

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—Samuel Kreamer is putting in the week at Bellefonte as a juror.

—Squire Reesman was to Bellefonte attending court on Monday.

—Mrs. Joe. Atlee, of Tyrone, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James C. Boal.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Luse were visiting among relatives in Brush Valley over Sunday.

—Miss Lizzie Weiland, of Boalsburg, was the guest of Miss Mame Kreamer last week.

—James W. Runkle came up from Middleburg last week to transact some business, remaining several days.

—Samuel Flory and John Shutt, two of South Potter's good citizens, were in town Tuesday morning.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Kinch, of Stratonsville, Pa., has been spending several weeks with the family of Mr. Isaac Smith.

—Mr. George Fell, a skillful wood worker from Aaronsburg, is employed in Boob's shops. He may move to Centre Hall.

—Harry Bibighaus of Philadelphia a hardware salesman traveling through this section for years, has been making Centre Hall his headquarters the past week.

—That hustling young merchant, Charley Swartz, of Tusseyville, dropped in at the REPORTER office a few days ago. Their store room at Tusseyville was recently remodelled, and it is now one of the best arranged in the valley.

—Mrs. Annie Van Pelt and children returned home last Thursday, after an absence in Philadelphia of several weeks, where she had placed her son John and daughter Romie, under the treatment of an ear specialist. Their hearing is greatly improved since.

—Mr. A. N. Finkle, of Spring Mills, accompanied by Mr. King, were in Centre Hall last Friday on business. Mr. Finkle operates a saw mill on the tract east of Spring Mills and Mr. King is his sawyer in the mill. Both gentlemen called at the REPORTER office before leaving town, and reported candidates unusually plenty among them.

—Rev. W. K. Foster, of Mechanicsburg, is a visitor at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. M. A. Elder. By special request of the Presbytery he preached to the State College boys on Sunday last. The reverend is a very pleasant gentleman and we are glad to learn he has been getting along nicely since his last visit to our city about a year ago.—Phillipsburg Journal.

—Mrs. Simon Ruble and daughter Ella, of Iola, Allen county, Kansas, arrived last Wednesday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. John Lee, near Farmers Mills, and other friends in the valley. Her husband, Simon Ruble, operated the flour mill at the Stone mill across the valley, and removed to the west about ten years ago. Mrs. Ruble expects to remain several weeks before returning to Kansas.

—The political announcement of Col. J. L. Spangler, of Bellefonte, appears in another column, as a candidate for Congress from this district. At present Col. Spangler is the only candidate before the people for the honor. He is a spirited worker for the party and did much towards putting Centre county back in the Democratic ranks last fall. Centre county is entitled to the nomination, and if Col. Spangler is nominated he will poll a large vote.

—Mr. John Shaffer, of Madisonburg, made his periodical visit to Centre Hall on Wednesday, and dropped in at this office for a few minutes chat. He is one of Miles township's solid citizens, and has been a subscriber of the REPORTER for nearly half a century, without interruption. Mr. Shaffer's son, Wash, lives on the farm which his great-grandfather cleared about 123 years ago, and it has remained in the family since, being handed down to each generation. One of the relics of the early pioneer times which Mr. Shaffer cherishes is a whetstone used by his grandfather. He also has one of the large old clocks common in those early days. It was the time piece of his grandfather, and keeps good time yet. Mr. Shaffer has quit farming and proposes to take the rest of life easy.
