AARONSBERG.

Occurrences of Importance in the Town Down the Valley.

Mrs. Sallie Frank died on the 17th inst. and was buried on the 19th. She was aged 83 years, and was the widow of John Frank, who died in 1869.

Mr. Daniel Lenker has been for more than a week confined to the house and is quite ill. He is suffering with diabetes; one of his toes is much inflamed and he suffers a great deal of pain.

Mr. L. D. Kurtz and wife, of Mifflinburg, came to town last Saturday, and are visiting among their many friends and former neighbors.

Clarence Muser has moved into Mr. Phillips' hotel. He expects to continue barbering, but he will neither shave you for nothing nor give you a drink.

James E. Lenker has quit the mercantile business in this place and boxed up the goods and shipped them to Lemont where he is engaged in business. This would be an opening for some energetic business man.

Jacob Harter Jr., has moved on the John Geistwite farm lately purchased by Henry Zerby, and Mrs. George Guisewitz who was living on the farm has moved into the tenant house on the farm.

The Society of Christian Endeavor will hold their meeting in the Methodist church next Sabbath evening, at 6 o'clock.

DIED ON FRIDAY.

Wm. Moyer Expires at the Home of His Daughter.

Last Friday morning the death of William Moyer, of Boalsburg, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emanuel Fye, about two miles west of Centre Hall, near Gregg station. He had been ill for some time, being troubled with asthma.

Later he became afflicted with a dropsical ailment. Last Thursday he expressed the wish to be taken to the home of his daughter, and his son William took him down. He at once became dangerously ill, and the next morning he died.

He was aged over 72 years, and leaves three children, one son, William, at Boalsburg, and two daughters, Mrs. Emanuel Fye, and Mrs. John Kline, of Pine Grove Mills. He was interred in the Boalsburg cemetery at Boalsburg, on Tuesday morning, Rev. Black, of the Reformed church officiating.

Arrested for Carrying Weapons.

John E. Mullen, a young man aged about twenty years, and residing near Coburn, was arrested last Friday and lodged in jail for carrying concealed weapons and threatening the life of a man named Lingle, who lives near Coburn.

Lingle, it seems has been suspicious of the intimate relations existing between his wife and Mullen and several days ago discovered them in a compromising position. A row naturally followed, when Mullen pulled a weapon and threatened to do up Lingle according to the western style. There the row ended and Lingle swore out a warrant for his arrest, and he was lodged in jail, bail not forthcoming.

COBURN.

The Incidents of a Week of the Busy Town Recounted.

Mr. Charles and family, of Mifflinburg, spent Sunday at this place, the guests of the gentleman's sister, Mrs. G. R. Stover.

John Hosterman and family of near Woodward, spent a few days last week at this place visiting friends.

Master Clarence Porter, of Clintondale, sojourned a few days with the family of his uncle, A. J. Campbell, of this place last week.

Mrs. E. Bartholomew is at present visiting her parents near Nittany Hall, and will remain several weeks.

Messrs. W. H. Ertel and Henry Snively were appointed by the school board of Penn township to fill vacancies caused by the death of Frederick Auman, and the resignation of H. T. Zerby, who will move into Haines township in April. The newly appointed members were sworn into office at a meeting of the board on last Saturday.

Rev. Wolf had services in the Lutheran church at this place on last Saturday forenoon, and admitted three new members from Paddy Mt.

Mr. Boyer, of Spring Mills, will move to this place today and will occupy the house and store now owned by E. L. Auman. He will open a store in the near future.

John Wingard, an old resident of Green Briar, departed this life on Monday morning, having had an attack of paralysis. He was aged about seventy years.

John Gray loaded his household goods on Tuesday and departed for Watsonstown, where he will be foreman on a section on the P. and E. R. R. His successor on the section here, Mr. Johnson, also moved to this place, and will occupy Mrs. Sarah Kerstetter's house.

Quite a sensation was created at this place on Sunday by the sudden departure of one of our young ladies from her home, taking all her effects along and leaving no trace as to her whereabouts, while her parents were in Sunday school.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sarah Lohr, wife of Wm. Lohr, departed this life, March 18, 1896, aged 67 years, 3 months, and 3 days. She was the daughter of Samuel Shannon, and was born about 129 miles above Centre Hall, near where Andrew Gregg now lives. She was a patient sufferer for nearly thirteen years, over twelve years ago she passed through a severe spell of typhoid fever, at which time her life was endangered, but she was recovering but yet in a very weak state, the ringing of a church bell threw her to a spasms when last of for a long time, and left her in an exhausted state after which she was seized with severe cramps of the stomach almost every day from that time until her death.

For three years from the time she had fever she was unable to walk, except with the aid of crutches; then she was afflicted with dysentery and hemorrhages of the bowels, after which she was able to walk. About three years ago she suffered a stroke of paralysis, after which she never walked alone.

During all this time she was cheerful, often saying "It might be worse."

At the age of eleven years she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she remained a consistent member until death. She was married to Wm. Lohr just fifty years; dying on the 17th anniversary of their marriage. She was the mother of nine children, four of whom preceded her to the grave. She died in peace, "trusting in the blood of Jesus Christ that cleanseth from all sin," and was laid to rest in the cemetery at Centre Hall, the Rev. Goodling, of the Evangelical Association, officiating in the absence of her regular pastor, at Conference at Williamsport.

Must Use the Knife

Salb the Surgeon, but Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was taken and the Knife Avoided.

The Union and Advertiser of Rochester, N. Y., recently published the following interesting account of how Wm. W. Adams of 127 South avenue, that city was saved from a painful operation by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Mr. Adams said: "Three years ago I was taken with kidney disease very badly; at times I was completely prostrated; in fact, was so bad that the day was set for the doctors to perform an operation upon me. But I decided I would not submit. I had been put in hot water baths, and, in fact, nearly every means was tried to help me. Upon the day set for the operation I commenced the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and from that moment began to gain, and it was not long before I was entirely cured and have had no return of the trouble since. My weight has increased and I never was so well as I am now. I have recommended

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY to many people for it saved my life."

In speaking to Mrs. Adams, she said "About a year ago I was in a very feeble state of health, being completely run down. I had doctored considerably, but without permanent relief. One day one of my neighbors advised me to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which I did. My trouble was dyspepsia, and for a long while I was unable to be about at all; but after taking a few doses I was completely cured and now enjoy good health."

Hundreds of men and women with that "run down" condition, unable to work, have recovered health and strength through this remarkable remedy. It purifies the blood, stirs the liver and kidneys to a healthy action. In cases of rheumatism, kidney, liver, and urinary troubles, it is a well-known specific.
