Arnold Renominated.

The Congressional Conference of the Twenty-eighth District met at DuBois on last Wednesday afternoon. All the five counties, Clearfield, Centre, Elk, Forest and Clarion were represented. Col. W. F. Reeder, of Bellefonte, who was endorsed by Centre County Republicans after a disgraceful scene in convention, withdrew his name, and W. C. Arnold, of Clearfield, the present member from the district, was nominated by acclamation and received the congratulations of all present.

New Barn.

Among the improvements at the station is a new barn now being erected by R. E. Bartholmew.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Expires at the Home of Her Sister at Tusseyville.

The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Elizabeth Miller occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jacob Strohm, at Tusseyville, to whom she was paying a visit, on last Friday night or early Saturday morning. Her death was quiet and peaceful, and the family was not aware of it until morning, when she was found dead in bed. The cause of her demise is attributed to heart disease and paralysis.

Mrs. Miller's death was sudden and unexpected, and was a great shock to her many friends. She had retired with the family in her usual state of health, and there was not the slightest premonition that Death's hand should touch her brow in the later hours. It is supposed she had been dead some hours before being found. She was aged about 64 years.

The funeral took place on the following Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Reesman family plot in the Centre Hall cemetery.

Mrs. Miller's maiden name was Elizabeth Heltman, and she was born in Lamar township, Clinton county. She was united in marriage to David Reesman, father of J. A. Reesman, of Centre Hall, in 1851, being his second wife. One son was the result of this union, being the Charles Reesman, who died about one year ago at Plainfield, Ill. In 1856 she became a widow. Her second marriage occurred in 1867, to Wm. Miller, of Mackeyville, Clinton county. The family removed to Wisconsin in 1864, where Mr. Miller, her husband, died in about 1891. Two children were the result of this union, one surviving, being W. E. Miller, of Stockton, Ill.

Mrs. Miller came east last fall and made her residence with her son, J. A. Reesman, in Centre Hall, desiring to end her remaining days in the district of her birth. Two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Rishell and Mrs. Jacob Strohm, both of Tusseyville, survive her; also two brothers living in Clinton county, and one in Nebraska.

She was a lady of refinement and was greatly attached to her church. Her residence in Centre Hall was the means of adding many friends to her acquaintance.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week:

Miles C. Deppery and Julia C. Kuhn of Old Fort, Potter township.

Victor E. Auman and Maggie E. Jamison, of Spring Mills.

Robert Dixon and Maggie Haddock, of Snow Shoe.

John A. Hockenberry, of Osceola, Clearfield Co., and Clara B. Walker, of Moshannon, Centre Co.

Edwin Ebers, of Hublersburg, and Amanda Shreffler, of Pleasant Gap. Henry C. Coble and Sue W. Waite, of Millheim.

R. J. Miller, of Philadelphia, and Mary S. Gregg, of Potter township.

John Lyons, of Spring township, and Clara Sundry, of Bellefonte.

J. Morgan Thomas, of Paintersville, Mifflin Co., and Clara E. Barr, of Alfarata, Mifflin Co.

Local Notings.

All kinds of berries are unusually plenty and in some parts of the valley are selling at 4 cents per quart.

Peter Hoffer, one of our most worthy citizens, is still confined to his room, having been ill a number of weeks; all will be glad to see him out again.

Our readers will be glad to learn that the Delaware peach crop will be a very large one and the fruit low in price.

Get the Reporter for the campaign at 25 cents. Send in the names.

A goodly number of our good subscribers owe a goodly sum on the good Reporter, by paying up will be doing us great good.

Doctors Emerick and Jacobs inform us that sickness, of late has been on the increase, with a fair share about Pleasant Gap, the few serious cases.

Persons in the mountain districts wishing to bring berries as pay on Reporter, can do so.

Serious Run-off in a Hay Field.

On Wednesday afternoon as Mrs. McLanahan Musser, two miles south of our town was driving a horse in a hayrack, on which she sat, the horse, from some cause took fright and ran off. The lady was thrown under the rake and dragged a short distance. She was picked up unconscious, and an examination by Dr. Jacobs proved that a shoulder blade had been broken, and also some painful cuts about her face and head. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

Death at Millheim.

