Matters and Topics Prominently Before the Citizens.

Even the boys argue and take sides on the silver question.

Last Friday was one of this summer's scorcher—93 in the shade.

Potatoes are hot by our merchants at 12 and 15 cents per bu., in trade.

Colyer's new house, 2nd one this summer, is up. He'll have more.

Did the fakirs shave you well this week? "a fool and his money are soon parted."

Col. Weaver with family and fixin's arrived on the picnic ground Saturday morning.

Centre county has four papers that argue for free silver and four that defend the goldites.

Three years in succession potatoes have been an over-production, consequently low in price.

All will remember the great stampede last year caused by the terrific storm on the picnic ground.

If silver is harmful why dont the hoarders of gold, if they love the dear people, let out the yellow stuff and hoard the white awhile to prove their position?

We have not yet received that recipe: How some folks live without working. Would like to offer it as a premium to our advance paying subscribers.

Great Triumph.

Its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Sample free. Large bottles 50c. and 25c.

Imitation goods are gotten up for the ignorant and gullible. The persons able to read and write are not so easily fooled. They will insist that Hires Rootbeer is handed them, and nothing else "just as good." The best imitation is no good, and you know it. Refreshing to Campaign paraders.

WELL RENDERED.

Big House Hear the Comedy-Drama, Hickory Farm.

Hickory Farm, a comedy-drama of New England life, was well rendered by home talent in the auditorium in Grange Park on Saturday and Monday evenings. Both nights big houses were had and the Company distinguished itself in the rendition of this two-act play.

Saturday evening, despite the rain, there were about two hundred in the building, and on Monday evening the large and spacious building was comfortably filled. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Reformed church, and a nice little sum was handed over to the church.

The parts were well taken; Ed. Wolf, as Zeke Fortune, the Yankee farmer, who is robbed of Hickory Farm through the scheme of Gilbert Darkwood, the quillan, and Uriah Skinner, the miser, a neighbor, was well taken, and Ed. Kerlin, as Jack Nelson, the hero, did exceedingly well, as was also the part of C. F. Deininger, as Alderman McKeegan, the typical Irishman. The house was in roars constantly at the ludicrous positions and predicaments in which the Alderman was placed in his love-making to the widow, Priscilla Dodge, Miss Emily Alexander. Ed Kerlin, as Jack Nelson, the hero, was in it all through, and he could not have done better.

Gilbert Darkwood, the villain, as played by W. G. Mingle, was very well rendered, as was also the part of Grace Alexander, as Jessie, the daughter of Zeke Fortune.

The company went to a great expense and labored hard to successfully render the play. Scenery was purchased, along with costumes, and nothing was left undone to put Hickory Farm on the boards as it should be.

She was accompanied by two nieces, Miss Jennie Biddle, of Union county, and Mrs. Sadie Marshall, of Brockwayville, Pa.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Miss Anna Mingle and Emory Hoy Married Last Thursday.

The marriage of Miss Anna E. Mingle and J. Emory Hoy occurred last Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mingle. The wedding was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and their closest friends. Rev. S. H. Eisenberg officiated in the ceremony.

The wedding was entirely informal and both bride and groom were unattended. After the ceremony the guests were served an elaborate collation, and then preparations were made for the departure of the newly-wedded couple on the 3.00 p. m. passenger on their wedding tour. They will visit New York, Niagara Falls and other points of prominence, taking about two weeks to do so. Upon their return they will reside at 1416 Arch St., Philadelphia, for the future.

The groom, Mr. Hoy, is a son of Jacob Hoy, of State College, but for a number of years has been employed in the Quaker City, and has held a lucrative position. The bride received a number of valuable and useful presents from her friends, attesting the esteem in which she was held.

A CENTRE COUNTIAN DIES

In Freeport, Ill.—Ex-county Judge George Wolf Passes Away.

Ex-county Judge George Wolf, of Freeport, Ill., expired on the night of 8 inst., at his home. The cause of his death was cancer of the stomach.

He was universally esteemed in that city. Judge Wolf was born in Centre county, Pa., Dec. 3, 1826. In May '49 he set out for the west, on horseback. He engaged in farming and taught school. At a celebration in 1860, by the explosion of a cannon Judge Wolf lost his left arm and part of his right hand. He afterwards was chosen to a number of responsible positions. He was a Democrat in politics. His wife died in 1880. He was the father of six children, five of whom survive him.

