The Tireless Writer.

An exchange says: Did you ever stop to think what a tireless letter writer a good local paper is? Week after week, reaching into year after year, it goes on telling of the marriages, births, deaths and comings and goings of the people of the town, the business successes and failures, accidents, crops, improvements, meetings, revivals, in fact events of all kinds. All is gist that comes to the hopper of a good local paper. Why, if you were to undertake to write a letter each week to your absent friend and tell half of the news that your local paper gives you, you would soon give up in despair. The supposed pleasure becomes tiresome, the letters become shorter further apart, then finally quit. Why the difference? Because with a newspaper it is business. People of a lively town recognize this and take pleasure in giving the editor news items you would never think or learn of.

Don't Kill the Sparrows.

Don't kill the little English sparrow. For a long time past these little birds have been considered a common nuisance and every means has been used to get rid of them. They are now showing their good qualities by making havoc of the army worms that have been making total destruction of the crops for some time.

AMATEUR THEATRICALS.

Home Talent to Render "Hick'ry Farm" Saturday Evening.

The comedy-drama, "Hick'ry Farm," will be produced in the auditorium in Grange Park, Saturday evening next, by a company of home talent. The play will be rendered for the benefit of the Reformed church. An admission of 25 cents, children 15 cents will be charged. The stage in the auditorium was recently fitted with scenery, drop curtain and back ground.

THE CAST. Ezekial Fortune, New England farmer—Prof. E. J. Wolf. Uriah Skinner, a miser—W. C. Booser. Gilbert Darkwood, handsome and unscrupulous—W. G. Mingle. Jack Nelson—Edwin Kerlin. Lawrence McKee, an older man from the city—C. F. Delinger. Detective Rankin—W. D. Shoop. Constables—Lyman Smith and C. H. Meyer. Jessie Fortune, pretty and unsophisticated—Miss Grace Alexander. Mrs. Priscilla Dodge, a susceptible widow—Miss Emily Alexander.

The following brief synopsis will give the reader an idea of the play. Gilbert Darkwood, a crook from the city, has discovered that a projected railroad intends erecting a station on Ezekial Fortune's place, Hickory Farm. Darkwood plots with Skinner to obtain the title deed from Fortune, dispossess him, and reap the profits of the sale. Skinner, who has a long standing grudge against Fortune, agrees to steal the deed. Darkwood discovers that Fortune's only daughter Jessie, the little country girl whose head he had turned the preceding winter in the city, and induces her to elope with him. Before leaving, Darkwood obtains the deed, and also manages to rob the Maryville bank (which contains all Fortune's earnings), and to cast suspicion of the robbery upon Jack Nelson, Fortune's adopted son, who is in love with Jessie. In the second act, Darkwood, who has sold Fortune's house over his head, appears and demands the rent for the poor neighbor, in return to expose Darkwood. A detective arrives and, with Skinner's help, obtains evidence that Darkwood robbed the bank. Jessie Fortune and Jack Nelson's names are cleared of suspicion, and the farm is restored to old Fortune. The love passages of Alderman McKee and Mrs. Dodge afford a humorous little side issue in the drama.

The Coming Fair at Brook Park, Lewisburg, Pa.

The forty-third annual fair of Union County Agricultural Society will be held at Brook Park, Lewisburg, on September 29-30 and Oct. 1-2. Excursion rates on all railroads. It is one of the oldest organizations of the kind in the county. It has stood the Test of Time, because from the start it has been steadfast in the belief that honesty is the best of policy. With increased age, its exhibitions become better. This fact will be demonstrated this year more than ever before. New Officers, New Track, and Large Purses. The Committee have formulated a list of premiums that will prove very attractive to owners of fast horses, Live stock raisers, farmers and farmers' Organizations, manufacturers and others, full particulars are given on pamphlets issued by the society which can be had on application, or by addressing C. Dale Wolfe, Secretary, Lewisburg, Pa. The public is assured that this year's exhibition will prove pre-eminently attractive. C. DALE WOLFE, Sec.

Time Set.

The time for the dedication of the new Reformed church has been determined on, and unless something unforeseen happens these services will be held about Sunday for weeks. All the furniture and furnishings will be placed soon. The building has a constant string of visitors, and all express great admiration for it. Walks have been laid in front, and the outside cleaned up of building rubbish.

Teachers' Married.

