

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going—Visitors in and out of town.

Witmer Smith, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday with his parents. Miss Bertha Scott, of Tyrone, is visiting her friend Miss Emily Alexander. Mrs. Scholl, of Rebersburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Hosterman. Miss Tace Kreamer returned home Tuesday after a visit of several weeks in Rebersburg. Merchant Jacob Smith, of Colyer, was out to Centre Hall Monday on a business trip. James H. Lohr, of Philadelphia, is spending his vacation with his father on Church street. Chris H. Murray left last week for Philadelphia after a week's visit with his parents here. Miss Anna Bartholomew left Monday for Millersville, to resume her studies at the State Normal. Mrs. R. B. Spangler, of Hastings, is visiting at the home of ex-Sheriff Spangler, on Church street. Auctioneer J. N. Letzler, of Rising Springs, gave us a call and reports general health down that way good. Miss Ange Jones, daughter of Capt. Jones of the Tyrone Herald, is visiting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Boal. Our young friend Shadow, of Tusseyville, was a caller, and inspected the work of getting out newspapers. Miss Helen Bartholomew went to Millheim Monday, where she will teach the primary school for the coming term. C. P. Hewes was in town the other day on legal business; Charly has a large practice and is a safe sound-seller in any case. Mrs. Cyrus Brumgard and Mrs. Harry Diebler, two of Millheim's good ladies, were guests at James Alexander's on Monday. Mrs. B. J. Heckert, accompanied by her sister, Miss Chestie Tibbens—two very pleasant ladies—were welcome callers the other day. Walter M. Kerlin left Monday to resume his duties as teacher of the third grade of the Millheim school. They opened on Monday for a seven months term. Julian Fleming is here on a short visit to his father-in-law, Mr. Daniel Fleisher. Julian is general agent for an implement firm and has his headquarters at Pittsburg. Miss Mame Kreamer, who had been visiting among friends in Philadelphia, Norristown, and other towns down east, returned home on Tuesday after an absence of a month. Gottlieb Strohmeyer and family were off to Asbury Park taking in the balmy breezes of the ocean. They returned home Monday morning much pleased with the trip to the shore. Commissioners Goodhart, Adams and Strohm, Register G. W. Rumberger, and Surveyor Wetzel, were in town yesterday on their way across the valley to do some surveying. Jerry Miller came home last Friday and is now at work in his shop again. He had been working at Atlantic City for the last couple months and his stay at the shore has given him quite a coat of tan. Mrs. Arney, wife of Dr. George Arney, accompanied by her son and niece, are visiting at the home of B. H. Arney, having driven from their home in Altoona to this place, making the trip in less than two days. P. T. Jordan and wife, of Joliet, Ill., are visiting friends in this vicinity. Mr. Jordan informed us he left this place 32 years ago when our town was only one third as large as now; they are enjoying their visit, which is their first since they left. Mrs. Jordan is a daughter of Fred Seltzer, a former well-known resident of Potter township. Candidate for commissioner, P. H. Meyer, of Harris, spent a half hour in our sanctum the other day. He reports all healthy for Bryan up that way. Phillip comes from such good old Democratic stock that has ever been faithful in its party work. This campaign the Meyers' receive the first recognition from the party by placing the Prof. on the ticket for commissioner. He is well and favorably known all over the county and is a strong man on the ticket. John Q. A. Kennedy joined his family on Monday, who have been visiting Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mrs. Thomas Lingle. Mr. Kennedy along with Mr. Michael Shires have been very successful with their patented fire escape, which they manufacture in Johnstown. The escape has been endorsed by the Boards of Public Safety in all the large cities. It is built entirely of steel. The escape is rolled up on a reel or drum and is fitted in a handsome case inside the window ledge. When used it is thrown out the window, making a steel ladder to the ground. They have been employing a big force of men in their factory, and this is being gradually increased to meet the demands. Get the Reporter for the campaign, only 20 cents.

LINDEN HALL.