Judge Wolf has two brothers and one sister—John Wolf, of Potter's Mills is a brother of the deceased.

Serious Run Off.

On Monday our farmer friend John Rishel, of Benner twp., had a serious mishap. Driving in a buggy near Axeman, his horse was frightened by the noise of a two-horse team, coming along behind, on which were a man and woman; Rishel's horse turning suddenly caused the buggy to upset dragging him a little distance. As the run-away came near the two-horse team the man jumped down to catch the horse, when his own team took fright and started to run upsetting the wagon and woman into the dam now dry, dislocating her arm. Rishel's horse was caught by Adam Hazel, and he also found Mr. Rishel with about a dozen cuts and bruises. Dr. Fisher was called and dressed the injuries.

It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work." 50 cent bottles for sale by Wm. Pealer, Spring Mills, S. M. Swartz, Tusseyville, and R. E. Bartholowew, Centre Hall.

Fine Grapes.

A good sized basket of choice grapes of different favorite varieties, was received by us Saturday from the vines of our esteemed up-town friend, Frank Arney, whose lot shows evidence that he knows how to raise grapes; the large clusters of fruit on his well laden vines would make a queen's mouth water. Thanks, Frank, we appreciate your kindness.

Big Bunch of Grapes.

The largest bunch of grapes we have yet seen, was brot to this office by Dr. Chas. Emerick; it is the white Niagara grape and the cluster weighs 154 ounces, which is certainly hard to beat.

BARNUM AND BAILEY EXCURSION.

Low Rates and Special Trains to the Greatest Show on Earth.

All railroads recognizing the importance of Barnum & Bailey's Circus will place extra trains in service and offer special low rates, in most instances including admission to the show, when the "Greatest on Earth" visits Lock Haven, Sept. 29th.

The Barnum & Bailey enterprise, the biggest and grandest of its kind in all the world, offers a great many novel features this year, original and unique, including two female clowns. There are 50 horses trained to perform almost incredible feats, the whole number appearing in one ring at one time, besides 24 elephants, which occupy three rings, eight in each one at the same moment. In the double menagerie tent is one of the most delightful entertainments ever dreamed of, consisting of a whole lot of curious East Indian native girl and boy dancers, families of Singhalese and others, who give characteristic exhibitions of their home life and occupations. To faithfully portray this, Buddhist temples, native weapons, utensils, implements, musical instruments and the many huts and houses of the natives are used and the whole exhibition, which is called Oriental India, is of the kind to please, instruct and interest everyone. Three rings, three stages, and a racing track will be used this season to show the 100 circus, aerial, acrobatic, gymnastic, and hippodromatic acts, feats, and performances, and there are besides more objects of interest in the 50 cages of wild beasts, Johanna, the gorilla, the dens of performing animals, and the curious natives. The big show is larger this year than ever, contains more meritorious attractions than were ever before presented, requires more cars to transport it than any other show owns, while its street parade is not only the largest, but the most magnificent.

ACCIDENTS AT AARONSBURG.

A Young Lad Badly Hurt by Being Thrown from a Wagon.

Earl, the eight-year-old son of Luther Wert was thrown from the wagon on last Friday afternoon, the one wheel passing over his head tearing the skin loose and almost tearing off one of his ears. The doctors drew the skin back into place again and put several stitches in his ear and he is on a fair way to recovery.

There was a collision one evening last week in the neighborhood of the toll gate, between Mr. Keener's roadcart and Mr. Motz's buggy, in which the buggy was wrecked and the roadcart hardly showed a scratch.

He Was Discharged.

Calvin Horner, son of William Horner, west of Centre Hall, had a little experience last week, which was not altogether pleasant. He was arrested by a detective who was on the hunt for one William Maize. Maize was charged with extorting money from the Union News Company. Cal was taken to Altoona for a hearing before Alderman Huff, and was discharged upon convincing the detective that the wrong man had been arrested. Cal is agent for the Metropolitan Life, and the parties who caused his arrest didn't do a thing but pay his expenses and time lost by the arrest.

Abandoned the Drill.

The drill which stuck in a hole about 80 feet down in a rock while Alf Krape was drilling for water in Colyer's yard, near the station, has not been lifted all efforts to obtain it proving futile. About ten days were spent in drilling around the sides of the tool without avail. Mr. Krape will start a new hole a few feet from the present one.
