Thirteen Persons Assassinated at Once in the Town of Guantanamo-Several of the Victims Were Peaceful Traders.

Fidel Pierra, in charge of the Cuban news bureau in New York gave out the following statement:

"From a letter dated Santiago de Cuba, February 28, the following paragraphs are copied:

"Although Gen. Weyler says that nobody will be punished in any way unless he is convicted of some crime, assassination proceeds on a large scale. In order that you may judge to what extent it is carried on, I will give you a few instances.

"'On the morning of the 14th instant, in the ward of Maraville, in the town of Guantanamo, the following persons were found murdered:

Celestion Perran, colored, planter, fifty years old: Luciano Faure, colored, planter, forty years old; Policarpo Baro, colored, planter, forty years old; Elias Duran, colored, laborer, thirty-five years old: Manuel Monoz, colored, planter, seventy years old; Miguel Perrez, colored, laborer, fifty-eight years old; Felix Casado, white, planter, forty years old; Rufino Luque, white, planter, thirty-eight years old; Blas Jimenez, white, planter, forty years old; Jose Gomez, white, planter, twentynine years old; Ramon Maleta, colored, laborer, forty-five years old; Tomas Specht, colored, laborer, twenty years old; Rafael Barbonell, colored, laborer, fifty years old. "The first of the individuals named had left the city on the previous day for Guantanamo with his stepdaughter. He was the owner of a small coffee estate. Another of the murdered men had arrived with six horses, loaded with 1,200 pounds of coffee. He was accompanied by a lady and a child of one year. The coffee was sold by the men of the guerrillas of Goyer Romero, and the proceeds distributed among them.

PEACEABLE PEOPLE MURDERED.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS. HOUSE.

SEVENTY-SIXTH DAY .--- The House witnessed the perennial attempt to cut off the appro-priation for special mail facilities between Boston, via New York and Washington, to Atlanta and New Orleans. The motion to atrike out the appropriation was defeated -ayes 33, nays 116. The postoffice bill was not disposed of. A bill was passed making a year's "continuous residence in a Terri-tory a prerequisite to obtaining a divorce in said Territory.

SEVENTY-EIGHTH DAY .- The House passed the postoffice appropriation bill. The fea-ture of the debate was the attack on the "spy system" in connection with letter-carriers. Provision was made for the employment of Provision was made for the employment of 30 additional regular inspectors under the Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General, in-creasing the appropriation from $176,000 to $212,000. Mr. Quigg led the fight against this increase, and after a protracted debate his amendment to reduce the appropriation to $176,000 prevailed After the bill was reported to the House Mr. Bromwell, of Ohio, offered an amendment to strike out the apoffered an amendment to strike out the ap-propriation of $196,000 for special mail facil-ities from Boston to New Orleans, but his motion was defeated on a yea-and-nay vote. SEVENTY-NINTH DAY .- The House, after passing some bills of minor importance, en tered upon the consideration of the Aldrich-Robbins contested election case from the fifth Alabama district, with the understanding that three and a half hours' debate should be had on each side. Considerable partisan rancor was thrown into the debate. Mr. Moody, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Linney, of North Caro ina, was especially bitter in their denunciation of Democratic election methods in the South.

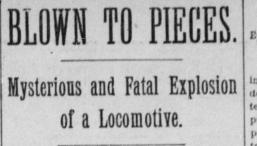

EIGHTIETH DAY .- After two days' debate the House unseated Gasten A. Robbins, from fourth Alabama district, and decided the that his republican opponent, W. F. Aldrich, was elected, and entitled to the seat. Before the case was taken up the House passed bills requiring the officers of American steamers to be citizens of the United States and repealing the laws exempting from tonluties vessels from countries which extended similar exemptions to our vessels.

SENATE.

