SPRINGER-STIFFLER.

Our Young Torsorial Artist Joins the Army of Benedicts.

Tired of the delusions and gilded pleasures of single blessedness, another young man has stepped down and out, slammed the door behind him, and launched his bark on the serene delights of the matrimonial seas. Only human he courted that blissful fortune which is always devoutly wished for by "two souls with but a single thought—two hearts that beat as one," and last Tuesday Mr. H. S. Springer, of Millheim, our finished torsorial artist, and Miss Mable T. Stiffler, of Tusseyville, were united in the sacred tie that heaven applauds and endorses.

That same skill and dash displayed by Mr. Springer in the pursuit of his trade characterized him when he plucked from nature's galaxy of beauty the idol of his heart—not alone to share the sweets of connubial felicity, but the more, as a worthy helpmeet in the vicissitudes of temporal life.

The ceremony was performed at the Evangelical parsonage by Rev. Erdman. After the ceremony and congratulations of the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Springer, filled with love, hope, and enthusiastic devotion, repaired to the hotel where they partook of a sumptuous wedding dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Springer will be "at home" in Centre Hall until the heated season passes away.

Crowds Went.

The camping being held near Rebersburg by the United Evangelical congregation drew big crowds on Sunday. Almost every one with a rig went down and all parts were well represented. There were over thirty tents, and the public was accommodated by a big boarding house on the grounds.

Burglars at Mill Hall.

Burglars were hard at work at Mill Hall on last Thursday night. They entered the house of Dr. J. B. McCloskey, took his pantaloons from his room and emptied its pockets containing a watch and $8 in money. From the house of L. T. Hunter the coat and vest of George Snyder were taken. His watch, which was in his vest pocket, is also missing.

Sheep Killed.

In Ferguson township, this county, more than one hundred fine sheep have been destroyed by the canines. The farmers seem at a loss to know how to protect their property, as the killing is always done at night.

BIG FIRE AT BOALSBURG.

Three Dwelling Houses Destroyed Last Night.—Loss Heavy.

Last evening between 10 and 11 o'clock, the town of Boalsburg was the scene of an exciting time in a big fire which destroyed three dwelling houses and a lot of outbuildings.

The fire originated in the rear of the property owned by Smith Gaul, and when discovered had gained such headway it was impossible to extinguish it. Efforts were made to save the household goods and most of the furniture was saved. This property is owned by the Hollidaysburg Building and Loan Association. The dwelling of Mrs. Baumgardner adjoins and it took but a short time until this building was ablaze. The large brick dwelling house, the Jack property soon caught fire, and despite all efforts the three dwellings were burned to the ground.

It is unknown how the fire originated. There is an insurance on the Jack dwelling of $1000 in the Centre Hall Co. Of the other properties one had an insurance of $600 the other of $100 in other companies. The loss on the three buildings will be about $5000.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

A Lad Gets a Bullet in His Hip While at Target Practice.

Last Saturday Willouby and Harry, aged fifteen and nine years respectively, sons of William Fultz, at Potters Mills, were shooting at a mark with a 32 calibre revolver. The boys had been shooting for some time and the older boy Willouby had the revolver. Harry was in the bushes close to the target and when his brother was aiming at the target and about to fire, Harry jumped out from some bushes, right in line and received the ball in his right hip.

He was taken to his home and a physician dressed the wound, but the ball has not yet been located. The little fellow is doing as well as possible under the circumstances, but is able to leave the house.

An Exciting Time

There was an exciting time in the mountains near Cross Forks, Clinton county, Thursday. David Thompson, a contractor, had promised to pay his men, who are working in the woods, their wages in the morning. Failing to do so the men in their anger captured their employer and carried him into the woods where a rope was tightened about his neck and he was suspended from a limb of a tree. A foreman in Thompson's employ reached the spot at this juncture, and at the point of a rifle compelled the would-be lynchers to desist. Thompson was unconscious when released, and his recovery is doubtful.

Fitted Up the Stage.

The Grangers have fitted up their stage in the auditorium building by putting in a back scene and wings. A new drop curtain will be placed, and then the stage will be in first class shape. It has been entirely open, and the addition of curtain and wings will be a big improvement. McSuley Brothers, of Bellefonte, are doing the work. The work will be finished in time for the picnic.

Taking Out the Dirt.

The hill at Kerlin's which is being cut down by the council will make an easy grade where that former steep hill was. The flat below is being filled up, and the top has been cut down about four or five feet. A good layer of lime stone has been struck and this will be crushed and used on the streets in other parts of the town. The stone is hard and several blasts have been made to break up the strata.

