Never Resist an Officer.

Judge Biddle, of Carlisle, in the trial of John Belt for resisting arrest defined the delicate point in this matter very concisely. It is well worth taking note of by all people because there has been some misunderstanding in the mind of the public in regard to it. We have heard braggadocia talk about the rights of people in resisting our officers, and we have tried heretofore to correct the wrong impression. The borough officers have no right to arrest a man without a warrant unless they personally see him committing a breach of the peace, but on the other hand if they do arrest a citizen, without warrant or justification the citizen should not resist the officer nor get into any altercation with him. He should go along with him, ask for a habeas corpus, and when the release is given by the court, then make the officer sweat for making a false arrest. A couple of suits against the officers for making false arrests would settle the matter very effectively. But we have no right to resist an officer, who is always to be presumed to have proper authority for what he does.—Carlisle Sentinel.

Remembered his Lesson.

A little Phillipsburg boy was coached by his mother as to what he should say when the minister called. She told him to say 8 years old, when the minister asked him his age, and when asked where had little boys went, to say go to hell. The minister called and the boy was prepared for him, so when he asked the boy how old he was he replied "8 years old, go to hell." The boy evidently thought he done the right thing at the right time, but the minister no doubt thought different.

Arm Mending.

John Durst still carries his arm in a sling with a casing around it of plaster paris. He is getting along slowly, although it will be quite a time before he will have full use of it again. It is now several months since he had it broken, and several weeks ago underwent treatment in a hospital at Philadelphia.

U. E. Services.

The United Evangelical congregation will hold their first services on Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, in Dinges' store room, which they have had nicely fitted up, and will be used by the congregation for a chapel for the present. Sunday school at 9 a. m. All are invited.

The Philadelphia Branch in Temple Court, Bellefonte, leads in all that pertains to gentlemen's attire. They have made a study of their customers' wants and know exactly how to please you in quality, style and price.

THE OX ROAST.

Big Time at Millheim—The East End All Solid for 16 to 1.

The free silver element of Penn, Gregg, Miles and Haines, held a large barbecue on Thursday, the occasion being an ox roast at Millheim, a treat by the gallant Democracy of that live burg. The residences and square of the town were gaily decorated with arches, flags and streamers with mottoes.

A nice fat ox roasted to the best of flavor, its sweet smelling savor filling the surrounding atmosphere, even excited the appetites of the followers of the golden image.

The ox was prepared for the roast by Cyrus Brungart, who boiled it the day before in a huge kettle at his meat market. For roasting it an excavation of 8x15 feet was made in the field opposite the new school house and this pit surrounded by brick work giving it an oval shape. In this a cord of oak wood was burned to fry coals. A large pole was passed lengthwise thro the carcass and wire netting fastened around the body. Thus it rested about three ft. above the pit of fire all night, attendants turning it until next forenoon when every inch was a sweet, well-done roast. About 4 in the afternoon the roast ox was dealt out in sandwiches to the throng, and eagerly devoured.

The crowd numbered about 2000 and the meeting was organized at 2 p. m. in the spacious lot in the rear of the new school building. The meeting was organized by Cyrus Brungart proposing the following officers: President, W. F. Smith. Vice Presidents, B. F. Shaffer, Walker; J. J. Orndorf, Haines; John Wolf, Miles; Joseph Smith, Gregg; Aaron Zerby, Penn; W. H. Fry, Ferguson; John Spangler, W. B. Mingle, Centre Hall. Secretary, Fred Kurtz, Centre Hall.

A large and handsomely decorated stand had been erected. Col. J. L. Spangler was the first speaker, and devoted about an hour to the money question, ably and with good effect defending the cause of free silver, often interrupted by applause. He was followed by Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, who spoke about half hour upon the great deeds done by the Democratic party in the past, and announced that at the evening meeting he would deliver an address upon the money question in the town hall.

The Millheim and Aaronsburg brass bands discoursed charming music during the day.

