Pic Nic Pick Ups.

Remarkably good order prevailed during the entire week.

Chairman Newt Spangler, at Democratic head quarters, distributed a good supply of free silver literature to numerous callers.

Bryan buttons were counted two to one of McKinley buttons by an observer and that's about the run of the thing everywhere.

In the debate on the money question in the Auditorium the goldites were badly worsted and were very gloomy over their defeat.

A lot of fellows were relieved in sums of from $1 to $50 in betting at the gaming tables.

This year's picnic was telegraphed as having been held at Centre Hall instead of at Bellefonte as in former years.

West Smith had a lot of Jersey cows in a pen all of which were sold at fair prices.

Shook Bro's had a fine collection of hens which drew many visitors to see the beauties.

There never was less disorder than at this year's pic-nic.

Quite a number of Snyder county's prominent families were represented at our picnic last week, among which we note Walters, Steninger, Stetler, Bowersox, and others whose names we failed to learn.

Weekly Weather Report.

On 19th early morning, had .59 in. rain, during forenoon, .34 in., and afternoon .14 in., total 1.07 inches on 19. On 22nd, afternoon, .21 inches rain, with considerable storm and hail.

Dr. Earnest Married.

"Clothes do not make the man" but they help. The Philadelphia Branch knows just how to increase your personal appearance 100 per cent. without pauperizing you.

ANOTHER PATRIARCH GONE.

William Bible, the Last of our Aged Ones Called Hence.

William Bible died at his home near this place, on last Sabbath night, at 11 o'clock. He was conscious to the last; his sickness, was old age, and he was laid up about a week before his end, altho his condition was frail for at least a year. He passed away quietly. He had reached the age of 84 years on the 13 of March, last. He was born in Lebanon county, and came with his parents to this vicinity when a lad and resided here up to his death. He was an industrious farmer all his lifetime. His wife died some 8 or 9 years ago. They had four children, namely, Mrs. Hiram Durst; William, killed at the battle of Chancellorsville; and Lizzie and Annie still remaining at the parental homestead. He was a member of the Lutheran church and lived a blameless life. He made no enemies always paying strict attention to his own affairs and confining himself to the welfare of his family, and was honest and upright in all his dealings. Mr. John Bible, of near Potter's Mills, is a brother of the deceased.

Funeral this, Thursday, morning at 10 o'clock.

Good Health.

In no year, for a long time, has there been less sickness in this valley than during this summer, and we do not believe any other section of the state of equal population can match our record for, general healthfulness. We have this fact from physicians from different parts of this side of the county, and are of the opinion that the western side of the county has had the same good fortune, or misfortune for the doctors. As for our own town we do not believe there is a healthier one in the world. Epidemics have never yet set in here and our health record would show a less percentage of sickness than any other village of its size.

Union County Fair.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Brook Park, September 29, 30 and October 1 and 2, good for return passage until October 3, 1896, inclusive, at reduced rates, account of Union County Fair to be held at Brook Park, near Lewisburg, September 29, 30, October 1 and 2, 1896. Special trains will be run between Coburn and Brook Park and between Lewisburg and Brook Park. Ticket Agents will furnish information as to rates, trains, &c.

Accepts a Call at State College.

Lawrence M. Colfelt, D. D., whose fame as a preacher and lecturer is known throughout the entire eastern section of the country, and who at the time of the "Briggs" sensation resigned the pastorate of the Oxford Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, will resume the work of preaching and for the present will be located at State College.

Dr. Colfelt since his retirement from the pulpit has lived at his residence, about a mile from Bedford.

Married—Stover-Stover.

Tuesday evening of last week, Miss Vietti Stover, daughter of Mr. Frank B. Stover, of Bellefonte, was married to Henry C. Stover, of Hagerstown, Md. About 70 guests being present. Miss Ohmacht presided at the piano, rendering the wedding march. After their wedding trip they will settle down to married life at Hagerstown. The Reporter extends congratulations to the happy pair.

Fell Forty Feet.

While engaged in tearing down an old trestle at Morris limekilns, west of Bellefonte, on Monday, Oliver Whitmer fell headforemost, a distance of 40 feet, to the ground. When picked up he was unconscious and it was found that besides having his leg badly broken, he sustained serious internal injuries. It is thought he will recover.

Back from Kansas.

