Fall

Medicine

spring medicine, for at this season there is great danger to health in the varying temperature, cold storms, malarial germs and prevalence of fevers and other diseases, Danger may be avoided by taking

HOOD

Sarsaparilla

Hood's Pills assist Digestion and cure Constipation. 25 cents. BIRDS AS WEATHER PROPHETS

Some Signs by Which Close Observers May Foretell Storms.

If birds in general pick their feathers, wash themselves and fly to their nests, expect rain.

When birds cease to sing, rain and thunder will probably occur. Birds and fowl oiling their feathers indicate rain. Birds flying in groups during min or wind indicate hall. Blackbirds bring healthy weather. Blackbirds' notes are very shrill in advance of rain. A solitary turkey buzzard at a great altitude indicates rain. If the rooster crows more than usual, or earlier, expect rain. Roosters are said to clap their wings in an unusual manner before rain, and hens to rub in the dust and seem very

If the crows make much noise and fly round and round, expect rain.

The crow flying alone is a sign of foul weather, but it crows fly in pairs, expect fine weather.

Cuckoos hallooing on low lands indicate rain; on high lands, fair weather. The cuckoo in April opens his bill, in May he sings all day, in June he alters his tune, come August, go he must. When fowls roost in daytime, expect rain. When the hen crows, expect a storm within and without.

When you see geese in water washing themselves, expect rain.

Geese wash and sparrows fly in flocks before rain.

When the roosters go crowing to bed, they will rise with watery head. If a rooster crows on the ground, it is n sign of rain; if he crows on the fence, it is a sign of fair weather A crowing rooster during rain indicates fair weather.

Birds singing during rain indicates fair weather.

Buzzards flying high indicate fair Domestic fowls dress their feathers when the storm is about to cease. Kites flying unusually high are said to indicate fair weather.

Triumph of the Actor's Make-Up. M. Febvre, of the Comedie Francaise, who is said to be the Prince of Wales' favorite actor, has always been considered by his countrymen a past master in the art of "making up." When Alexandre Dumas füs' comedy, "L'Etrangere," was first produced at the Comedie Francaise, he was cast for the part of the American citizen, Clarkson. M. Febvre, while studying the character, was so desirous of reproducing on the stage the aspect of a citizen of New York or Chicago that he sent over to the new world for photographs of typical Yankees. After M. Febvre himself was photographed in the part the Yankee chosen was one day placed next his own, and many of his friends could hardly guess which was the actor, so complete was the make-up .- Now York Tribune,

"How do you account for her rejecting you? Was it your prospects that she objected to?" "No; I am inclined to think that it was her own prospect that did the business for me. She was looking at me, you see."—Boston Trans ling an abstraction, I am not making a guess.

I am telling you God's eternal truth.

A WOMAN'S STORY. It Should Be of Interest to Every Thinking Woman Women who reason well know that no male physician can understandingly treat the complaint known as "female diseases," for no man ever experienced

This, Lydia E. Pinkham tanght them

twenty years ago, when she discovered in her Vegetable Compound the only successful cure for all those ailments pecu liar to the sex. Many women have ' a fatal faith in 5 their physician, and not till they can suffer no longer, will they think and act for themselves. The following testimony is straight to the point, and represents the experience of hundreds of thousands of now grateful women: "For six years I was a great sufferer from those internal weaknesses so prevalent among our sex. After having received treatment from four physicians of our city, and finding no relief whatever, I concluded to try Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has proved a boon to me. It can truly be called a "Saviour of Women."-MRS. B. A. PERHAM, Waynesboro, Pa.

REV. DR. TALMAGE.

The Eminent Washington Divine's Sunday Sermon.

Subject: "The Coming Redemption."

TEXT: "And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof."—Zachariah viii., 5.