The Journal notes the death of the widow of Jacob Bartley, in the above town, on 27 ult., aged nearly 88 years. A number of children survive her.

GREGG-MILLER.

A Pretty Wedding Takes Place at the Home of Col. Andrew Gregg.

A very pretty and quiet wedding was solemnized last Tuesday at the residence of Col. Andrew Gregg, a few miles above town, when his daughter, Miss Mame Gregg was united in marriage to Mr. Roland Miller, of Philadelphia. Rev. Faus, of the Methodist church performed the ceremony.

The bride is an accomplished and refined young lady, and since the death of her mother she has efficiently borne the main responsibility of the household.

Mr. Miller is originally from Pleasant Gap, where his parents resided. He is now engaged in the painting business and located at Philadelphia, where he and his bride have gone to make their future home.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple were tendered with serenade music by the Pleasant Gap band.

Struck Magnetic Rock.

Alf. Krape and Jacob Lee, well drillers, are now at work on what was known as the Wm. Harter farm, one mile south of Aaronsburg, and have gone down 100 feet thro solid rock, starting in an old well a few rods from the barn. The rock proves to be magnetic and the drills become strongly magnetized in doing the work; other metallic instruments being rubbed with this rock, also become strongly magnetized. This is significant of the presence of ore. The water of the old well, which was 24 feet in depth, was strongly impregnated with sulphur, but has been dry for many years.

Married at Harrisburg.

On Saturday last, July 4th, Mr. Alfred P. Wieland and Miss Jennie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Mitchell, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at Harrisburg, Pa. Al, as he is more familiarly known among his Centre Hall associates, is a son of Mr. D. T. Wieland, of Linden Hall, and is now in charge of the Syracuse, N. Y., branch for the H. J. Heinz Co. Al and his wife will be at home after July 11th, at the La Concha, Syracuse.

Cut the Telephone Wires.

After the Millheim telephone company had its line in "hello" order to Rising Springs, along comes an order from the Penn'a railroad company to its track hands to cut the wires where they crossed the railroad and the wires were cut and the "hello" was stopped. We suppose the railroad company claims it owns all above it to the sky and all beneath to China, and if you desire to cross it with a wire you must ask them for the right-of-way.

Poverty Sociable.

There will be a poverty sociable held in the auditorium in Grange Park, on Thursday evening, July 16th, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the Reformed church. Everybody is invited, and requested to be attired in such apparel as the name suggests. Fines will be imposed on any unnecessary adornment. An entertaining programme is being prepared. Refreshments will be served.

The Grangers Picnic.

Monday, September 14th, is the date for the opening of the Grangers picnic at Centre Hall, and to continue for the week. The association will soon begin work in billing attractions and renting privileges. About all the necessary buildings are erected and there will not likely be any new ones erected.

F. M. F. Insurance.

The board of directors of the Centre Hall fire insurance company, held their regular quarterly meeting on Tuesday of last week and took insurances to the amount of $90,000. The loss on J. I. Thompson's barn, $910, with a few other small losses, will be paid without laying an assessment.

Big Black Snake Killed.

A few days ago near Potters Mills, Tom Farmer killed a black snake of no mean measurement; the snake showed fight but with the assistance of his dog Farmer killed the reptile. It measured 7 1/2 feet in length. We never heard of a larger one in these diggings.

Died in the West.

Elizabeth, wife of George W. Lanch, died at Dublin, Indiana, on 13 of June. She was a daughter of Lewis Long, many years ago a resident of Aaronsburg. Her husband, who survives her, was a native of Haines twp. and a tailor by trade.

Close of Season.

Next Wednesday, 15th, the legal season for trout fishing closes. No large and startling catches have been made this year. Nearly all the trout streams have been fished out, not by legitimate sportsmen, but by those living along the banks, in setting nets and outlines.