Peter F. Keller, who moved from this place to Kansas, 19 years ago, returned last week with his family. He thinks Centre Hall a good place to live at and that Kansas has too many drawbacks.

Bought a Farm.

W. H. Smith, of Williamsport, formerly of Centre Hall, purchased the Pierce Vonada farm, about two miles west of Madisonburg; it contains 96 acres, and price paid was $1900.

Special Train.

On account of the Fair at Brook Park, Lewisburg, next week, a special train will be run from Lewisburg to Rising Springs on Thursday evening, leaving Lewisburg in the evening.

Rev. Rearick's Appointments.

Sunday, Sept. 27, at Centre Hall, at 10 a. m.; at the Union church, at 2 p. m.; at George's Valley church at 7 p. m.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a secret preparation. Any physician may have the formula on application. The secret of its success as a medicine lies in its extraordinary power to cleanse the blood of impurities and cure the most deep-seated cases of blood-disease.

THE PICNIC OVER.

Threatening Weather Interferes With the Event the Last of the Week.

The Granger picnic is now a thing of the past. It practically ended on Friday evening, but there was much going on Saturday and later. A good sized crowd was in attendance on Thursday, estimated at least ten thousand people. The regular trains and specials came in loaded with from seven to ten cars each. The weather in the morning was fine, but in the afternoon a heavy rain storm passed over the valley, but the Park only got in on the edge. The sun soon came out and every one's hopes revived. The Park was swept by a high wind. A sudden gust caught up the canvas and frame work under which the Hanover Machine Co. had their exhibit and blew it over. There were several people under it when it went over, and there were narrow escapes from the flying timbers. A heavy water wheel was blown over on a man, and he only escaped being crushed by the wheel falling on a plow. The fellow crawled out badly frightened.

Friday was a fair day and several thousand people visited the ground. The weather was just right. The sessions in the auditorium were all well attended and the addresses were delivered by officials of the grange and others prominent in public life. In the afternoon there was a start towards a breaking up. Campers were moving out and the stands and fakirs making preparations to flit. Those who didn't move Friday were sorry, for on Saturday it rained very hard at intervals and flitting was anything but a pleasure.

A high wind came up Saturday night and a great many of the tents were blown down. The rain had softened the ground and the high wind easily lifted them up. No damage of any account was done. A great many of the tents were taken down this week and the work of cleaning up was begun. The ground is covered with paper scraps and rubbish and there is considerable work to be done.

Centre County Repubs. on to Canton.

A large delegation of Centre county worshippers of the goldbug are on to Canton, the Republican Mecca, this week, to shout McKinley and gold, not one having seen a gold dollar since the coinage of silver was forbidden.

Not a mother's son of these Centre county yellows will have the courage to tell the Canton flopper and straddler to explain why he voted and spoke in favor of silver coinage all his lifetime until the goldbugs nominated him for President a few weeks ago.

But, we wish the Centre county boys a jolly good time; they have the yellows now, and on their next trip in November, up Salt river, they will have the blues awfully bad.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week:

Charles F. Stover, Pine Grove Mills, and Eva J. Fye, Centre Hall, G. W. Frankenberg and Ella Sholl, Millheim.

C. M. Smith, McConnellsburg and Tillie K. Wilson, Bellefonte.

Gilbert Rice, College and Mary E. Potter, Potter twp.

Wm. E. Brown, Los Angeles, Cal., and Mary E. Noonan, Bellefonte.

Wm. E. Cole and Sarah E. Kern, Oak Hall.

Theodore N. Brown, Millheim, and Jennie G. Styers, Haines twp.

Edward T. Robinson and Clara Way Port Matilda.

A Bride of 12 Years.

Centre county can't match Clearfield for early marriage, as displayed by tender hearts at Poverty Flat, that county. Ada Travis, aged 12 years, and Burl Ferrier, aged 17 years, have become engaged to be married and the wedding day has been fixed. William Travis, the father of the girl, appeared before a justice of the peace to get out papers for a marriage license. The justice endeavored to persuade him not to consent to his child's marriage, but the father could not be dissuaded. He accompanied the child lovers to the home of the boy's parents at DuBois, to obtain their consent to the union.

Big Display of Fall Goods.