Glimpses of our cities redeemed! Now, boys and girls who play in the streets run such risks that multitudes of them end in ruin. But, in the coming time spoken of, our cities will be so moral that lads and lasses shall be as safe in the public thoroughfares as in the nursery. Pupit and printing presses for the most part in our day are busy in discussing the condition of the cities at this time; but would it not be healthfully encouraging to all Christian workers, and to all who are toiling to make the world better, if we should for a little while look forward to the time when our cities shall be revolutionized by the Gospel of the Son of God, and all the darkness of sin and trouble and crime and suffering shall be gone from the world? Every man has a pride in the city of his nativity or residence, if it be a city distinguished for any distingu nativity or residence, if it do a city distinguished for any dignity or prowess. Caesar boasted of his native Rome, Virgil of Mantua, Lycurgus of Sparta, Demosthenes of Athens, Archimedes of Syracuse, and Paul of Tarsus. should have suspicion of base-heartedness in a man who had no especial interest in the city of his birth or residence—no exhilaration of the evidence of its prosperity or its artistic embellishment, or its intellectual ad-

I have noticed that a man never likes a city where he has not behaved well! People who have had a free ride ir, the prison van never like the city that furnishes the vehicle. When I find Argos and Rhodes and Smyrna trying to prove themselves the birthplace of Homer, I conclude at once that Homer be-haved well. He liked them and they liked him. We must not war on laudable city pride, or, with the idea of building ourselves up at any time, try to pull others down. Boston must continue to point to its Faneuii Hall and to its Common, and to its superior educational advantages. Philadelphia must continue to point to its Independence Hall and its mint, and its Girard College. Washington must continue to point to its wondrous Capitoline buildings. If I should find a man coming from any city, having no pride in that city, that city having been the place of his nativity, or now being the place of his residence. I would feel like asking: "What mean thing have you done there? What outrageous thing have you been guilty of that you do not like the place?"
I think we ought—and I take it for granted you are interested in this great work of evangelizing the cities and saving the world—we ought to toll with the sunlight in our faces. We are not fighting in a miserable Bull Run of defeat. We are on our way to final victory. We are not following the rider on the black horse, leading us down to death and darkness and doom, but the Rider on the white horse, with the moon under His feet and the stars of heaven for His tiara.

Hail, Conqueror, hail!
I know there are sorrows, and there are sins, and there are sufferings all around about us; but as in some bitter, cold winter day, when we are threshing our arms around us to keep our thumbs from freezing, we think of the warm spring day that will after awhile come; or in the dark winter night we look up and see the northern lights, the windows of heaven illuminated by some great victory—just so we look up from the night of suffering and sorrew and wretchedness in our cities, and we see a light streaming through from the other side, and we know we are on the way to morning-more than that, on the way to "a morning without

I want you to understand, all you who are toiling for Christ, that the castles of sin are all going to be captured. The victory for Christ in these great towns is going to be so complete that not a way and the shields clang, and the waters rush complete that not a man on earth or an over the pursuers, and the swift-fingered angel in heaven, or a devil in hell will dispute it. How do I know? I know just as pertainly as God lives and this is holy truth. The old Bible is full of it. If the Nation is to be saved, of course all the cities are to be saved. It makes a great difference with you and with me whether we are tolling on to-ward a defeat, or tolling on toward a vic-

Now, in this municipal elevation of which I speak. I have to remark there will be greater financial prosperity than our cities have ever seen. Some people seem to have a morbid idea of the miliennium, and they think when the better time comes to our cities and the world people will give their time up to really significant. time up to psalm-singing and the relating of their religious experience, and, as all social life will be purified, there will be no hilarity, and, as all business will be no hilarity, and, as all business will be purified, there will be no enterprise. There is no ground for such an absurd anticipation. In the time of which I speak, where now one fortune is made, there will be a hundred fortune is made, there will be a hundred fortune is made, there will be a hundred fortune and the second of the second tunes made. We all know business prosperity depends upon confidence between man and man. Now when that time comes of which I speak, and when all double deal-ing, all dishonesty, and all fraud are gone out of commercial circles, thorough confi-dence will be established and there will be better business done, and larger fortunes gathered, and mightier successes achieved. The great business disasters of this country have come from the work of godless speculators and infamous stock gamblers." great foe to business is crime. When the right shall have hurled back the wrong, and shall have purified the commercial code, and shall have thundered down fraudulent establishments, and shall have put into the hands of honest men the keys of business, blessed time for the bargain makers. I am not talk-

