G. W. RUMBERGER. CONGRESS.

We are anthorized to announce that J. D. Spangler, of Bellefonte, will be a candidate for the office of Congress, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

AN ENDORSEMENT.

Upon the solicitation of mady citizens of Centre county, Mr. I-sac S. Frain, of Marion township, has finally consecued to kilow his name to be presented as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convenion. We take pleasure in endersing his action, because we know him to be eminently qualified for the many complex and trying duties which the position involves. To the texparer this is the most important office, and deserves our careful deliberations. We have confidence in his integrity, and his ability; and from his many years experience as a farmer and active worker in various interests that tend to promote the welfare of the farmer, we firmly believe be would be a valuable man for the position, where intelligen; conservative compact is so much needed. Further, if he should become the choice of the party, we believe his name would bring strength to the ticket.

For these reasons we take this opportunity to bring strength to the ticket.

For these reasons we take this opportunity to endorse his candidacy and solicit from others the kindly consideration it deserves.

Chop reports from some of the western states are highly encouraging.

WITHIN the past ten days terrible cyclones have visited Texas and parts of the western states, causing great loss of life and destruction of property.

THE Democratic nominee for President may be Pattison, Whitney, Carlisle or ex-Gov. Russell. Either one will get the united support of the Democracy.

THERE never was a more miserable do-nothing congress than the present one, nor a more infamous legislature than the last one. May we never be cursed with its like again.

THE M'Kinley boom is still crawling up, much to the displeasure of Quay, Platt and Reed. It is even asserted Pennsylvania will drop Quay after the first ballot and go to M'Kinlev. Southern Republicans go for M'-Kinley because they believe he is for free silver. The Republicans of the northern states who favor M'Kinley, allege, on the other hand, that he is not for free silver. The Republicans who do not favor M'Kinley say he is a straddler, and that's about the truth of it.

THE MCKINLEY SITUATION,

The Philad. Record says Major Mc-Kinley knows that in the race for the Presidential nomination the vote of a Free Silver delegate counts for as Those in arrears subject to previous terms, $2.00 much as the vote of a Sound Money delegate. Hence he keeps his mouth shut. He trusts to his past financial ADVERTISEMENTS .- 20 cents per line for three | record for the support of the friends of cheap money and to his reputation as an ultra-protectionist to hold fast to him the votes of the Sound Money manufacturing States. And he will CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. May 21. run on the platform his party shall make for him. This is not an altogether satisfactory showing for citizens who believe in courageous and conscientious statesmanship and who think that a man who is afraid to announce his views as a candidate cannot be trusted as a President; but it is politics of the prevailing variety, and apparently, winning politics. The only danger to Mr. McKinley and his boomers lies in the possibility of a revulsion of public sentiment. We have it on good Republican authority that the people cannot be fooled all the

A Non-Paneturable Bicycle Tire.

A young man named Shaffer, of Coatesville, Pa., claims to have made a fortune by his inventive genius, but is holding out for more cash. He claims to have at last found what bieyele manufacturers have been searching for for many years; a tire which ple that no time is lost in the work of rapair. The principle of the invention he does not divulge. It is said that he has received an offer of $65,000 We are authorized to announce that Frank Foreman, of Centre Hall borough, will be a candidate for the office of Recorder, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. that he has refused the sum offered. He is holding out for $300.000.
