possible. While in this frame of mind he heard of

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY

Although disheartened on July 1, 1893 he bought a bottle of it, and within a month had experienced beneficial results, and before he had finished the 3d bottle, the gravel was completely dissolved and his sufferings at an end. Mr. Neill feels that he owes a lasting debt of gratitude to Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and for disorders of the bladder and urinary organs, says "it will affect a cure if one be possible." Favorite Remedy is prescribed with unflinching success for rheumatism, dyspepsia and nerve troubles in which it has cured many that were considered beyond the aid of medicine. All druggists, $1.

Make a Will.

Men often say, "I don't need to make a will; the law makes a will good enough for me." Judge Harlan has recently been writing on this subject, and says: "Suppose a man should die and leave a widow and children, and his estate in reality should amount to $15,000, his widow would only receive $300, absolutely, and the income one-third for life of that estate, with no power to use or bequeath any of the principal, but the children would receive the income of two-thirds of the estate until their maturity, when they would receive their pro rata share of the principal, and at their mother's death would receive the other one-third.

And more unjust—worse still—suppose a man should die and leave a wife and one child, the mother would receive the income of one-third for life and the child two-thirds. Can anyone with sense of justice think this right? I know four widows, friends of mine, who have each one child, and they are each receiving about $200 income, while the child is receiving about $400, simply because the husband and father said: "The law makes a good enough will for me."

A Beautiful Home Wedding.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Long, near Lemont, on February 17, Mr. John A. Stamm, of Oak Hall, and Miss Lucy E. Garner, daughter of Mrs. Long, were united in marriage in the presence of a goodly number of invited friends. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the family, Rev. C. H. Gooding, at twelve o'clock. After congratulations a sumptuous dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Long, to which all did justice.