In that day of which I speak, taxes will be nere nothing. Now, our business men are taxed for everything. City taxes, county taxes, State taxes, United States taxes, stamp taxes, license taxes, manufacturing taxes—taxes, taxes, taxes! Our business men have to make a small fortune every year to pay their taxes. What fastens on our great in-dustries this awful load? Crime, individual and official. We have to pay the board of the villains who are incarcerated in our prisons. We have to take care of the orphans of those who plunged into their graves through sensual indulgencies. We have to support the municipal governments, which are vast and expensive just in proportion as the criminal proclivities are vast and tremendous. Who support the aimshouses and police stations, and all the machinery of municipal government? The tax payers tions, and all the machinery of municipal government? The tax payers.

But in the glorious time of which I speak, grievous taxation will all have ceased. There will be no need of supporting criminals there; will be no criminals. Virtue will have taken the place of vice. There will no orphan asylums, for parents will be able to leave a competency to their children. There will be no voting of large sums of money for some municipal improvement, which moneys before they get to the improvements drop into the pockets of those who voted them. No Oyer and Terminer kept up at vast expense Oyer and Terminer kept up at vast expense

Oyer and Terminer kept up at vast expense to the people. No impaneling of juries to try theft and arson and murder and slander and blackmail. Better factories. Grand architecture. Finer equipage. Larger fortunes. Richer opuleace. Better churches. In that better time, also, coming to those ciries, Christ's churches will be more numerous and they will be larger, and they be more devoted to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and they will accomplish greater influences no exclusiveness.

In that day of which I speak, do you believe there will be any midnight carousai? Will there be any kicking off from the marble steps of shivering mendicants?

Will there be any unwashed, unfed, un-combed children? Will there be any bluspue-mies in the streets? Will there be any incbriates staggering past? No. No wine stores. No lager beer saloons. No distilleries, where they make the three Ks. No bloodshot eye, No bloated cheek. No instruments of ruin and destruction. No fist-pounded forehead. The grandchildren of that woman who goes down the street with a curse, stoned by the boys that fellow her, will be the reformers and philanthropists and the Christian men and the honest merchants of our cities Then, what municipal governments, too. we will have in all the cities. Some cities are worse than others, but in many of our cities you just walk down by the city hall and look in at some of the rooms occupied by politicians, and see to what a sensual, loathsome, ignorant, besotted crew city politics is often abandoned. Or they stand around the City Hall picking their teeth, waiting for some emoluments of crumbs to fall to their feet, waiting all day long, and waiting all night long. Who are those wretched women taken up for drunkenness, and carried up to the courts, and put in prison of course? What will you do with the grogshops that make them drink? Nothing. Who are those prisioners in jail? One of them stole a pair of shoes. That boy stole a dollar. This girl snatched a purse. All of them crimes dam-aging society less than twenty or thirty dollars. But what will you do with the gam-bler who last night robbed the young man of a thousand dollars? Nothing. What shall be done with that one who breaks through and destroys the purity of a Christian home and with an adroitness and perfidy that beats the strategy of hell, flings a shrinking, shricking soul into ruin? Nothing. What will you do with those who fleeced that young man, getting him to purion large sums of money from his employer—the young man who came to an officer of my church and told the story, and frantically asked what he should do? Nothing.