A Cowardly Trick.

Last Saturday evening at the Mazepa campmeeting a disturbance occurred among some of the rougher element who seem to delight in turning up on such occasions. Rev. A. Stapleton, of this place, endeavored to restore order, when some coward struck him from behind with a "billy." The blow was a severe one and stunned Mr. Stapleton for awhile. He is able however, to be about again.—Lewisburg Journal.

How to Keep Milk.

It has been declared upon good authority that milk can be kept for a week by canning it as one would fruit. Fill glass jars and screw down the lids; then place them in a steamer over cold water. Heat the water gradually and steam the jars for an hour, then tighten the tops. The woman who has preserved milk in this way says she can see no reason why it should not keep much longer.

Ore Mines Again Started.

After a three months' shut down the large ore mines of the Carnegie company at Scotia, this county, have again been started up and are now running full time, which means employment to several hundred men.

George Hubler.

George Hubler, a well-known farmer living 1 mile west of Rebersburg, died on Saturday morning, 8, aged 50 years. Last September he attended the grange picnic at this place, and on his return he had a severe stroke of paralysis from which he never recovered.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Joe Treaster, of Potters Mills, Meets Death at Geneva, N. Y.

On Tuesday afternoon a message over the long distance telephone to Potters Mills, announced the death of Joe Treaster, of Potters Mills, by being killed by a train at Geneva, N. Y.

No particulars of the accident could be obtained owing to the wires working badly and it was with difficulty that the message could be gotten through. Joe was a son of Irvin Treaster, who lives south of Potters Mills, and left home about a year ago. It is not known whether he met his death as an employe on the railroad or otherwise, and his father, who has been unable to leave his bed for some time is anxiously awaiting further information.

The body will not be shipped home but will be buried at Geneva. He was aged about 24 years and was unmarried.

Got a Hit.

A game of ball was played at Millheim yesterday between a scrub team from Centre Hall and the team at that place. When all the boys had made a circuit of the bags and the total footed up, the clerks agreeing in the tally, it was found that Millheim was in the lead to the tune of 33 to our boys 9. The Millheim boys have won their first game from us and they piled up the runs with a vengeance in order to partly atone for the past.

After Gas and Oil.

For several months past Messrs. T. H. Harmon and J. W. Devling, of Lock Haven, have been engaged in securing leases on lands north of that city with a view of prospecting for gas or oil. The leases have now all been secured, and the territory embraced by the leases contains about 15,000 acres.

The increased value of property that would result from striking oil would be worth all the effort that will be made. This supposed new gas territory is near enough to Jersey Shore and Williamsport to pipe it to those cities.

Drowned at Glen Iron.

On Thursday of last week, Mr. Oscar Wirth, a young married man, of Glen Iron, was drowned while bathing in Penn's Creek. Two companions were with him when the accident occurred. Dr. Mohn, of Laurelton, was summoned after the body was taken from the water, but all attempts at resuscitation were of no avail. The remains were interred at Lincoln Chapel on Saturday.

Mr. Smalley's Literary Mission Abroad.

George W. Smalley, the famous American editor-author, has been granted a two months' holiday by his paper, the London Times, and has gone abroad on a special mission for The Ladies' Home Journal. He is engaged to prepare a short series of articles for that magazine, and is gathering the material for them in Europe. The work will necessitate his spending part of the summer in England, and the remainder in Germany.

The Ivy Poison.

Railroad section boss Smetzler is suffering greatly at present from the effects of the poison ivy plant. He was down near Penn Cave station the other day and the wind blew from the plant to him, and he got the full benefit, notwithstanding not having touched the plant. His entire body is covered with the poison and his limbs are much swollen.

Bitten by a Copperhead.

Emma Monsell, aged twelve years, was bitten by a copperhead last Monday evening, at McCoy's iron works, near Milesburg. She was going to a spring to get a bucket of water when the snake struck her on the right foot. She suffered greatly and her leg and foot swelled to double its normal size, and was spotted like the skin of the snake. She will recover.

Condition not Improved.

We are sorry to learn that the condition of Rev. Ditzel, now in the hospital in Philadelphia, where his leg was amputated above the knee, a short time ago, is not improving. We also hear a rumor that another amputation may be necessary. His friends here sympathize with him in his misfortune.

Another Trial for the Goodhart Case.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has reversed the court of Mifflin county in the case of J. M. Goodhart vs. the Penn'a Railroad Co., and another trial will be necessary. The case has already been tried twice first before Judge McClure who granted a new trial, and next before Judge Williamson. At the last trial the jury awarded $30,000 damages.

