—Among those who attended the Democratic convention at Bellefonte on Tuesday from Centre Hall, were, Benj. Arney, James Durst, Squire Dauberman, Wagner Geiss, D. F. Luse, Frank Bradford, William and Frank Gfreer, Arthur Kerlin, and several others. They are good Democrats and were much interested in the proceedings.

A Challenge.

To the amateur base ball clubs of Blair, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Clearfield, Cambria and Centre counties; The Yanigans, of Tyrone, challenge any amateur base ball club from the above named counties, for $500, for the club winning the majority of games out of five, which are to be played. Address Box 84, Tyrone, Pa.

Road Making.

The supervisors of the township have been working on the roads near the borough. They have had a big number of men working out their tax. The public highways are certainly in need of the labor expended on them.

Measuring the Road.

On Monday Commissioner Goodhart and Surveyor Wetzel were in town taking measurements of the turnpike through the borough, against which condemnatory proceedings have been instituted.

What the Order Has Done.

During the seventy-six years of the existence of Odd Fellowship it has distributed $70,000,000 for the relief of its members. It is doubted if such a showing will ever be reached in the same time by any other beneficial association.

Change of Pulpits.

Rev. C. B. Gruver, of Lock Haven, and Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall, will exchange pulpits next Sunday, June 14.

Mr. James Perdue, an old soldier residing in Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly raise up. If I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, and R. E. Bartholomew, Centre Hall.

SPRING MILLS.

The Associate Editor Sends Us a Budget of News from His Town.

Evert & Smith and A. N. Finkle, of our town, are the most extensive shippers of bark in this section.

William From, in Jackson's mill at Bellefonte, formerly of our village, made us a visit of a few days last week.

No Republican candidate for the last ten days, no doubt all are waiting for the Democratic judgment on the 9th, after which, in plenty they will equal the frogs of Egypt.

Frank Long, Robert Van Valzah, and Charles Allison, of our village, have each received a new bicycle, and now are frequently spinning along the road at an electric—or break-neck speed.

The M. E. church of Spring Mills, had their children's entertainment on Sunday evening last, (called Children's Day); the recitations, dialogues, and singing were excellent. The "little people" too, did remarkably well; the entertainment was very largely attended.

D. H. Ruhl, our jolly landlord, says that he has no reason to complain of business, he always has a few guests over night, and frequently is compelled to "double them up." Mr. R. has had his bar and sitting rooms nicely papered and painted, quite an improvement.

Frog shooting still continues along Penns creek, but with very little success. Frogs are getting too cute, if they see a hunter a half a mile off they bury themselves in the mud, or hide under some old log 'til he passes, then they come out and get on a stone and laugh—or croak, which is the same thing.

Business in our village is moderate, some days quite lively, on an average will rate fair, but the volume of business for May is slightly off compared with same time last year. Presidential years business is always sluggish, so we may expect a weak market for everything for a half a dozen months to come.

A young man of our village, was arrested on Saturday last for burglary. Nothing had been taken, as in gaining an entrance the burglar had disturbed the family who immediately summoned assistance, but the robber managed to escape. The arrest was only on suspicion; at the hearing on Saturday afternoon the case was postponed.

Quite a large number of Democrats left here Tuesday morning for Bellefonte to attend the convention. Just so the convention gives us a good ticket, composed of live, active and deserving men; men of intelligence and capacity—no dead wood. If they do this the Democracy will sweep the county, if not, well—doubtful things are very uncertain.

OAK HALL.

A Site Selected for a New School Building in the Town.

George Tressler is at present busy picking cherries and selling them.

Lizzie Williams, of Boalsburg, left on Friday morning for Loysville school.

Mrs. James C. Gilliland made a flying trip to Bellefonte and returned on Tuesday.

James Fortney, of Pine Grove Mills, was transacting business at this place on Tuesday.

Miss Florence Riley, of Boalsburg, was at the home of Edward Sellers a few days last week.

Mrs. J. G. Irvin of this place, left Hollidaysburg on Monday evening, to visit her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Osman, of near State College, were visiting at the home of Daniel Korman last week.

Our supervisors are crushing stone and piking our roads; if they keep on in a few years we will have good roads.

Calvin Weiland, of Boalsburg, and John Close, of this place, made a trip to State College on their bicycles on Wednesday.

There were twenty-five tickets sold at this station for Bellefonte on Tuesday; both Democrats and Republicans attended the convention.

On last Sunday morning a stranger came to the home of F. F. Granley. Thomas said it could stay as he would be in need of another huckster soon.

The school directors and the citizens of this place met on Saturday afternoon to select a suitable place to build a new school house. They bought a small piece of ground adjoining the old school ground and intend building on it.

—The Philad. Branch, in their new room, Bellefonte, now carry a larger stock than any two stores in the town. The stock is all new and up-to-date, and the prices are away down. And then every deal is made satisfactory or money returned.

SCROFULA CURED

E. C. Caswell of Brockport, N. Y., says: "I was terribly afflicted with scrofula, and had lost all hope of being cured. A friend advised me to take DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY. Which I did with great benefit, and I recommend it to others." It restores the liver to a healthy condition, and cures constipation, scrofula, rheumatism, dyspepsia, and all kidney, bladder and urinary diseases.
