---John R. Lee, of Tusseyville, was a caller a few days ago.

----Mrs. W. W. Boob and daughter Graae, are visiting friends in Millheim. ----Wes, Tressler and wife, of Oak Hall, visited friends in Centre Hall last week. -A. C. Alexander, of near Centre Hill, transacted business in Centre Hall Tuesday.

-Miss Emma McCoy, of Potters Mills, is visiting at the home of Mr. Wm. Wolf.

-Mr. Daniel Bartges, of Hastings, Pa., visited his brother, D. L. Bartges, at the hotel this week.

—James McClenahan has not been in the best of health lately, and is confined to to his house.

-Mrs. George L. Goodhart and daughter Ada, of Centre Hill, spent Tuesday with friends in town.

-Miss Jennie Stahl has been seriously ill the past week, sbffering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aikens, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday with the family of Mrs. M. J. Odenkirk at this place.

-Mr. C. L. Grim, one of Madisonburgs enterprising and popular young men was in town last Thursday, shaking hands with his friends here.

E.G. Van Pelt and family will leave Centre Hall about April 1st, and o locate in Ithica, N. Y. He will make public sale of household goods on March 27.

-Mr. James P. Herring, of Altoona arrived in town this week. He has been visiting friends about Penn Hall, and this place. He has lost none of his geniality. -David Burrell, of Spring Mills, will become a citizen of Centre Hall in a short time, and will move into Sheriff Spangler's property on Church

-Willis weaver, landlord at the National hotel, Millheim, was in town Monday on business. Willis will retire from the hotel business on April 1st, and will locate elsewhere. -Jared Mowery, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town yesterday. He intends moving to Centre Hall in a couple weeks, and has secured employment in Boob's wheel manufactory. -Dr. J. F. Alexander, who has been located in California for several years, returned to Centre Hall last Friday, and will make this his future home. His family will follow in several months. ---The smile that covered the countenance of Merchant Harry Kreamer last week is since accounted for. His daughter, Jennie, presented her husband S. F. Heckman, of Lock Haven, with a little daughter, and both are doing well. Rev. Will J. Wagner and family, of Muncy, Pa., arrived on Monday on a visit to his parents near Tusseyville. They will visit friends in the county before returning to his pastorate. He is meeting with very good success in his charge.

---W. H. Lucas, re-elected supervisor of Potter township at the last election by the Democrats, interviewed a few of the township land owners in the borough last week. Mr. Lucas takes an active interest in politics and is always on the right side of the fence.

-Frank Thorp, of Linden Hall, was in Centre Hall a few days ago, and dropped in at the REPORTER office for a few minute's chat. He has been an employe on the railroad for years, one of the oldest under Foreman Weibly, of whom he speaks highly.

-E. M. Huyett was a passenger on the train east Saturday. He is in fairly good health, and the recent report of closing out his lumber job at Dry Run, Pa., is without foundation. For the present the family are located at Wernersville, Pa., the home of Mrs. Huyett.

-Mr. Henry Zeigier, of Linden Hall, was a pleasant caller at our office. He is the financial steward for the United Evangelical church, at Rock Hill, and was in town to make settlement with the pastor, Rev. C. H. Goodling. He feels highly elated over the success that has attended the work of the church; he having more than paid the pastor's claim. The Missionary cause was also very well supported as well as all other benevolences.

-James Stahl returned a few days age from DeMoines, Iowa. He had gone there several weeks ago with the intention of locating in those parts, but was unable to find employment. For the present he is of the opinion that Pennsylvania is good enough for him.

Married.

On the 4th of March, at 10 p. m., Mr. F. E. Reeder, of Mt. Carmel and Miss Carrie Coldren of Georges valley, were united in marriage at the Lutheran parsonage, Centre Hall, by Rev. J. M. Rearick.

COBURN.

Auditors to Meet Next Monday to Examine

Jolly Joe. Winters registered at the hotel at this place on Tuesday. W. J. Rote has secured employment with the McLaughlins at hewing walnut lumber.

William Burd, the young man who was hurt last week by a tree falling on him, at this writing is lying in a precarious condition.

D. B. Geary, constable of Penn township, went to Bellefonte on Monday to be sworn into office; this is nothing new for him, he having served that office for about twenty years already. The other township officers were also sworn into office on Monday by justice Garthoff.

The auditors will meet next Monday the 8th inst. to examine the accounts of the outgoing supervisors and overseers of poor.

Rev. Lohr of the United Evangelical church departed on the evening train on Tuesday for New Berry to attend the District Conference which will convene at that place this week, in consequence thereof the protracted meeting which was in progress at this place will be without a pastor until his Merchant W. H. Meyer is at present housed up with an attack of la grippe. The Railroad company built a house west of the station for the storage of oil; a very commendable act, for in case of fire the danger will not be so great as it is built at an isolated place. Our grain merchants have been doing a rushing business since the rise in the price of wheat; they are receiving large amounts daily. Mrs. J. F. Garthoff spent a few days with her parents last week.

Ye senior editor of the REPORTER was seen on our streets last Friday. It is reported that John A. Gray, section foreman at this place will leave here in the near future and will take charge of a section at Watsontown, on the P. and E. railroad; we have not heard who his successor will be at this

MILLHEIM.

About Persons Who are Visiting in and out of Town.

Mr. D. M. Morris, of Loganton, Clinton county, was over on Monday to visit his son, C. H. Morris, our able and efficient druggist; his many friends are always glad to see him.

Mr. Joe. Winters, of Sunbury, the jolly commercial man was here on Monday night; he always stops with mine Host W. S. Musser.

Mr. W. L. Musser, of this place was to Bellefonte last week to pay a visit to her daughter Mrs. John Toner. Mis Lydia Gutelius, one of our handsomest and most amiable young ladies to meet a lady friend. Mr. H. H. Leitzel is preparing to move his family and household goods to Mifflinburg this spring where he expects to locate for the future and engage in the jewelry business; being an' it. These first, last, and all the expert in the art of cleaning and re- time. pairing watches the citizens of this place are sorry to see him go. A very commendable rule that is now in force and has been for some time past is to exclude the boys and all rough and rude characters from loafing in and around the Musser house on Sunday, the one day of the week when the guests of the house like and ought to have a quiet days' rest; Mr. and Mrs. Musser look very carefully to the interests, welfare and comforts of their many guests.

Mr. G. L. Springer, our efficient barber employs Mr. Harper Springer, who is an expert at the business, being one of the best in this place. Mrs. J. Rankin and Miss Lydia Hoover, of Poe Mills, were guests at the Musser house on Tuesday.