Ah! we do well to punish small crimes; but have sometimes thought it would be better in some of our cities if the officials would nly turn out from the jails the petty criminais, the little offenders, ten-dollar despera-does, and put in their places some of the monsters of iniquity who drive their roan span through the streets so swiftly that hon t men have to leap to get out of the ray of being run over. Ob, the damnable scheres that professed Caristian men will some times engage in until God puts the finger of His retribution into the collar of their robe of hypogrisy and rips it clear to the bottom! But all these wrongs will be righted. I expect to live to see the day. I think I hear in the distance the rumbling of the King's chariot. Not always in the minority is the Church of God going to be, or are good men going to be. The streets are going to be filled with regenerated populations. Three hundred and sixty bells rang in Moscow when one prince was married; but, when righteousness and peace kiss each other in all the earth, ten thousand times ten thou-sand bells shall strike the jubilee. Poverty enriched. Hunger fed. Crime banished. Ignorance enlightened. All the cities saved.

Is not this a cause worth working in?
Oh, you think sometimes it does not amount to much! You toil on in your different spheres, sometimes with great dis-couragement. People have no faith and says "It does not amount to anything: you might as well quit that." Why, when Moses stretched his hand over the Red Ses, it did not seem to mean anything especially. Pos-ple came out, I suppose, and said: "Aba!" Some of them found out what he wanted to He wanted the sea parted. It did not amount to anything, this stretching out of his hand over the sea. But, after a while. his hand over the sea. But, after a while, the wind blew all night from the east, and the waters were gathered into a glittering palisade on either side, and the billows reared as God pulled back on their crystal Wheel into line, O, Israel! march march! Pearls crashed under feet. Flying spray gathers into rainbow arch of victory for the conquerors to march under. hosts on the beach answering the of hosts amid sea. And when the last line of the grand march of Israel delivered and the awiul dirgs of Egyptian overthrow.

So you and I go forth, and all the people of God go forth, and they stretch forth their hand over the sea, the boiling sea of crime and sin and wretchedness. "It don't amount to anything," people say. Don't it? God's winds of help will, after a while, begin to blow. A path will be cleared for the army of Christian philanthropists. The path will be lined with the treasures of Christian beneficence, and we shall be greeted to the other beach by the clapping of all of heaven's cymbals, while those who pursued us and derided us and tried to destroy us will go down under the sea and all that will be left of them will be cast high and dry upon the beach, the splintered wheel of a chariot, or thrust out from the foam the breathless nostril of a riderless charger.

LIKE ONE BIG FUNERAL.

Such Was the Departure of the Spanish Troops for Cuba.

The Seventh Regiment, a battery of artilom San Sebastian, Spain, for Cuba, and judging from the local newspapers, the de-parture of the troops was made the occasion of a vast popular demonstration of patriotism and of a determination to wipe the re-bels off the face of the earth. According to somewhat belated private advices from the scene, the newspaper accounts do not fit the facts, which is not surprising, seeing that they had to be submitted to the censor before they had to be submitted to the censor before publication. Previous to the review the Bishop of Vitoria celebrated a religious service in the open air, on the magnificent Zurriola Promenade, but the effect was considerably spoiled by howis, sobs and other demonstrations of grief by women and children, who at San Sebastian, as in other parts dren, who at San Sebastian, as in other parts of Spain, made no pretense to the possession of Spartan spirit. Then followed a march past the Queen Regent and little King. The latter was in a cadet's uniform and saluted the troops as they passed with precoclous gravity and dignity. His appearance certainly aroused a good deal of popular enthusiasm, but it evaporated as soon as he disappeared from the scene. As for the troops themselves, they made no pretense whatever of enthusiasm. They had been forced to the colors and looked as if they were unwilling conscripts sent to fight and were unwilling conscripts sent to fight and die without compensation or glory. After the march past they were huddled off to the forts on the heights dominating the town. Triple guards were on duty through-out the night to prevent apprehended de-sertions, and in the morning the dejected soldiers went aboard the transport with the air of men going to a funeral,

NEW FIELD FOR BICYCLERS.