SEVENTY-SIXTH DAY .-- In the Senate Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, arose to a question of personal privilege and in vigorous words rebuked the Spanish minister, Senor Dupuy de Lome, for his recent criticisms of Sena-tors. Mr. Teller added his opinion that a repstition of the minister's action should be owed by his dismissal. Senators Gray and Hale maintained that senatorial privi lege and prerogative should not be strained to close the mouth of the Spanish minister. Mr. Hoar asked that his resolution postpon ing the entire Cuban subject until April 6, go over. This aroused Mr. Sherman to an energetic protest. He declared that Mr. Hoar's resolution was a reflection on the co tee on foreign relations and an effort to sheive the Cuban resolutions after weeks o discussion and overwheiming votes in both houses. Mr. Sherman finally withdrew his objection.

SEVENTY-EIGHTH DAY .--- The speech of Sen ator Hoar was the eventful feature of the Senate. Mr. Hoar set forth the conservative view of the subject and urged postpon ment of action until April 6. This developed many sharp controversies with Mr. Sherman and other Senators. Mr. Hear's resolution for postponement lost its parliamentary status and went to the calendar. Mr. Sherman announcing that from this time forward he would press the privileged questionconference report accepting the House Cuban resolutions. Mr Turple closed his speech in opposition to the claim of Mr. Dupont for a at in the Senate.

SEVENTY-NINTH DAY .-- Senators Sherman and Hill were the conspicuous figures in the Cuban debate in the Senate, the New York Senator foreibly urging the mercenary character of the pending resolutions, while Mr. Sherman upheld them with another graphic arraign-ment of Spain and General Weeler. Sena or Hill urged that the resolutions be defeated in order that they might be amended and the mercenary features eliminated. Mr. Sherman declared that war in Cuba was flagrant and the evidence of it abundant. the course of his speech Mr. Sherman pa d a tribute to the patriotism and fidelity of Preident Cleveland and his readiness to uphold the conn ry's flag. EIGHTIETH DAY .- There was a spirited reference to Cuba in the Senate, when it de veloped during an explanation by Mr. Lodge that the committee on foreign relations had received from Secretary Olney a statement by Senor Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish min-ister, giving the Spanish view of the case. This brought out very animated suggestions from Mr. Hoar and Mr. Wolcott that the Senate be put in possession of this important testimony. Mr. Cockrell, of Missouri, spoke on the financial question from the silver standpoint, and Mr. Hoar, in the course of an inquiry stated that it was the ablest silver speech he had ever listened.

WHOLE TRAIN DEMOLISHED

Only One of the Train Crew Escaped Unhurt from the Disaster -A Fifth Man Wounded and Likely to Die.

By the explosion of the boiler of a locomo tive on the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill Railroad at Gum Run, ten miles west of Hazieton, Pa., soon after 1 o'clock P. M., four men were instantly killed and one so badly injured that he may die. The victims of the horrible accident are: John Chambers, engineer; Jonas Stewart, fireman; Michael Boyle, brakeman, and Frank O'Donnell. Injured: William Timmony.

All the men are residents of the borough of Freeland. William Tully, another brakeman on the train and also a resident of Freeland, was a considerable distance back from the engine and escaped the explosion.

Gum Run, where the accident occurred, is near the crossing of the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Tomhicken and Derringer. The engine which blew up was used for hauling coal freight to and from the Derringer collieries, which are operated by Coxe Brothors.

The engine was hauling a train of cars in the direction of the colliery. The crew had passed the signal tower, and Chambers, the engineer, waved his hand good naturedly to the operator, who signalled the men.

They had not got far when the tower man heard a roar and a crash which shook the hillside. Realizing in a moment what had happened, he turned the signal against ap proaching trains and ran toward the wreck. He met Brakeman Tully, who was throws from the cars by the crash and was somewhat dazed by the concussion. Both hurried to the rescue of the other men. A horrible sight met their gaze, for lying in different places were the mangled remains of four of the crew. While making a hasty inspection of the wreck they heard a moan coming from beneath a pile of debris, and found Brakeman Timmony pinned to the ground by s large beam which lay across his breast. He was extricated and made as comfortable as possible. The men hastened back to the tower house to call assistance. An engine and physicians came from Drifton, and aid was sent from Tomhicken. The injured man Timmony was hurriedly conveyed to the hospital. Of the dead men Chambers, O'Donneil and Stewart leave wives and families. Boyle was unmarried.

