CENTRE HALL, PA., THURS. June 11.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

- For Congress, J. L. SPANGLER. For Assembly, R. F. FOSTER. JAMES SCHOFIELD. For Sheriff, W. M. CRONISTER. For Treasurer, C. A. WEAVER. For Commissioners, P. H. MEYER. DANIEL HECKMAN. For Register, G. W. RUMBERGER. For Recorder, J. C. HARPER. For Auditors, FRANK W. HESS, B. F. KEISTER. For Coroner, DR. W. W. IRWIN. For Surveyor, J. H. WETZEL.

Now, Democrats, to your guns, and aim for victory in the county.

ANY man who has real merit need not resort to prostituting a secret order to office seeking.

AHA, that's it!—Republicans working at the Democratic primaries on Saturday "to weaken our ticket."

THE defeated of Tuesday, have now, no doubt, said their feelings; let all stop after this week. Be of good cheer, defeated comrades, we can now pick our flints and try again. The next Republican legislature, boys, is likely to keep on increasing the offices and make 6 instead of 3 commissioners. 2 treasurers, and double up all the other county offices, and then, boys, there will be room for all at the table. So up with your hats for the ticket, boys.

A NEW candidate for congressional honors was announced last week, being ex-judge D. L. Krebs, of Clearfield. Judge Krebs is a native of Ferguson township and was admitted to the Bellefonte bar, removed to Clearfield, where he practiced law and afterwards was elected president judge.

THE raising of the County Superintendent's salary, in this county, from $1500 to $1800, meets with almost general disapproval over the county, a fact we ascertained in our recent travels over the county. If any director, in the convention, when the vote was taken on the motion to increase the salary, had been sharp enough to call for the yeas and nays the proposition would have been defeated as a goodly majority of the directors would not have wanted their names to appear on the record as favoring it.

If our amiable superintendent refuses to accept the increase he will stand in still higher esteem with the people. The history of our county superintendents' salary is about this: It started with $500; Then raised just a little to $700; Then raised just a trifle to $1000. Then raised only a trifle to $1200; Next raised a little more to $1500; Now raised a wee bit to $1800. Next raise will be a wee bit to $2000, and keep on crawling up until it gets to $3000. The earlier increases may have been proper, but it is time to call a halt.

MCKINLEY, PAST AND PRESENT.

The Pittsburg Dispatch is gradually dropping its straddle and getting over to the McKinley side of the fence. We have no fault to find, for these are times of sudden changes, but it affords no reason why the situation should be misstated to cushion the flop, and get a nice, easy place to land on. The Dispatch of Saturday says there "is nothing in Major McKinley's past utterances about silver that differs from the views that were generally held by his party at the time of such utterances." Suppose we test this statement by Major McKinley's silver votes in congress in 1878. He voted, in the first place, for free coinage, pure and simple. Was that the view of the Republican party in 1878, when a few years before it had engineered "the great crime of 1873," in demonetizing silver? The silver bill for which Major McKinley voted in the house was not acceptable in the Senate, then much more conservative than of late years, and it substituted the Bland Allison silver coinage bill provided for the purchase and coinage of $4,000, 000 worth of silver per month. This bill passed, but was returned to the house with the veto of President Hayes, a veto in all probability prepared by John Sherman, as he was then secretary of the treasury. Mr. McKinley voted to pass this bill over the veto, thereby separating himself from the Republican administration.

As to what may be Major McKinley's views on silver today, the Dispatch knows nothing, for he has kept discreetly silent since the Republican state convention of Ohio, a few months ago. The silver resolution adopted by that body, stated to have been prepared by McKinley, was very cunningly devised to suit all phases of the silver question. But while favoring free coinage by international agreement, it went a step farther, and, such an arrangement failing, advocated it by legislation by the American congress. That is McKinley's position today. Further evidence lies in the fact that western states, in their recent platforms, while favoring free coinage, endorsed McKinley for the presidential nomination as a representative of that idea. The difficulty is just here. No one knows whether, as president, McKinley would sign or veto a free coinage bill if sent him by congress. That will be the crucial test. The Dispatch cannot tell with any certainty what McKinley will do in the contingency. Therefore its talk about comparing McKinley's opinions today by his past opinions is all fudge. He has no opinions today, and his past is muddled by contradiction and inconsistency, as the Dispatch abundantly demonstrated when endeavoring to inflate the Quay balloon.—Pittsburg Post.

WHAT THEY WORKED FOR.

One of the Republican heeled in the plot to work the Democratic primaries last Saturday, to elect W. B. Mingle as delegate, did it to disturb the harmony agreed upon by the Centre Hall candidates and now chuckles over what he claims a partial success of the game as it helped towards nominating "a weak ticket on Tuesday" and now he was glad "the Republicans could carry the county." That is about the way the half Democrat chairman with the same kind of Republican help, has been plotting for more than fifteen years. No wonder no Democratic delegate could be found willing to serve as secretary under a chairman with such an un-democratic record.

Now Democrats, it is our duty to warn you of the new plot, in which Republicans were helpers. Pull off your coats, go to work! and prove that you can elect your ticket. Democrats profit by what you know of similar work by the same chaps in past years. Be on the alert now, and don't rest until victory crowns your efforts.

Advice Not to be Discounted.

The following is sensible advice: "Drink nothing without seeing it, sign nothing without reading it, and make sure that it means nothing more than it says. Don't go to law unless you have nothing to lose; lawyers' houses are built on fools' heads. In any business never wade in water where you cannot see the bottom. Put no dependence on the label of a bag, and sound money before you accept it. See the sack open before you buy what is in it, for he who trades in the dark asks to be cheated."

The Revival Still On.

The religious revival that has been going on at Bellefonte for several weeks still continues, and the interest in it is unabated. The meetings in the tabernacle are largely attended, and many conversions have been made. The meetings are a decided success and will continue for some time yet. Many prominent business men and attorneys of the town have forsaken their former wicked ways and are trying to walk in the path of the righteous.

Examinations.

County Superintendent Gramley is holding examinations for the teachers of Potter township and Centre Hall, today in the school building. When Prof. Gramley went into office he raised the standard of the teachers and when a certificate is issued, the party receiving it is deserving of it. He is putting the schools upon a good basis and will do much for the cause of education during the balance of his term.

Were Not Successful.

Some time during Sunday night an attempt was made to rob the safe in the Pennsylvania Railroad station at Milesburg. An entrance was effected into the station and the safe tampered with. The dial was blown off but the door could not be opened and the only booty secured by the robbers was a pair of shoes. There is no clue as to the identity of the robbers.

With the blood full of humors, the heated term is all the more oppressive. Give the system a thorough cleansing with Ayer's Sarsaparilla and a dose or two of Ayer's Pills, and you will enjoy summer as never before in your life. Just try this for once, and you'll not regret it.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at J. D. Murray's Drug Store.