—Not a piece of old or shelf-worn stock is on the shelves of the Philad. Branch, Bellefonte. Their stock is new, their rooms new, and the prices are new to all competitors. The reputation of the firm in the past is a guarantee of their dealings with all customers at their store.

SAD ACCIDENT.

Serious Mishap at Hecla Park, on the 4th, to a Boy.

The festivities at Hecla Park, on the 4th, were saddened by a painful accident towards evening, by which a 14-year old son of Thomas Dunkle had his cheek bruised and jaw fractured in two places. The following are the particulars:

A balloon ascension was to take place about 4 p. m., which was held in place by two ropes fastened to two stout poles one inside the high board fence the other on the roadside without. A large crowd stood near watching the inflation of the balloon with hot air. At the moment a two-horse buggy came along and the top caught the one rope, the force pulled up the inside pole, some 10 inches in diameter, and it swung into the crowd, lodging on the board fence, luckily, for had it gone over, several persons in the crowd would have been killed by the heavy stick. It struck young Dunkle on the side of the face with the above painful result. Fortunately Dr. Fisher was present and attended to the badly injured lad, and the Dr. informs us the boy is getting along finely. The pole struck Ham Shreckengast on the arm badly bruising his hand and wrist. Joshua T. Potter tells us he made a narrow escape the pole having grazed the rim of his hat.

Squibs of the Fourth.

There was no celebration in this valley; people went elsewhere or remained at home.

At Centre Hall there was one continuous roar of anvils, squibs, crackers big and little, hissing of rockets, &c., from Friday night all Saturday close up to Sunday, and Young America kept up the patriotic racket to their hearts' content, and folks are glad the Fourth comes only once a year—the six, whiz, bang, bum, spoiled both appetite and sleep for the time being.

Ten year old Young America Parker, living with Harry Dinges, supplied himself with a package of crackers, and then afoot hied him off six miles to Potters Mills to "have a big time" and, we guess, scared the natives and perhaps the mad dogs too. He's one good for the next war, sure.

New Telephone Rates.

On and after July 1st, 1896, a new schedule will be put into operation by the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply Company in which numerous reductions of toll line tariffs are announced; besides which customers who continue conversations beyond the usual first five minute period, will be charged by the minute for each excess minute, one-fifth the initial message rate.

Harvesting.

Our farmers are harvesting hay and grain. The grass, clover in particular, was poor, hence the hay crop is about 65 per cent.

Wheat is about one-third of a crop. Rye is a fair crop. Ben Arney, near town, was among the first last week to have wheat cut and on shock.

The outlook for the fall crops is very promising. Oats, corn and potatoes are in fine condition and with a continuation of favorable weather there will be a full crop of these. Apples will be an average yield.

Frescoing the Church.

Two frescoers from Harrisburg have been at work the past week on the interior of the Reformed church. John Noll and his masons are putting on the finishing touches on the outside walls. The stained glass for the windows was ordered last week. A firm in Allegheny, Pa., will supply the glass.

Dentists Meet.

The twenty-eighth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Dental Society was held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, in the court house at Bellefonte. Dr. G. W. Hosterman, of this town is a member of the society, and attended the meeting.

Lecture in the M. E. Church.

Rev. W. W. Sholl will lecture in the M. E. church, Centre Hall, Tuesday evening, July 14; subject "Genesis and Exodus of our Nation's Peril." The gentleman comes highly recommended by competent parties. Give him a hearing. Doors open at 7.30, lecture to begin at 8 o'clock.

Religious Services.

Rev. M. W. Davis will preach in the Presbyterian church at this place next Sabbath morning at 10.30 o'clock, and at Potters Mills at 2.30 in the afternoon. A congregational meeting will be held immediately after the morning service.

Bought a Trotter.

Wm. J. Thompson, the merchant at Potter's Mills, bought a fast trotting horse at the sale at Millheim, a short time ago, at $160. Our friend Thompson always made time.

—The Philad. Branch, in their new room, Bellefonte, now carry a larger stock than any two stores in the town. The stock is all new and up-to-date, and the prices are away down. And then every deal is made satisfactory or money returned.