No one can tell what caused the explosion The engine, which was comparatively new, was blown to pieces, and the nine cars attached were also badly demolished.

Epitome of News Gleaned From Various Parts of the State.

Thomas McIntosh, a young school teacher in Victory Township, is delirious and wandering about the country as the result of a terrible beating inflicted by friends of a pupil he had punished. The assault took place about a week ago, McIntosh being attacked after dark and left for dead on the road. He was picked up and taken to Salem, where he received medical attantion. He has been mentally unbalanced since.

The tramp nuisance in Huntingdon has become so intolerable that the borough authorities have been compelled to interfere in behalf of the long-suffering citizens. The police have been furnishing the best class of tramps with lodgings in the lockup during the winter, and when they were turned loose each morning the town would be overrun with them, begging for something to est and frightening women and children. The complaints have been so numerous that council has taken advantage of the vagrant acts and passed an ordinance providing that any tramp or vagrant convicted before the Chief Burgess or any Justice of the Peace in the borough, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $10 for every such offense, and upon failure to pay the fine shall be committed to the lockup for a term not exceeding five days, or compelled to work on the public works or streets for a term not exceeding one day for each dollar of fine imposed.

Mrs. Harry E Doebler, aged 22 years, died at her home in Williamsport after a long and terrible illness from trichinosis. The woman contracted the disease early in the winter by eating pork supposed to be infected. The tissues of her body were almost entirely consumed by the disease. A movement will be started among the retall grocers in Greensburg and in other towns in the county looking to the formation of an organization for the purpose of testing the pure food law, under which the State agents are acting in this county. In the past few days about twenty informations have been made against retail grocers in the county, alleging the sale of impure vinegar. Members of the Legislature and leading lawyers in this county insist that the act has been misconstrued, and that the spirit of the law tends to protect the retail grocers and consumers against dishonest wholesalers. If the law has been violated it is held that the party who sold the foods to the retailer is responsible. Upon this ground, at least, the merchants will take action.

One of the most unique suits for criminal libel which has ever been tried in the Schuylkill County Courts was that of Louis Silcox, now deceased, against Fred. Farne, of St. Clair, which was just concluded in Pottsville. Farne was shot in the head sevsral months ago, and he subsequently made an affidavit charging Silcox with the orime. The latter brought suit for libel, but died before the case came to trial. His son, however took up the case to vindicate his dead father's name, and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Wesley Weber, son of Engineer Richard Weber, of Dunmore, was accidentally shot at the Spencer rifle range in Dunmore, and

BODIES IN A BARREL.

Mutilated Remains of an Old Man and Baby Found in Chicago.

Carefully concealed in a barrel and covered with a mass of old rags and cotton the dead bodies of a gray-haired man and a new-born babe were found in an ailey in Hyde Park, Chicago, In consequence the police are working what they consider a double murder. On y one clus is in their possession, and on the discovery of the ideatityy a woman, as yet unknown to the police, depends the possible solution of the mystery.

Early in the forenoon the office in Ralston's Hyde Park Morgue was rung up on the telephone and a woman, who declined to give either her name or address, asked if the body of a man had been found in Hyde Park. The office attendant replied in the negative and then questioned the woman, but his best efforts failed to get any information of a decided character, although she told the clerk she was looking for a man who was missing. See was finally prevailed upon to give his description, which she did in minute detail. She astonished the morgue attendant by saying in conclusion that he would certainly learn more about the case later on.