Here's a Chance for Them to Get Star Routes.

Advertisements inviting proposals for car rying the mails on the star routes for the next fiscal year were issued from the office of he Second Assistant Postmaster-General at Washington. Proposals will be received until December 1, and bids will be announced by February 1. Full information regarding the routes in New York State, the bonds required with the bids and the present price of the service will be furnished on application to the Department. There are thousands of these routes throughout the country there below 1000. more devoted to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and they will accomplish greater influences for good. Now, it is often the case that churches are envious of each other, and denominations collide with each other, and even ministers of Christ sometimes forget the bond of brotherhood. But in the time of which I speak, while there will be just as many differences of opinion as there are now, there will be no ascerbity, no hypercriticism, no exclusiveness.

I speak do believe there will be any midnight chicago is to have an eight-story Govern-ousai? Will there be any kicking off from ment building. The design is unlike any marble steps of shivering mendicants?

GREAT FIRE.

Over Two Thousand Houses Destroyed in Japan.

MANY LIVES WERE LOST.

Remarkable Series of Disasters in the Northern Part of the Island, Causing Fearful Destruction of Property and Many Fatalities.

The City of Kobe, Japan, was wiped out by a disastrous conflagration on August 26, and floods and storms and earthquakes ter. The harem wall, now on our right, caused the loss of 2,509 lives and the destruction of millions of dollars' worth of very top, with yellow and white Bankproperty in Northern Japan.

brought news of a series of catastrophies that have befallen the Mikado's realm that are unprecedented in its history. In Gifu prefecture 4,300 homes were blown down, walls, half hidden by the creepers, and along the Haji-Gawa 400 persons lost and the whole scene was lighted up by their lives. The severest storm occurred on the brilliant eastern sunlight, in which August 30. Along the Isatsugawa 84 lives every object stands out so clearly that were lost.

The great flood was preceded by severe earthquakes. Then followed a down-pour such as has never before been experienced on the islands. The European residents this we could catch glimpses of the were panic-stricken, and sought shelter on bark sloping away toward the Bosthe high lands. The Minatogawa over- phorus. flowed its banks at midnight of the 26th instant, and the waters inundated streets and fields, sweeping away 300 houses and drowning 200 persons at Kobe. After twelve hours | tan's private museum. Here are colpaired by sand bags.

broke out late in the evening, and, fanned belonged to some of his predecessors. by the high wind, spread over the entire city. One thousand nine hundred blocks, including 2,260 houses and twelve go-downs. were destroyed totally, and ten houses, two police boxes, one fire brigade station, four temples, and one theater. The burnt area comprises ten streets. The total damage by fire was 1,000,000 yen.

On September 1, in Rokugo district, a terrible series of earthquakes shook the country. Nine people were killed there, and more than forty at Hataya, Senya, Takanashi, Yohohori, Yokozawa, Nagashida, Shimzu' and Fujik, where the disaster was especially great. The hills at Senya cracked. Fire broke out here and there. Water gushed out on many places, and rumblings continue.

At Obononal eleven persons were killed, At Rokogu the people killed were more than twenty, and houses overturned about 1,000. A ferryboat at Hiz2ma capsized, and twenty Japanese and whites lost their lives-

WEYLER DESPERATE.

Captain-General Will Risk Everything in One Great Effort to Crush Macco

Captain General Weyler, according to Havana solvices, is preparing to assume the aggressive and will make a desperate effort to force the insurgents to a decisive battle. It is Weyler's opinion that the Island is lost to Spain unless he can crush the insurgents in a great battle, and he is preparing to risk all on the result of such an engagement.

The reinforcements now arriving from Spain are being hurried to Pinar del Rio Province as rapidly as possible. In the last week 15,000 troops have been sent in that province. Garrisons at Pinar del Rio city. Bahia, Honda, San Cayetano and Mantua have been strengthened and many new posts established along the Western Railway.