A Good Crop.

The apple crop will be a big one in the valley. If the market price is away down there will be an enormous amount of cider made. Some years it seems to pay better to squeeze the juice out of them than to sell the fruit.

Harvest Service.

The annual harvest services will be held next Sunday by the Spring Mills Lutheran congregation. All the members be prepared to contribute their benevolence. Envelopes will be distributed before the services.

DEATH OF J. G. KURTZ.

A Former Well-known Resident of Centre Co., Dies in Washington.

Col. John George Kurtz, formerly of this county, died in Washington City, on Wednesday night, 19 inst. He contracted chronic diarrhoea while in the army, having served as Quarter Master of the 148 Reg., from which disease he suffered until his death. He was a brother of the editor of this paper. He leaves a widow and two daughters to mourn his loss. The older daughter, Miss Carrie, remained with the family, the younger, Emma, is the wife of John Hackenberg, dealer in China ware, at Milton. His age was 67 years, 4 months and 30 dys. His remains will be interred at Aaronsburg, on Saturday forenoon, 22 inst.

The deceased in his early manhood resided at Aaronsburg, where he assisted in the publication of the "Centre Berichter." He afterwards went to Bellefonte where he founded the "Central Press" which he conducted with distinguished ability for a period of over ten years. He was a natural artist and one of the finest job printers in the state. He moved from Bellefonte to Milton, where he established a job office, and had two printing offices destroyed by large fires which fell to the lot of that town. He has resided in Washington, D. C., during the last five years. In his early boyhood he was confirmed a member of the Lutheran church, in York, Pa. Stern integrity and uprightness were shining traits of his character. The widow, is Louisa, one the daughters of the late Emanuel Ettinger, of Aaronsburg, and a sister of the wife of Maj. Harry Foster, of Harrisburg. Surviving him are Mrs. Wm. Ettinger, of Milton, Mrs. David Hershberger, of Hublersburg, and Frederick Kurtz of Centre Hall. The oldest brother, Lewis, died in Pueblo, Col., last fall.

DIED NEAR COLYER.

Mrs. Calvin S. Bottorf, an Estimable Lady, Succumbs to the Inevitable.

The community and the town of Colyer was greatly shocked last week when the announcement was made of the death of Mrs. Calvin S. Bottorf, which occurred on last Thursday, at the home of her husband, after an illness of several weeks, during which time she suffered greatly.

About four weeks ago Mrs. Bottorf was taken ill, having received a slight fall at her home, slipping from a board walk. She received a severe strain, which resisted medical skill. Other complications setting in, and being afflicted for years with an ailment of the heart, she gradually grew worse and died on last Thursday, after giving birth to a little son.

Mrs. Bottorf was a lady of kind and affectionate disposition, and was greatly attached to her family. In her community she was highly respected and was the friend of all. She was a daughter of Mr. Aaron Luckenbach, who now resides at Boone, Boone county, Neb., and was aged 41 years, 10 months and 1 day. She leaves a sorrowing husband and eight children five daughters and three sons, one son having died several years ago.

The funeral took place on Sunday morning from the residence of her husband, near Colyer, Rev. Erdman of the Evangelical church, officiated in the services, and the funeral was very largely attended. The interment was made in the Tusseyville cemetery.

State Grange May Meet in Lock Haven.

An effort is to be made to have the State Grange hold its annual meeting in this city in December. Mr. Joel A. Herr, who is interested in the matter was in the city for the purpose of ascertaining the number of people the different hotels can accommodate, and looking after other matters connected with the meeting. There are about 500 delegates attend the annual meeting and usually 200 or more persons who are not delegates. Lock Haven can accommodate all who come and will extend them a cordial welcome.—Republican.

Working on the Power House.

The large boiler and engine at Colyer's plant is being erected this week, and the power house with its equipment will soon be complete. Mr. C. Poulson, the spoke and handle man, from Howard is here assisting in the work, and as soon as everything is ready for his machinery, he will jump it over here very quickly.

Death of a Child.

Mabel Junie Tate, a grand-daughter of Mr. Amos Parker, died last Thursday afternoon, aged about two years, of cholera infantum. She was buried on Saturday in the Centre Hall cemetery.

—The Philadelphia Branch leads in common sense clothing at common sense prices—hard time prices. They look for only a fair profit there. In many of the goods they sell they don't get any.

THE SUMMER SLUMP...

In prices is felt here just as much as any where, and as a result Shoes are being sold at about a third less than they are worth—that is less any profit and part of the cost to us last spring.

Of course, we lose something every time we make a sale, but we'd rather lose a little now than much later on.
