To Our Patrons and Friends.

For the past three months we have been closing out our stock with the intention of leaving town. It was not done for the purpose of booming trade, or deceiving you, our intentions were sincere. Having been offered a position as pipe organist in Allentown, Pa., at a remunerative salary, we have been trying to shape our business affairs accordingly, in order to accept said position, but having failed to dispose of our store, unless at a great loss, we have finally decided to stay. We shall therefore endeavor to concentrate all our energies to one purpose, namely, serving you to the best of our ability with honest and reliable goods. Hereafter we will confine our line principally to staple Dry Goods and Notions, and Men's Furnishings. Goods that are medium in price, and come within the means of all classes. As heretofore, we will sell only for cash, which means a neat saving to you of many dollars in a year. We will immediately put in a full line of new goods, and sell them to you at the very closest living profit.

Hoping to have the pleasure of sharing a large portion of your patronage, we are

New Use for Corncobs.

Frank Shafer took to Dacon, Ill., recently, a sample of syrup which a number of experts pronounced genuine maple syrup. It was nothing more or less than corncob syrup, made as follows: Twelve clean corncobs were put in a gallon of water and boiled until ors will soon reach that place. soft. Then the juice was strained off and a gallon of dark brown sugar solution added. This is boiled a little syrup, hardly distinguishable from the stables. It is claimed that constables maple product.