General Arotas, with 6000 fresh troops, is strengthening the trocha garrisons, which have been decimated by yellow fever. Weyler is also gathering a picked forced of 8000 men for service west of the trocha. This division the Captain General intends to lead in person against Antonio Maceo, who is still intrenched south of Pinar del Rio city.

Weyler impressed his lieutenants that a junction between Maceo and Gomez must be prevented, and to this end an effort will be made to crush the former. Weyler Intended leaving Havana Sunday for Pinar del Rio with an escort of 2000 cavalry, but postponed his departure owing to the great floods in the western province. The floods have almost destroyed the trocha, whole sections of the line being washed

General Arotas' headquarters at Artemisia have been destroyed and the entire line f under water just south of Artemisia. A guard house containing forty Spaniards was washed away and every one of the soldiers drowned. During the storm many insurgents crossed the trocha in boats, while others

As soon as the floods subside Weyler is expected to take the field in person.

WORK AND WORKERS

The Pepperill and Laconia Mills, in Biddeford, Maine, will be started on full time this week. Some departments have been shut down since May and others have been running half time.

The mills and -fflors of the Cascade Lumber Company, near Burilington, Iowa, were burned: loss, $100,000. A bridge on the St. Louis, Keokuk and Northern Rallway was badly burned and traffic was delayed.

The Lippitt Woollen Company, of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, reduced the wages of its employes 5 per cent., making an exception of those receiving $1 or less. The mill is just starting its light-weight season, and will be in full operation in about a fortnight. The Perkins Hors-shoe Works, at Valley Falls, Rhode Island, started up after having been shut down more than two months. A Columbus despatch says that the coal mine operators of Ohio will demand that the wages for coal mining be reduced to 45 cents per ton, as the result of the cut in Pennsylvania. Mills Nos. 1, 2 and 4 of the Boston Manufacturing Co., at Waltham, Massachusetts, which have been shut down for a month, will be reopened this week. The mills amploy about 300) men.

FAIRY-LIKE IN ITS BEAUTY

Is the Yildiz Palace of the Sultan in Constantinopie.

Beautiful beyond description is the Yildiz palace of the Sultan in Constantinople. In treating of it an English writer says: Yildiz stands on the summit of the highest hill of the capital, and here before us lay a large lake or artificial river, covered with caiques and boats of all shapes, an electric launch among others. The gardens sloped to the lake on all sides, the lawns as green, the turf as well kept as in the best English gardens. Exquisite shrubs and palms were planted in every direction, while the flower beds were a blaze of color. The air was almost heavy with the scent of orange blossom, and gardeners were busy at every turn sprinkling the turf, even the crisp gravel walks with warose no longer bare, but covered to the sia roses, heliotrope, sweet verbena. The steamer Dorie, from the Orient, passion flowers, etc. Thousands of white or silvery gray pigeons-the prophet's bird-flew in and out of a huge pigeon house, built against the one's sense of distance is almost lost. At the end of the lake is a duck decoy, where the Sultan often amuses himself with shooting, and far beyond

Beyond the pigeon house we entered a building consisting of one long room, alled with treasures. This is the Sulwork the broken embankments were re- lected and beautifully arranged all the presents that he has received, as well To make the fate of Kobe worse, a fire as innumerable valuable objects that

A good prayer meeting always begins before the bell rings.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety wit's which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine acticle, look for the name of the California Fig Sygn's Company, printed new the bettom of the package. For sale by all responsible draggests.

Kcandals and crimes in the newspapers are helping the devil about as much as the hypocrites in church

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to carn that there is at least one greated disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Ital's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Ital's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting the other constitutions. treatment. Hall's tatarrh Care is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and muchus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address
Y. J. Carsexy & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's family Pills are the lest.

Angels are disappointed when the preacher stops working for souls and goes to working for dollars.