In the evening the hall was packed to its utmost and the overflow would have filled another hall. Mr. Jenks delivered an interesting and instructive address of near two hours, which was listened to with breathless silence so eager was the crowd to catch every word of his convincing argument. He was followed by Hugh Taylor in a brief but forcible speech; the winding up talk was by Col. Spangler who gave the unbroken audience about 15 minutes of humorous talk.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been granted the past week: John T. Wisner and Sallie Frantz, Port Matilda. David L. Spittler and Caroline Barry, Sandy Ridge. Harry E. Lucas and Sarah Jackson, Snow Shoe. H. D. Meek, State College, and Nanie Campbell, Fairbrook. Thos. Andrew Meyer, Coburn, and Cora Ella Stover, Aaronsburg. Michael Hazel, Bellefonte, and Susan Enzbreuner, Altoona. Joseph Estep and Minnie Ostrander, Cambria county.

Reformed Church.

The Lord's Supper will be administered in the Reformed congregation at Centre Hall, on next Sunday; service at 10 a. m.; preparatory service on Saturday at 2 p. m. There will be service in the Reformed church at Tusseyville next Sunday at 2 p. m. S. H. EISENBERG, pastor.

Laid up for Repairs.

Our townsman Jared Kreamer, is laid up for repairs now, being confined to the house with a sprained ankle. The accident occurred Tuesday and he is getting along as well as can be expected.

Special.

The Racket, Bellefonte, has something special to say in their ad. This week to the ladies Miss S. E. Conklin, the expert fitter of her Majesty's Corsets, will commence a three days' engagement at the store on Monday, October 26. It is an opportunity the ladies should not neglect.

Kept Busy on Orders.

D. F. Luse, the patentee of the self-closing hydrant, has been very busy supplying the article to various towns throughout the state. He has the best hydrant on the market today, and towns installing new water plants in these parts, are ordering his hydrant entirely.

BRICK FOR SALE.

From 60,000 to 100,000 brick, of the burned Jack house in Boalsburg, are offered for sale in large or small quantities, and good as new. Offered for sale at a bargain. Apply to Frank McFarlane, agent, Boalsburg.

Important Game Laws.

Inasmuch as certain game laws of the State are reported to be repeatedly violated, the following laws are published in the hope that hunters as well as fishermen will see that they are lived up to:

TRAPPING PROHIBITED.

No person shall at any time or place within the State kill or take any wild turkey or ruffed grouse, commonly called pheasant or quail, or Virginia partridge, or woodcock, or rail or reed birds, any pinnated grouse, commonly called prairie chicken, with any net, trap, snare or torch light for the purpose of taking or killing any of said birds nor shall any person sell or expose for sale any of the said birds after the same shall have been so taken or killed, under a penalty of $10 for each bird; and it shall be lawful for any person to take and destroy any such nets, traps or snares wherever found set. Provided, that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent individuals or associations, for protection preservation, or propagation of game, from gathering alive by nets or traps, with the written consent of the owners of the land, quails or Virginia partridges, from the 17th day of December in any year to the 1st day of February next following, for the sole purpose of preserving them alive over the winter.

HUNTING OR FISHING ON SUNDAY.

There shall be no hunting or fishing or shooting on the first day of the week called Sunday, and any persons offending against the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $25.

Placing the Pews.

The pews and furniture for the new Reformed church are being placed this week. The pews in the audience room are of oak, and circular, with massive ends; they will be placed in position and then taken up again to allow the carpet to be laid; when the carpet is laid the pews will be screwed down for good. The pulpit furniture and stands are in place. For the Sunday school room handsome oak chairs have been purchased. The edifice will be dedicated soon.

Tried It Early.

The occupants of the hotel had a little fright last Sunday evening, in some sneak thief being caught in his intended efforts to get into the house from the rear. Mrs. Ruhl had occasion to open the door leading to the back porch, when she saw the form of a man making fast time out of the yard to the alley and then disappear. The man was evidently a thief, who tried to sneak in quietly and ransack several of the rooms, which could have easily been done.

A Wheeling Match.

At Potter's bank they are bound to have some fun out of this 16 to 1 campaign, and have a wheeling match on the program as an after-the-election event. Two of its active politicians of opposite politics, John Strong and Will Smith, have agreed, whichever loses his presidential candidate the defeated fellow must push the victorious chap per wheel-barrow express from Long's store to Reish's hotel, a half mile distant, to the music of the band and the yells of young America.

Freight Train Wreck.

The west bound local freight was wrecked last Thursday evening at Millmont, and four cars were smashed. The wreck was caused by a car jumping the track and dragging the others with it. Merchandise and goods were scattered all around. The passenger trains were delayed some time until the tracks were cleared. No one was injured.

Will Construct a Reservoir.

