

PERSONAL MENTION.

Coming and Going.—Visitors in and out of Town.

—C. H. Goodling and wife, of York, Pa., are visiting his parents, Rev. Goodling's.

—James Smith and wife, of Williamsport are visiting at his parents over the picnic.

—James Stewart is up from New Bloomfield taking care of his interests and putting in the week.

—Rev. S. H. Deitzel is camping at the park, and locomotes with crutches until he can be fitted with an artificial limb.

—Mrs. T. P. Hayes, of Watson-town, Pa., is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Potter, west of town.

—Miss Jessie Durst, one of Tusseyville's very amiable young ladies, was a caller at our sanctum to transact business.

—Charley Dorworth, late editor of the Bellefonte News, is taking in the picnic. He is reporting for several Philadelphia papers.

—Democratic candidate for Sheriff, W. M. Cronister is holding down a tent this year. He's getting around among the people and making hosts of friends.

—Landlord Willis Rishel, of Lewistown, gave us a call and put his label in good shape. We are pleased to learn from him that he is doing a thriving hotel business.

—Mrs. Martha Orlandy, the mother of Superior Court Judge Orlandy, was seriously ill at the home of Mr. W. A. Boal, the last week, from dysentery. She is slowly recovering.

—Our esteemed Democratic farmer friend, Jacob Neese, of Gregg, gave us a call and reports all well in his vicinity; he raised over 900 bushels of potatoes from four acres of ground.

—Harrison Kline, the Republican nominee for Treasurer, with his family, is tenting on the ground. Although a Patron and taking a tent every year, he's got a double bit ax to grind this time.

—Candidates for Legislature Schofield and Foster, and also "Little Phil" Womelsdorf are on the ground. They will be here all week, and there will be very few people who won't know they have been here.

—Our worthy friend, Geo. Swab, of Harris, has been here for a week, making himself useful in superintending the Harris twp. stone crusher which is chewing up boro rocks. The crusher was purchased from agent Samuel Rowe.

—Rev. Covert, of East Conemaugh Pa., was the guest of Prof. W. A. Krise over Sunday. He is a minister of the Presbyterian church, and filled the pulpit at Spring Mills in the morning, and at Centre Hall in the afternoon. He delivered an able sermon here.

—Will Durst, son of James Durst, came home this week, after a stay of about a year in Illinois. He came back to attend the picnic, but does not intend returning; Pennsylvania's good enough.

—One of the most genial and accommodating officials about headquarters is Col. J. F. Weaver, of Milesburg. The Col. is a staunch Granger, and is at the helm in dictating the policy of the Centre county grange organ, The Patron. There is no more staunch supporter of free silver on the ground than Col. Weaver, and few are more familiar with the subject.

—Isaac Frain, County Deputy of the Grange is on the ground, and is taking an active interest in all the affairs. He has been heard on the stage in the auditorium and is a most forcible speaker. Mr. Frain has a fine exhibit of stock. He keeps only blooded stock and is exceedingly proud of his display.

COBURN.

A Breezy Letter From the Busy Town Down the Valley.

Mr. Treaster and wife of Woodward, were visiting at the home of Andrew Vonada over Sunday.

Mrs. T. G. Hosterman and Mrs. Jane Ettlinger of Woodward, visited at the home of M. M. Harbach on Sunday; on their way home they almost had a runaway; while driving through town near the postoffice, one of the traces tore and the horse started to run, but the timely arrival of R. F. Vonada averted what might have been a serious accident.

Mr. Charles, wife and two children, of Milesburg are at present sojourning at the hospitable home of station agent G. R. Stover.

Mrs. Mollie Funk has gone on an extended trip to Sugar valley and other points; she has stored her household goods and will remain away an indefinite time.

Luther Guisewitz has erected a large coal shed near his grain house on the same site the other one stood that was destroyed by fire last winter.

W. H. Meyer and his charming daughter Miss Virna, took in the business men's picnic at Hecla Park last Wednesday.

W. E. Braucht and J. F. Garthoff, of this place, commenced their term of school in Haines township on Monday; the former is stationed at the new Creek school and the latter at Wolf; may success attend you in your labors. The festival on Saturday evening held by the United Evangelical congregation did not prove a financial success on account of the rain; nearly all their goods had to be sold at a sacrifice.

The schools of this township will open on Monday, the 28th, for a term of six months.

Are you going to the picnic? Is what you hear on all sides.

Ed. Robinson took two car loads of provision, feed, etc., to the Anthracite coal regions on Tuesday, for Luther Guisewitz; Ed is a hustler at the business.

James Harter and wife left on Tuesday morning for Gettysburg and other points of interest; they expect to remain about a week.

The Philadelphia Branch leads in common sense clothing at common sense prices—hard time prices. They look for only a fair profit there. In many of the goods they sell they don't get any.

Well Satisfied with Ayer's Hair Vigor.

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray. I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, and was so well satisfied with the results that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It requires only an occasional application of AYER'S Hair Vigor to keep my hair of good color, to remove dandruff, to heal itching humors, and prevent the hair from falling out. I never hesitate to recommend Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Nebr.