A Breezy Letter From Our Neighboring Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bible spent Sunday with friends at Centre Hill. Henry Zeigler spent Tuesday of this week in Pinegrove Mills and vicinity. A. E. Moyer's were entertaining some of their many friends on Sunday last. George Potter, of Bellefonte, was seen in our community one day this week. S. D. Gettig, Esq., of Bellefonte, was in our community on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frantz, of Pinegrove Mills, were at the home of Mr. Seanson on Monday last. Misses Lizzie and Valerie Gettig visited at the home of Alfred Hosterman, at Centre Hill, on Thursday last. Miss Elsie Bible spent a week with her grandparents at Centre Hall recently and reports having had a pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan, accompanied by Mrs. McClellan's sister visited friends at Tusseyville on Sunday. Messrs. David Brisbin and Clem Deininger, of Centre Hall, were callers at the home of George Swabb on Sunday evening. Mr. Hettinger, accompanied by his lady friend, Miss Reish, of Egg Hill, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Molter, of this place. Messrs. A. E. Zeigler and Jacob Lee, two of our brightest and most energetic young men spent Sunday with friends near Tusseyville. Josiah Zeigler, of Pleasant Gap, paid a visit to his sick mother on Tuesday last; we are glad to state that Mrs. Zeigler is slowly improving. Some of our people were in attendance at Andrew Gregg's funeral on Saturday and report it to be the largest funeral held in this section for many years. Wm. Swabb, of Erie, Pa., is visiting his parents, George Swabb, of this place; this was Will's boyhood home and his many friends are glad to see him looking so well and natural. Dr. A. E. Gobbie, of New Berlin, will fill the pulpit for the United Evangelical congregation on Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock, in place of Rev. Goodling, as had been announced before. Rev. Goodling will fill Rev. Zehner's place at Bellefonte on Sunday afternoon. Dr. Gobbie is an able minister of the Gospel and if you do not wish to miss a treat, come and hear him; if the weather is favorable the services will be held in the grove south of town, and if it should prove to be inclement it will be held in the school house; the Sunday school will also be held in the grove if the weather is fair; Sunday school at 1:30 o'clock.

Potters Mills.

The Potters Mills band is putting up a wagon for their own use; it is an expensive affair and to make some money to help pay for it the band have concluded to hold another festival, in Allison's grove, on Saturday evening, Sept. 5. If they had waited until after the election and we get free silver, they would have saved some money. The farmers were glad for the little rain which fell on Monday morning; they are busy sowing their grain, on which they depend for a living. Edward Evans, of Williamsport, arrived in town Monday to spend his vacation with his parents. George Kline and wife, of Louisville, Kentucky, stopped at the Reish House last week. The school directors are preparing for the winter term of school by getting the buildings cleaned and put in proper order. J. R. Strong has found it necessary to put up his cider press, so that the apples in our community will not go to loss. Tuesday set the squirrels free for the hunter's target, but the squirrels are not plenty in these parts, which will be a disappointment to the hunters.

A Household Necessity.

A man and wife are both liable for the payment for a newspaper which is taken in the family. Recently in the district court at Rock Rapids, Iowa, Judge Oliver gave a judgment to the Germania Publishing Co., against Mr. and Mrs. Beving for a subscription bill of $20 on the ground that a newspaper is a household necessity. A hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed may lead to chronic bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be found than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effect is immediate and the result permanent.

What a Little Boy Can Do.

August 23d while James Martin, of Mt. Zion, Lycoming county, was at Sunday school, his little boy built a fire with hay and straw on the threshing floor of the barn. Four horses, all the farming implements, grain and hay were consumed with the building.

Sick Headache Permanently Cured

"I was troubled, a long time, with sick headache. It was usually accompanied with severe pains in the temples and sickness at the stomach. I tried a good many remedies recommended for this complaint; but it was not until I began taking AYER'S Pills that I received anything like permanent benefit. A single box of these pills did the work for me, and I am now a well man."