At noon, on 2 inst., Rev. J. F. Denison performed the marriage ceremony which united Joseph H. Tudor, professor of mathematics in the State College, and Miss Caroline R. Hunter, formerly an instructress there. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, Capt. John A. Hunter. That a long life of happiness may be in store for the happy couple is the Reporter's fond wish.

An Old Town.

The people of Dunnstown want a postoffice established at that place. A petition is being circulated for signatures, which will be forwarded to the department at Washington. The first postoffice in Clinton county was established at Dunnstown in the year 1800. For about thirty years past there has been no postoffice in the town.

Plenty of Bugs.

The potato bug is showing himself numerous on the roads and walks in these parts; at the Spring Mills station, the other day, we observed two or three of these bugs on almost every square yard of the platform. They were of the yellow, or gold back kind and seemed to be heading for Canton, Ohio.

Married Today.

The marriage of Miss Anna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mingle, to Emory Hoy, of Philadelphia, occurs today, Thursday, at one o'clock, at the home of the bride-elect's parents. The wedding will be private, only the immediate friends and relatives being present.

Presbyterian Services.

Rev. Covert, of East Conemaugh, will preach in the Presbyterian church at Spring Mills next Sabbath, Sept. 13th, at 10.30 a. m., and at Centre Hall at 2.30 p. m.

The Philadelphia Branch leads in common sense clothing at common sense prices—hard time prices. They look for only a fair profit there. In many of the goods they sell they don't get any.

CRUSHING STONE.

The Council Hard at Work Making New Streets.

Tuesday the boro started the stone crusher at work on the big pile of stones excavated from the hill in front of A. S. Kerlin's home, down street. The crusher belongs to Harris township and costs the boro $4.50 per day for the use. This includes the services of a man to run the machine. George Emerick's engine furnishes the power, with Sam Rowe as engineer. The crusher keeps two wagons hauling away the fine stone and works fast and does the work very satisfactorily.

A covering of crushed stone, to the width of eighteen feet is being placed on the street, which is over fifty feet wide from curb to curb. This is not wide enough, and as in all road making around here the driving and hauling will be done in the middle of this strip, and repairs will soon be necessary.

When the pile at Kerlin's has been crushed, the crusher will be moved back on Hoffer street and the stone on the hill there will be worked up. There was no money in the borough treasury when the street improvements were started, and council had to borrow several hundred dollars to start on. The statement will show a big expenditure and a good sized tax will be levied upon the citizens. The work has scarcely begun.

Veteran Re-union.

Last Saturday was chilly and the afternoon was wet, yet over 1,500 persons attended the 24th annual re-union of the Centre County Veteran club, at Hecla park. Gen. James A. Beaver presided, and addresses were made by John Hamilton and R. A. Cassidy, of Canton, and histories of commands read by Capt. S. H. Bennison, Capt. S. H. Williams and John A. Daley. Gen. Beaver, as chairman of the Curtin Monument Fund committee, reported that there is now pledged over $1,500.

The new officers are: President, Jas. A. Beaver; Vice President, W. C. Patterson; Secretary, W. P. Musser; Treasurer, George M. Boal.

A Big Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stover, west of Old Fort was filled with many friends to the number of over thirty, last Thursday evening, who had gathered to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mollie H. to Mr. S. Elmer Ishler, of Boalsburg. Rev. Rearick officiated at the services, which were impressive as the bride and groom pledged their troth. After the ceremony an elaborate supper was served the guests and the evening was spent enjoyably. The bride received a number of useful and pretty presents.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week: James W. Duff, State College, and Mable A. Woomer, of Benner township. Clayton Hicks and Mary E. Jekes, of Patton twp. Irvin B. Loose and Aggie Hartman, of Millheim. Dr. Thos. O. Glenn and Annie C. Woods, of Boalsburg. Francis W. Smith and Olive B. Van Valm, of Unionville.

Getting Livelier.

The coming picnic next week is beginning to be felt in the town. It is daily becoming more and more livelier, and this will continue until it is all over. Strange faces are numerous on the streets, and almost all of our business places are getting a hump on themselves, and laying in a stock of goods that will catch the outside nickle.

Running Full.

Work in the bituminous coal mines of the Snow Shoe district is now better than at any time in the past five years. The Lehigh Valley company, the Snow Shoe mining company and the Kelley Bros. are working full capacity, running night and day to fill orders. The Beech Creek region also shows an increase in its output.

