THE CHICAGO NOMINEES.

The REPORTER knows of nothing in the lives of Bryan and Sewall that would be a discredit to these gentlemen or taint their loyalty as American citizens. That there were some cranks in the Chicago convention all must admit-cranks on the silver question, but the convention that nominated McKinley, also had this element to contend with and to leave as bolters. The most honorable and respected families are often weighted with a naughty son or two to the grief of the rest, yet the family holds together. Tillman and Altgeld having been members of the convention is no reason why Democrats should fall out over that, for did we not have many of our most trusted leaders, Whitney, Hill, Russell, Vilas, and others, there

We do not favor the silver plank in the platform, but would favor free coinage 25 to 1 in preference to 16 to 1. But that plank does not throw the REPORTER into hysterics as we do not have the least idea that a 50 cent silver dollar will henceforth receive the sanction of law under Bryan or any other administration.

The tariff plank in the Chicago platform is sound and stands against the wrongs of McKinleyism in its protection of trusts, monopolies and greedy millionaires who revel in wealth that when he lived in Lincoln, Mr. robbed from the farmers, laborers and consumers of the country. Herein the Chicago platform is sound and the St. Louis platform is viciously wrong.

As between the two we see no reason why any Democrat should prefer McKinley to Bryan.

In our last week's issue we predicted Bryan would be the nominee, and, as usual, our surmising was correct.

WITH Bryan from Nebraska and Sewall from Maine, the ticket certainly must be considered a broad one, and with Sewall's many ships there should be good sailing.

THE Republicans, and M'Kinley, are becoming greatly alarmed over the spread of the "free silver craze." See if the Canton straddler won't next carry a silver watch.

THE Democrats of Bellefonte held a lively Bryan ratification meeting last Friday evening, at which speeches snake. It was several hours before he were made by Heinle, Sechler, Taylor, Wetzel and Bower.

THE Republican county ticket is an immensely one-sided affair—all the tion. His side is swollen and spotted side of the table, leaving the plates for the Penn's valley side turned down.

A FRIEND of Mr. Bryan who knew him when he formerly lived in Lincoln, Neb., about six years ago, in speaking of him a few days ago, said Bryan was a member of the law firm of Talbot and Bryan, in that city, and the young and rising attorney used to go to his place of business opposite daily, and that no man in Lincoln was more highly respected than he was.

Another friend was an old German who had a furniture store nearby, a sort of a little repair shop, and nothing pleased Mr. Bryan more than when the trio would get together to discuss the topics of the day. That was before he made his contest for a seat in Congress with Mr. Connell. His great hobby was debating the topics of the day, and particularly those of a political nature. Mr. Bryan was always a hale fellow well met, jolly, jovial to a great extent yet withal brainy and studious. He was boyish in appearance, however, and boyish in his ways.