Dobbins' Floating-Boray Soap being 100 pe cent. pure, is, therefore, absolutely all scap, and has nothing in it to turn yellow. Dobbins' Soap Mf'g Co., Phila., guarantee its purity. Every one knows the value of Borax. Try it once, please.

Fortune cannot change us. It can only ring out what is in us.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflamma-tion, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c. a bottle.

Everything we do will be great when it is what God wants done. After six years' suffering, I was cured by Piso's Cure.—Y.ARY THOMPSON, 28% Ohio Ave., Allegheny, Pa., March 19, '94. It never hurts truth any to be lied about. FITSstopped free and permanently cured. No fits after first day's use of Da. Klane's Grant Neuver Restoned. Free $20 rish botte and treat-iso. Send to Dr. Kine, $61 Arch St., Phile., Ye.

Wood's Holl, Mass., has a lobster farm.

if afflicted with sore eyes use Or. Issac Thompsen's Eye-water. Druggists sell at 25c per bottle

The Hindoos have no word for friend, but use the word brother instead.

The Ins and Outs of It.

If you get best wear out of a coat, best work must have gone into it. You can't get good bread out of poor flour.

Moral: You can't get the best out of anything, unless the best is in it; and the best has to be put in before it can be taken out. Now, we have a rule to test those sarsaparillas with a big "best" on the bottle. "Tell us what's put in you and we'll decide for ourselves about the best." That's fair. But these modest sarsaparillas say: "Oh! we can't tell. It's a secret. Have faith in the label." . . . Stop! There's one exception; one sarsaparilla that has no secret to hide. It's Ayer's. If you want to know what goes into Ayer's Sarsaparilla, ask your doctor to write for the formula. Then you can satisfy yourself that you get the best of the sarsaparilla argument when you get Ayer's.

Any doubt left? Get the "Curebook." It kills doubts but cores doubters. Address: J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Prof. Babcock, the well-known Chemist, says:

"I find that Walter Baker & Co.'s Breakfast Cocoa is absolutely pure. It contains no trace of any substance foreign to the pure roasted cocoa-bean. The color is that of pure cocoa; the flavor is natural, and not artificial; and the product is in every particular such as must have been produced from the pure cocoa-bean without the addition of any chemical, alkali, acid, or artificial flavoring substance, which are to be detected in cocoas prepared by the so-called 'Dutch process.'" es he bought: "It is the nearest perfection a yet seep. If I wast another machine for b

Walter Baker & Co., Ltd., Dorchester, Mass.

LOOMIS & NYMAN, Time, Ohio. BUTTONS Comic. 200 kinds: also Campaign Nevelties. Write for lists and prices. CORPO. SUPPLY CO., Cleveland, Ohlo.

OH, LOOK!

By J. Hamilton Ayers, A. M., M. D. This is a most Valuable Book for the Household, teaching as it does the easily-distinguished Symotoms of different Diseases, the Causes, and Means of Preventing such Dis-eases, and the Simplest Remedies which will alleviate or cure.

598 PACES,

PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED.

The Book is written in plain everyday English, and is free from the technical terms which render most Doctor Books so raturiess to the generality of readers. This Book is intended to be of Service in the Family, and is so worded as to be readily understood by all. Only

"Defore and After Taking."

(The low price only being made possible by the immense elition printed. Not only does this Book contain so much Information Relative to Diseases, but very properly gives a Complete Analysis of everything pertaining to Courtship, Marriage and the Production and Rearing of Healthy Families; together with Valuable Recipes and Prescriptions, Explanations of Botanical Practice, Correct use of Ordinary Herbs. New Edition, Revised and Eularged with Complete Index. With this Book in the house there is no excuse for not knowing what to do in an emergency. Den't work until you have illness in your family before you order, but sent at once for this valuable volume. ONLY GO CENTS POST-PAID. Send postal notes or postage stamps of any denomination not larger than 5 cents. GO CTS. POST-PAID. BOOK PUBLISHING HOUSE 134 Leonard Street, N. Y. City.