Rev. Rearick's Appointments.

Sunday, Sep. 13, in St. Luke's ch., Centre Hall, at 10 a. m.; in St. John's church, Far. Mills, at 7 p. m.; in Cross church, Georges valley, at 2 p. m.

A New Station.

On and after Monday, Sept. 7th, the Bellefonte Central R. R. Co. will run schedule trains to "Bloomdorf" a new station on the Pine Grove extension where it crosses the White Hall road about two miles west of the present terminus at Strubles.

THE PICNIC.

The Tents Up and Extensive Preparations Being Made.

The Granger picnic opens next Monday 14th, and extensive preparations are now being made for the event. On Monday a big gang of men were started to work getting the park in shape and erecting the tents. No changes will be made in the location of the streets and drives, and the park will be laid out similar to that of last year. A car load of tents arrived Monday and these are all up by this time.

Tuesday morning the merry-go-round was on the ground and the owners started to put up the machine. Several other attractions are anxious to get here this week, including a big show, but it is likely they will be held off for several days.

The boarding houses and several shops have been put up already and by the end of the week the greater part of the work will be done.

About 250 tents have been erected. These, the management say will be nearly all taken by those who want to camp out and enjoy a week at the picnic.

Went to the Hospital.

John Durst, who had his arm broken two or three months ago by a heavily loaded hay wagon running over it, has gone to Jefferson hospital at Philadelphia for treatment. The fractured bones would not unite again, and he was compelled to go to the hospital where the bones will be scraped and the arm set again. He went down about two weeks ago, and was accompanied by George Condo.

A Bicycle Factory.

The Lock Haven Republican says, there is a movement on foot to establish a bicycle manufactory in Flemington and there are good prospects of the move being successful. Considerable of the required amount of stock has been taken and on Monday evening a meeting of the stockholders to organize the company will be held. The Harvey foundry building will be used as the factory and a high grade wheel will be manufactured. The enterprise will give employment to a number of hands.

Big Barn Burned.

Wednesday night the large barn on the Rev. Joseph Nesbitt estate, on Cedar run, Clinton county, was destroyed by fire. The tenant, Frank Stevens, lost a quantity of grain, a colt, and a calf in the flames. The barn was 60 by 75 feet and was comparatively new. The origin of the fire is believed to be incendiary. With the barn a number of outbuildings were also burned. The barn was valued at $1,500, on which there was an insurance of $1,000.

Inter-County Fair at Milton.

The 12th annual fair of the Milton Driving Park and Fair Association will be held this fall on October 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. The speed program offers purses aggregating $2,125. The premiums for stock, agricultural exhibits, mechanical, and art displays amount to over $5,000. A magnificent attraction has been secured that will insure patrons of the fair a fine equestrian entertainment each day, including hurdle, Roman standing, chariot and team races, etc. Excursion rates on all the railroads.

Sudden Death at Tyrone.

People of Tyrone were startled on Sunday morning, 6, as the news spread that Martin Crawford was dead. He retired to bed the night before in his usual good health and next morning a little past six o'clock he got up and went down to make his kitchen fire. While attending to this he felt a sudden pain at his heart and before help could reach him expired. Mr. Crawford has been in the hardware business in Tyrone for many years and was a highly respected citizen.

Will Not Be Crowded.

The compulsory school law which goes into effect for the first this Fall, will not overcrowd the boro schools, as is reported in many sections since its enforcement. Only four or five scholars whose parents allowed them to stay away, will be compelled to attend, and there is plenty of room for these.

Increased the Supply.

The water company have increased the supply into the reservoirs by turning in new springs. The springs are all very low and great care is necessary that the demands may be met. The water is shut off at night and turned on again in the morning.

Will Build a Bridge.

The county commissioners will build a new bridge in Potter township across the stream near Daniel Fleisher's farm. It will likely be of iron. The commissioners and the builder were over last week looking over the ground.

The knack of looking well is due principally to the clothing one wears; to dress well does not necessarily mean that one must own a silver mine or have a "corner" on gold. Inquire at the Philadelphia Branch—what they don't know about fitting you out nobly and at a low figure no one else knows.

THE SUMMER SLUMP...

In prices is felt here just as much as any where, and as a result Shoes are being sold at about a third less than they are worth—that is less any profit and part of the cost to us last spring.

Of course, we lose something every time we make a sale, but we'd rather lose a little now than much later on.