Mr. Katz, of the Globe, Bellefonte, has just returned from New York, where he purchased an immensely large stock of Fall and Winter goods. The goods are now ready on the counters for the inspection of their patrons. The firm has built up a very large trade since they have been at the County seat, and have enjoyed the confidence of all. The senior member made a very large purchase of goods for his firm and was successful in securing them at very low figures, and they will be offered accordingly.

Great Fall Opening.

The Fall opening for Millinery and Ladies' wraps at The Globe, Bellefonte, will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday next, Sept. 29 and 30. The styles are beautiful and cannot be duplicated this season. Messrs Katz & Co. will show designs exclusively their own, and the display will be without a precedent in these parts.

TWO IN THE RACE.

Centre Hall Furnishes Big Stocks of Congressional Timber.

If you are ambitious to be a congressman, come to Centre Hall and grow up, and you may get there as you may read below that that kind of timber is in demand when it has our label; just see:

Col. J. L. Spangler, raised in Centre Hall, is now the Democratic nominee for congress in this district and will be elected as sure as oysters live in a shell.

Then there is Cleven Dinges—our own Cleve—born and raised here, now of Williamsport, only the other day received the Prohibition nomination for congress by the conference of the 16th district, which met at Williamsport and the nomination was made by acclamation at that.

Then we have another in Will Hofer, born and grew up here and went to Kansas and became an editor, and the other day made a hair breadth escape of being nominated for congress, in his district.

With Jack and Cleve and Will in congress woldn't Centre Hall be on top in Washington?

Local Melange.

Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, cold.

The boys have started in to thresh chestnut trees.

The picnic season is about winding up and the apple-butter boiling season is setting in. The time is also at hand when the little and big boy forget all about Sunday school and go chestnut hunting.

Many potatoes are being shipped from this point by Wolf & Crawford; merchants take them in trade at 12 to 15 cents per bushel. Apples and cider are plenty and cheap with an overstocked market.

The fakirs carried away goodly sums of money won from fellows who needed it sorely for decent clothing. Persons needing their money most—often hard earned and often borrowed—are the ones oftenest to be relieved of it in a fool way.

New supplies of water are still being added to our reservoirs. Besides the extra use of water required in town on account of picnic last week, there were 4 to 5000 people and hundreds of horses supplied with water each day in Grange park.

When that farmer and champion of the farmers' interests, Mortimer Whithead, arose on last Thursday evening to speak in favor of silver the pimps of the gold bugs began to hiss him, which goes to show the yellow chaps are not in sympathy with the farmer. This should be a fingerboard to every farmer which way to vote.

Almost the entire membership of the German Reformed congregation of this place put in weeks and months in digging, quarrying and hauling stones and other manual labor, which, if paid for would have made an item of not less than $1500, that has been a saving. Certainly shows a commendable zeal and devotion, on the part of all.

Good News Indeed.

A good many of our influential citizens have been trying some time to get the well-known Specialist on all Chronic and Private Diseases, Dr. M. Salm, of Columbus, Ohio, to return to Centre Hall, and make regular visits, as heretofore. The Institution to which he belongs, has at last, on account of a deluge of petitions and letters, consented to give us his valuable services again, beginning Monday, Oct. 5th, and every four weeks thereafter on the same day. Those suffering with Chronic Disease, of any kind whatever, had better call on him on the above date, at Ruhl's hotel. Consultation and examination free.

Schools Open.

The public schools opened on Monday with a good attendance, and more to be enrolled. Ed. J. Wolf has charge of the grammar, Frank Foreman the intermediate and Miss Kate Shreffler the primary. The attendance on Monday was about 125. This will be increased later on. The compulsory school law will drive in several who have not been there before.

Sort of Dull.

The present week is sort of dull and quiet, and every day seems more or less like Sunday. We were on top of the heap last week and there was not a more active town in this part of the state. The picnic is over and every one has left town who came here to take it in.

Quarterly Meeting.

The third Quarterly Meeting of the United Evangelical church for Centre Hall charge, will be held on Saturday, Sept. 26, at 2 p. m., at Tusseyville. Rev. A. Stapleton, P. E., will preach at the above place on Saturday evening and Sunday at 10 a. m.; at Egg Hill at 2.30 p. m., and at Centre Hall at 7 p. m. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at all these Sunday services. C. H. GOODLING, pastor.