Four hours later the barrel, with its ghastly contents, was discovered in the rear of the house at 4829 Indiana avenus The body of the man tailied in almost every description furnished by the mysterious woman over the telephone wire, and the police unresitatingly connected her with the case. In the barrel was also the body of they not over 10 days old.

J. A. Nurse, residing on Prairie avenue, while emptying a pan of ashes in the alley at the rear of his home discovered a barrel, which aroused his curiosity. Breaking open the head of the receptacle, he was horrified upon seeing the body of an old man inside. It was entirely nude and was frightfully mutilated Covering the corpse was a thick layer of cotton.

The police were at once notified, and the barrel was removed to the morgue. The head and trunk gave every evidence of foul piay, the skull showing several deep wounds On the left forearm were tattooed five spots close together. There was nothing else te give any clew to the man's identity. After the several pieces of the body had been lifted from the barrel, the body of the baby was found It was nude, save for a this fiannel shirt, and there were two marks of the side of the head, apparently made with a blunt instrument.

The body of the elder male was that of : man between 65 and 70 years of age.

The police laugh at the theory that it was the work of medical students, and are positive in their statements that the man and child were murdered.

MARKETS.

CLOSE OF A NOTED HOTEL.

The "Exchange" in Richmond Has Made an Assignment.

The once-famous Exchange Hotel, in Richmond, for haif a century the rendezvous of most prominent statesmen in Virginia and other Southern States, made an ussignment and will be closed.

During the late war the hotel was the stopping place of the leading Confederates and cabinet officers. Here, too, when he visited the country in 1859, the Prince of Wales stopped. The goblet from which he drank his first mint julep is still retained there.

Every governor nominated by the Demoerats in Virginia for the past quarter of a century has had his headquarters in this house.

A NEW DEPARTMENT.

Proposition to Consolidate a Number of Official Bureaus at Washington.

Senator Frye's bill providing for a departnent of commerce and manufactures is receiving many favorable comments from members of Congress. It is not altogether a new measure, as bills of similar character have been before Congress at different times. It has long been conceded that the Secretary of the Treasury has a great deal more work attached to his department than any one man can properly care for. To look after of the Treasury to do efficiently, without including a great deal of other work which does not pertain in any way to the finances of the country.

The National Board of Trade and other organizations have taken this matter up at different times, and Mr. Frye's bill is in line with views expressed by those organizations. His proposal to include the Consular Service in this new department will meet with objection because of the fact that many of the Consuls have to be relied upon for more the horribly story of her own fate and her or less diplomatic work.

From the general talk among members of both the House and the Senate such a measure as that proposed by Mr. Frye will be very apt to become a law if it is reached before this session ends. But the probability that the appropriation bills can be got out of the way so that final adjournment will take place, perhaps in May, does not promise well for the consideration of any new measure of this kind.

Senator Frye's bill contemplates the transfer to this department from the Treasury, of the Life Saving Service, the Light House Board, the Marine Hospital Service, the Bureau of Steamboat Inspection, the Bureau of Navigation, the Coast and Geodetic Survey and the Bureau of Statistics; also the Bureau of Statistics of the State Department, the two bureaus of Statistics to be consolidated into

The Bill Establishing It Passes the Senate .- It

Will Tend to Elevate Art. The Senate passed the bill reported by Mr. Hansbrough from the Library Committee to create an art commission to pass upon all works of art purchased by the Government, or accepted by it, for exhibition in any pubite building or ground. The bill was slightly amended from the way in which it was originally reported, so as not to exclude artists or sculptors from serving on it.

If the House agrees with the Senate there will be an end of the monstrosities in the way of statues, or the daubs in the way of pictures which are put up by the Government in Washington. Heretofore this matter of deciding on works of art has been left to Congressional committees, and a good deal of log rolling and charges of improper influence have frequently been the result of this method of deciding on the merits of paintings and statues. The probabilities are that the bill will pass the House and become a have been begun. In a few weeks the