The Lewistown Water company will construct a reservoir in what is known as Minehart's Gap, which will be 225 feet long, 100 feet wide and an average depth of ten feet. The height of the reservoir above the public square in Lewistown will be 285 feet.

Struck Water.

Alf Krape has moved his well drilling machine from Colyer's yard and has started punching a hole on Prof. Bitners farm this side of Linden Hall. At Colyer's he struck water at 157 feet and then stopped.

Extending the Main.

The water company is extending a 2 1/2 inch main to Hoffer street at the Presbyterian church. This street is building up rapidly and in several years will be very much improved.

Two October Anniversaries.

Monday was the 40th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus. On Tuesday, October 27, will occur the anniversary of the landing of William Penn.

Weekly Weather Report.

Table with 3 columns: Date, Temperature, and Weather. Rows include Oct 15-21 with details on temperature (55-59) and weather (clear, cloudy, part cloudy).

Weather Predictions.

My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from 13th to 17th, and the next disturbance will reach the Pacific coast about 18th, cross the west of Rockies country by close of 19th, great central valleys 20th to 22nd, eastern states 23rd. This disturbance comes in the low temperature storm period, and will be of more than usual force. The storm centre will pass through the southern states and will cause extensive rains there. The cold wave following will affect all the northern states, and cause killing frosts in many portions of the north half of the cotton belt. The warm wave of this disturbance will cross the west of Rockies country about the 18, great central valleys 20th, eastern states 22nd. The cool wave, which will be a cold wave in the northern states, will cross the west of Rockies country about 21st, great central valleys 23rd, eastern states 25th.

Wedding at Axemann.

A pretty and attractive wedding occurred at the home of Josiah Owens, Axemann, Oct. 7th, at 3.30 p. m. The contracting parties being his daughter Ella M. Owens to J. Calvin Gferrer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Rearick, of Centre Hall. After the knot was tied, congratulations were received. About sixty persons then partook of a sumptuous feast. The presents were many, being costly as well as useful. After supper the Axemann calithumpian band appeared on the scene and rendered some of their best selections. The boys were royally treated, and all join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.—Centre Democrat.

Local Jottings.

Monday morning showed the hardest freeze so far.

Picked apples are selling for 25 cents per bushel. Last year they sold at 40 to 50. Apples shaken down by the wind sold at 10 to 15c.

Carpets and pews are now being put down in the new Reformed church and next will be the dedication.

Wheat still keeps creeping up, greatly to the satisfaction of our farmers. The rise in Chicago has been 17 cents within the past three weeks.

Don't take any stock in campaign stories against Col. Spangler. The Arnolds are busy in that kind of work just now. Spangler can "walk a crack" any time but Arnold can't.

Autumn leaves are falling; the foliage of the mountain sides is beautiful with its variegated colors.

More rain Monday night and Tuesday. It is all needed.

The last legislature shamefully voted away about 1 million dollars and Curtin and Womelsdorf helped do it, as proof of it see the Reporter of three weeks ago.

The new public school building at Millheim is the finest on this side the county and a credit to that town.

Our correspondents need only pay 1 cent postage on manuscript for publication when enclosed in an unsealed envelope. Such is the law.

Poulson's fine, new house near the station, now has its roof slated.

Why are all banks and trusts, either openly or secretly against Bryan?

Falling autumn leaves kept the women busy sweeping and nigh weeping. Reader of the Reporter, kindly remit dues, or part, on subscription. Thanks to those who have lately responded, but more are needed.

We want a few hindquarters of beef on printing account, any time before Feb. 1. Report soon.

Lock Haven and Bellefonte people are suggesting a joint fair for Centre and Clinton counties. This might strike Hecla Park for a fair ground.

An Order from the Postmaster General.

Postmaster General Wilson has issued an order prohibiting such notices as "Please send out" or "Please post up" being placed on the wrapper of third-class mail matter. Such notices will subject the matter to first-class rates. The words "Personal," or "To be called for," are deemed a part of the address and are permissible.

AT THE RING

School Bell

Tens of thousands of the men of the next generation pack up their books and turn their steps towards the school house. Happy days are they for the boy who is well-clothed and well shod; and that reminds us that we have, for various reasons, been the recognized leaders in boys' footwear in this town. Special attention has been paid to shoes for the little men, and this Fall we are better fixed than ever before to clothe their little feet. And we don't forget their little sisters, either.
