-Mrs. W. W. Bayard departed yesterday for her home in Philadelphia, after a two weeks visit with her place. father at Centre Hill.

-James Runkle, of near this place, will move to Middleburg this spring; we are sorry to lose one of the best families of this vicinity.

-James H. Lohr, of Philadelphia. was here a few days ago to visit his invalid mother, who is not improving. James looks well and the city seems to agree with him.

-Major Huss, of Spring Mills, was in town yesterday calling on his the broadest stripe, and is always confident of the party's success.

-Andrew Stiffler, one of our esteemed patrons, at Centre Hill, gave us a call; the grip had a hard pull on him a week ago and he tells us many over that way are suffering from it.

-Prof. Ed. Crawford, of the firm of Smith & Crawford, at Colyer, gave us a hurried call a few days ago. The Prof. is a hustler in the mercantile trade and reports everything booming about Colyer.

-Simon Paul Dinges, of Williamsport, came up on Saturday to spend Sunday with his mother in this place. Simon is in the insurance business with his brother Clevan, and at the recent election figured for the first time in his life as a candidate on the Probi-

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week: Edward W. Harward of Philipsburg, anybody May Dance.

Bob Burdette answers this question in his usual unique fashion: "May a Christian dance? Of course he may He might swear and lie, too, but it would not make him a better Christian. Surely, Christian you may dance, but dancing will never identify you as a Christian. What puzzles us is that you ask the question so often. Christians who don't dance never ask it. Yes, Christian, dance if you can't live without it. Join-hands with Salome, Herodias and Herod, and circle to the left. But don't be surprised if you are taken for a goat. This is the side they are on."

Must Serve the Full Term.

Judge Metzger, of Williamsport, rendered a decision ousting G. H. Cline from the office of burgess of Jersey Shore, and ruling that H. D. Seely is the legal burgess. The latter was appointed by the court to fill out the unexpired term of C. Pott, and Cline was elected for a full term in 1895. The court rules that the act of Assembly provides for uniformity, and a person cannot be elected for a full term when a vacancy occurs. The appointee serves until a successor is elected at the regular election.

Had to Hustle.

A number of students at State College had all their clothing and valuables burned by the burning of the club house last Thursday morning. Some of them escaped with nothing more than their night clothes.
